

ay, April 9, 1987

bled class the future

; this man (male and
ducting, and merits my used in their behalf say I have much to se I now call, without y betters).

lly sought the ivory 100ths percent pure)
a cushy chair with ers and lob a stone or nd then, into the cen-oping to hit whatever
as being constructed
p who dared to con-
y express counsel.

to contribute, as best talents will allow, to process. I still seek to y, but remain loyal to any poohfessors are).
y requires more effort han that of the would-
s "arrived."

uring my days here at
ne quite conservative,
sense of the term
y true sense). Conserle; it is not and cannot eology per se. It is a explicitly theocentric
to social construction

Conservatism is an pression. (Subsequent-d by ostensibly friends make it fit a political om those humble doers

th contempt several pe to learn more about hat do life.

n is, "what am I track-se is, "I see tracks."

aduate economics and Dally Nebraskan editor-

rdict; umphs

n a position to pay for amily. He is thus likely le and secure. She is he risk and burden of
for nine months and for eparation at birth. She o live in narrow and stances.

Mary Beth Whitehead
arly unattractive test in the nature of the action to attract White-and stable do not rent
rs. Whitehead did not
r. Stern because he is a s a woman. She lost rn is a chemist and Mr.
garbage collector.

o particular joy to see nfounded. In fact, I was
by the judge's verdict, nal as it was. I find the n of mother from infant of enforcing a contract ectacle. A mother, even other, should have the h of keeping her child, an ordinary adoption

M case is a caution.
irst time that feminist ome back to haunt. In
he women's movement
tal in advancing the
om of sexual self-ex-0 years later, many femng the plague of porno-
thrived in the more
and legal climate they
he women's movement
iberation movement to y the fruits of its own ertheless, the Baby M rticularly sad and stark e law of unintended

ton Post Writers Group
a senior editor for the