Gels, mousses and fingers are the three ingredients to a happy hairdo just like last year.

Trends in hair styles won't undergo any drastic changes this spring, according to Debbie Samland of Great Expectations.

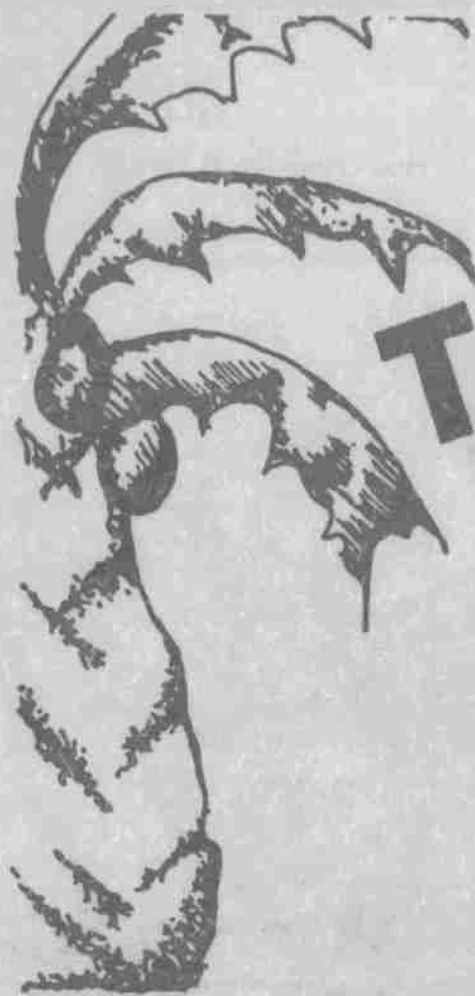

For women, the finger-dried "natural" look, usually achieved with the aid of various styling mousses and gels will once again be a major style. Length varies greatly ranging from above the shoulder, to shoulder length and beyond. Another continuation of the style is keeping the cut above the ears.
