

Supreme Court Hears Arguments In Capital Case

Case Characterized as "Most Important Legal Suit From Financial Standpoint of Decades."

Washington, Jan. 7.—Arguments were begun today in the supreme court in the "invested capital case," characterized by Solicitor General Frierson as "the most important legal suit from the standpoint of government finances in a decade."

Washington, Jan. 7.—Arguments were begun today in the supreme court in the "invested capital case," characterized by Solicitor General Frierson as "the most important legal suit from the standpoint of government finances in a decade."

Many Problems Involved. The question of whether a stock dividend is taxable arose in a new form in the present case, the increased value of the ore lands having been represented on the books of the corporation, according to the government's brief, since 1912 by "stock issued as a stock dividend."

Wakefield Plans to Entertain Over 200 High School Youths

Wakefield, Neb., Jan. 7.—(Special.)—Wakefield will entertain the north-east Nebraska older boys conference January 21, 22 and 23. The Wakefield Commercial club is backing the project and great plans are being formed for the entertainment of delegates from about 60 high schools in this section of the state.

Receiver for Ceresco State Bank Will Be Asked

Lincoln, Neb., Jan. 7.—(Special.)—The attorney general's office is preparing to file a petition Saturday in the district court of Saunders county asking for the appointment of a receiver for the Ceresco State bank, whose doors were closed by the department, December 29.

Loup City Commerce Body Elects New Officers

Loup City, Neb., Jan. 7.—(Special.)—At the annual meeting of Loup City Commercial club the following officers were elected: D. A. Beach, president; Dr. J. L. Uhl, vice president; Lamont L. Stephens, secretary; Dr. S. A. Allen, treasurer.

Hamilton County Farmers Moving Crops to Market

Aurora, Neb., Jan. 7.—(Special.)—Farmers of Hamilton county are marketing their wheat and corn by thousands of bushels. The elevators report as much business as can be handled.

Merrick County Board of Supervisors to Reorganize

Central City, Neb., Jan. 7.—(Special.)—The board of supervisors will meet January 11 and organize for the coming year. Although four members were up for re-election, the personnel of the board will remain the same.

Central City Legion to Furnish New Club Rooms

Central City, Neb., Jan. 7.—(Special.)—The American Legion is making preparations for the opening of club rooms in the near future. A hall has been rented and necessary repairs made.

Wymore Man Obtains Collection of Civil War Periodicals

Wymore, Neb., Jan. 7.—(Special.)—W. W. Parks, employed by the Burlington here, has received from New York a collection of periodicals published during the civil war. In addition to a number of Harpers Weekly's, illustrated with scenes of battle drawn by their correspondents while witnessing a battle, the collection includes the Independent, published by Horace Greeley. Editorials are all on the front page, and there is but one illustrated advertisement.

Wymore Council Rejects Special Election Petition

Wymore, Neb., Jan. 7.—(Special.)—The city council has rejected the petition of citizens to call a special election to determine the question of Sunday closing of the moving picture houses here, on the ground that the petition was improperly prepared and presented.

Lord Mayor of Cork Tells Friends of Irish Freedom He Was Stowed Away for Seven Days

Norfolk, Va., Jan. 7.—The story of how the vigilance of the British soldiers was eluded and he had boarded the West Cannon at Cork for his trip to this country was told last night by Daniel O'Callaghan, lord mayor of Cork, who came here from Newport News with Peter MacSwiney.

O'Callaghan Tells Of His Trip to U.S. In First Address

After boarding the ship, O'Callaghan said, he remained concealed seven days in a bunker until driven out by sea sickness. MacSwiney also was a stowaway three days, he said, but finally came out of hiding and was put to work in the forecastle. Through him O'Callaghan said he received food four days.

Wesleyan Sunday School Team to Visit in Wymore

Wymore, Neb., Jan. 7.—(Special.)—B. E. McProud, dean of the school of psychology, will accompany the Sunday school team of the Nebraska Wesleyan college on their visit to this city January 9. The team has arranged to visit numerous cities throughout the state and has for its specific object the fitting in of Sunday school work with the present-day theories of the common school education.

U.S. Never Will Be Dry, Says Kramer

Washington, Jan. 7.—The United States never will be literally dry, Prohibition Commissioner Kramer declared today, though he expressed the opinion prohibition is here to stay. Sentiment throughout the country, he said, is continually growing stronger for prohibition and practical prohibition will come after the present generation. The sons and daughters of the men of today, he declared, will grow up without a taste for liquor.

