He said Bryan is a Lincoln resident who wants to make Oscar's "a satisfactory Lincoln business," and that it was unfair to harshly penalize a business open 18 hours a day for problems occurring in three and one-half hours.

Assistant City Attorney Dana Roper closed by stating that the same ownership exists now as during the time of the violations, but Oscar Mueller has only brought in new people.

"We have heard this song before, only the tune may have changed a little," Roper said. "We are not in a position to tolerate this any longer."

A decision on the application is expected within two weeks, according to commission chairman Phil Weaver.

A career in law—without law school

After just three months of study at The Institute for Paralegal Training in Philadelphia, you can have an exciting and rewarding career in law or business—without law school.

As a lawyer's assistant you will be performing many of the duties traditionally handled only by attorneys. And at The Institute for Paralegal Training, you can pick one of seven different areas of law to study. Upon completion of your training, The Institute's unique Placement Service will find you a responsible and challenging job in a law firm, bank or corporation in the city of your choice.

The Institute for Paralegal Training is the nation's first and most respected school for paralegal training. Since 1970, we've placed over 2,500 graduates in over 85 cities nationwide.

If you're a senior of high academic standing and looking for an above average career, contact your placement office for an interview with our representative.
