

Band to play highlights

The UNL Cornhusker Marching Band will perform musical highlights from the halftime and pre-game performances of the 1981 football season at its concert tonight.

The band, under the direction of Robert A. Fought, will perform at 8 p.m. in Kimball Recital Hall.

"Marching Red" musical highlights will include works from James Bond movies, performed at the Florida State game, through the sounds of jazz, performed at the Oklahoma game. Admission is $3 and tickets are available from the band office, 123 Westbrook Music Building, 472-2505. Office hours are 8:30 a.m. to noon and 1:30 to 4:30 p.m.

A reception for band members and the audience will be in Westbrook Music Building after the concert.