Farmers' State Union Will Meet in Omaha Coming Week

Members of the Farmers' Educational Co-Operative State Union of Nebraska will hold their annual meeting here January 11 and 12. C. H. Gustafson of Lincoln is president and L. M. Koch of Omaha is secretary.

Seek Library Funds

Lodgepole, Neb., Jan. 7.—(Special.)—"Bashful Mr. Bobbs," will be given by the faculty of the schools here to raise funds for library purposes.

and all the people can reach the meeting place quite handsly."

An admirer of Mr. Greeley gets sentimental and sends him a poem. One of the verses reads:

"There is a man, an honest man, Who speaks the truth and freely; God formed him on his noblest plan, And called him Horace Greeley."

Wymore Council Rejects Special Election Petition

Wymore, Neb., Jan. 7.—(Special.)—The city council has rejected the petition of citizens to call a special election to determine the question of Sunday closing of the moving picture houses here, on the ground that the petition was improperly prepared and presented.

Lord Mayor of Cork Tells Friends of Irish Freedom He Was Stowed Away for Seven Days

Norfolk, Va., Jan. 7.—The story of how the vigilance of the British soldiers was eluded and he had boarded the West Cannon at Cork for his trip to this country was told last night by Daniel O'Callaghan, lord mayor of Cork, who came here from Newport News with Peter MacSwiney.

O'Callaghan Tells Of His Trip to U.S. In First Address

After boarding the ship, O'Callaghan said, he remained concealed seven days in a bunker until driven out by sea sickness. MacSwiney also was a stowaway three days, he said, but finally came out of hiding and was put to work in the forecastle. Through him O'Callaghan said he received food four days.

Wesleyan Sunday School Team to Visit in Wymore

Wymore, Neb., Jan. 7.—(Special.)—B. E. McProud, dean of the school of psychology, will accompany the Sunday school team of the Nebraska Wesleyan college on their visit to this city January 9. The team has arranged to visit numerous cities throughout the state and has for its specific object the fitting in of Sunday school work with the present-day theories of the common school education.

U.S. Never Will Be Dry, Says Kramer

Washington, Jan. 7.—The United States never will be literally dry, Prohibition Commissioner Kramer declared today, though he expressed the opinion prohibition is here to stay. Sentiment throughout the country, he said, is continually growing stronger for prohibition and practical prohibition will come after the present generation. The sons and daughters of the men of today, he declared, will grow up without a taste for liquor.

Farmers' State Union Will Meet in Omaha Coming Week

Members of the Farmers' Educational Co-Operative State Union of Nebraska will hold their annual meeting here January 11 and 12. C. H. Gustafson of Lincoln is president and L. M. Koch of Omaha is secretary.

Seek Library Funds

Lodgepole, Neb., Jan. 7.—(Special.)—"Bashful Mr. Bobbs," will be given by the faculty of the schools here to raise funds for library purposes.

O'Callaghan Tells Of His Trip to U.S. In First Address

After boarding the ship, O'Callaghan said, he remained concealed seven days in a bunker until driven out by sea sickness. MacSwiney also was a stowaway three days, he said, but finally came out of hiding and was put to work in the forecastle. Through him O'Callaghan said he received food four days.

Wesleyan Sunday School Team to Visit in Wymore

Wymore, Neb., Jan. 7.—(Special.)—B. E. McProud, dean of the school of psychology, will accompany the Sunday school team of the Nebraska Wesleyan college on their visit to this city January 9. The team has arranged to visit numerous cities throughout the state and has for its specific object the fitting in of Sunday school work with the present-day theories of the common school education.

U.S. Never Will Be Dry, Says Kramer

Washington, Jan. 7.—The United States never will be literally dry, Prohibition Commissioner Kramer declared today, though he expressed the opinion prohibition is here to stay. Sentiment throughout the country, he said, is continually growing stronger for prohibition and practical prohibition will come after the present generation. The sons and daughters of the men of today, he declared, will grow up without a taste for liquor.

Farmers' State Union Will Meet in Omaha Coming Week

Members of the Farmers' Educational Co-Operative State Union of Nebraska will hold their annual meeting here January 11 and 12. C. H. Gustafson of Lincoln is president and L. M. Koch of Omaha is secretary.

Seek Library Funds

Lodgepole, Neb., Jan. 7.—(Special.)—"Bashful Mr. Bobbs," will be given by the faculty of the schools here to raise funds for library purposes.

