

ouri

at which fireworks
8 a.m. and 11 p.m.
midnight on July 4
of permissible fire-
property.

ordinances means
fireworks and - in

Officers are going to deciding who to
Sgt. Ann Heermann

Some kids throwing street, obviously
ne."

the risk - or maybe
er and many other
ue their pursuit of
avoidance of law

the chance each year
er said. "Maybe it's outthead' streak.

lity responsible and I get a kick out of hoping the police
it is just for a fire-

Photos by Daniel Luedert/DN

(clockwise from top left)
JIM DIXON of Fairfax, Mo., readies a bottle rockets display for the evening rush of customers on Tuesday afternoon at Liberty Fireworks in Rock Port, Mo.

JONATHON LATKA, 2, dances with the Liberty Fireworks dinosaur, a.k.a. Reed Evans of Rock Port, Mo., Tuesday evening. Jonathon came to Rock Port from Omaha with his father to buy fireworks.

CUSTOMERS from Iowa, Missouri and Nebraska do their shopping Tuesday afternoon at the Fireworks Emporium in Rock Port, Mo. According to one of the store's employees, the Fireworks Emporium has been open for almost 20 years and gets almost 90 percent of its customers from outside of Missouri.

