Region V preliminary judging for the 14th Annual Student Film Awards, sponsored by the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences and the Academy Foundation, is scheduled at the Sheldon Film Theater on Saturday and Sunday. The screenings are free to the public and begin each day at 7 p.m. Schedules and synopses are available at the door. Refreshments will be served in Sheldon's Great Hall during intermissions. The Student Film Awards were established by the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences and the Academy Foundation to recognize and encourage outstanding achievement in film production by college and university students.

A former UNL professor who served for 30 years as chairman of the University's department of architecture is the featured subject of an educational documentary film currently in production. Linus Burr Smith, FAIA (1899-1982), will be seen in interviews and during his last classroom lecture discussing the architect's role in society and philosophies of instruction and design.

Smith directed the department of architecture from 1934-64. Enrollment during the period grew from 25 to 250 students. Interviews with some of Smith's former students and fellow faculty members will be included in the film.