Wymore Man Obtains Collection of Civil War Periodicals

Wymore, Neb., Jan. 7.—(Special.)—W. W. Parks, employed by the Burlington here, has received from New York a collection of periodicals published during the civil war. In addition to a number of Harpers Weekly's, illustrated with scenes of battle drawn by their correspondents while witnessing a battle, the collection includes the Independent, published by Horace Greeley. Editorials are all on the front page, and there is but one illustrated advertisement.

Wymore Council Rejects Special Election Petition

Wymore, Neb., Jan. 7.—(Special.)—The city council has rejected the petition of citizens to call a special election to determine the question of Sunday closing of the moving picture houses here, on the ground that the petition was improperly prepared and presented.

Lord Mayor of Cork Tells Friends of Irish Freedom He Was Stowed Away for Seven Days

Norfolk, Va., Jan. 7.—The story of how the vigilance of the British soldiers was eluded and he had boarded the West Cannon at Cork for his trip to this country was told last night by Daniel O'Callaghan, lord mayor of Cork, who came here from Newport News with Peter MacSwiney.

O'Callaghan Tells Of His Trip to U.S. In First Address

After boarding the ship, O'Callaghan said, he remained concealed seven days in a bunker until driven out by sea sickness. MacSwiney also was a stowaway three days, he said, but finally came out of hiding and was put to work in the forecastle. Through him O'Callaghan said he received food four days.

Wesleyan Sunday School Team to Visit in Wymore

Wymore, Neb., Jan. 7.—(Special.)—B. E. McProud, dean of the school of psychology, will accompany the Sunday school team of the Nebraska Wesleyan college on their visit to this city January 9. The team has arranged to visit numerous cities throughout the state and has for its specific object the fitting in of Sunday school work with the present-day theories of the common school education.

U.S. Never Will Be Dry, Says Kramer

Washington, Jan. 7.—The United States never will be literally dry, Prohibition Commissioner Kramer declared today, though he expressed the opinion prohibition is here to stay. Sentiment throughout the country, he said, is continually growing stronger for prohibition and practical prohibition will come after the present generation. The sons and daughters of the men of today, he declared, will grow up without a taste for liquor.

Farmers' State Union Will Meet in Omaha Coming Week

Members of the Farmers' Educational Co-Operative State Union of Nebraska will hold their annual meeting here January 11 and 12. C. H. Gustafson of Lincoln is president and L. M. Koch of Omaha is secretary.

difficult," he said. "Dressed as a laborer, I hung around the quays about an hour. Many of the crew were absent, and when I saw my chance I climbed a ladder and slipped aboard and into the hold."

He added that MacSwiney had boarded ahead of him. O'Callaghan and MacSwiney were guests of the Friends of Irish Freedom here last night.

After boarding the ship, O'Callaghan said, he remained concealed seven days in a bunker until driven out by sea sickness. MacSwiney also was a stowaway three days, he said, but finally came out of hiding and was put to work in the forecastle. Through him O'Callaghan said he received food four days.

Wesleyan Sunday School Team to Visit in Wymore

Wymore, Neb., Jan. 7.—(Special.)—B. E. McProud, dean of the school of psychology, will accompany the Sunday school team of the Nebraska Wesleyan college on their visit to this city January 9. The team has arranged to visit numerous cities throughout the state and has for its specific object the fitting in of Sunday school work with the present-day theories of the common school education.

U.S. Never Will Be Dry, Says Kramer

Washington, Jan. 7.—The United States never will be literally dry, Prohibition Commissioner Kramer declared today, though he expressed the opinion prohibition is here to stay. Sentiment throughout the country, he said, is continually growing stronger for prohibition and practical prohibition will come after the present generation. The sons and daughters of the men of today, he declared, will grow up without a taste for liquor.

Farmers' State Union Will Meet in Omaha Coming Week

Members of the Farmers' Educational Co-Operative State Union of Nebraska will hold their annual meeting here January 11 and 12. C. H. Gustafson of Lincoln is president and L. M. Koch of Omaha is secretary.

Seek Library Funds

Lodgepole, Neb., Jan. 7.—(Special.)—"Bashful Mr. Bobbs," will be given by the faculty of the schools here to raise funds for library purposes.

Wymore Man Obtains Collection of Civil War Periodicals

Wymore, Neb., Jan. 7.—(Special.)—W. W. Parks, employed by the Burlington here, has received from New York a collection of periodicals published during the civil war. In addition to a number of Harpers Weekly's, illustrated with scenes of battle drawn by their correspondents while witnessing a battle, the collection includes the Independent, published by Horace Greeley. Editorials are all on the front page, and there is but one illustrated advertisement.

Wymore Council Rejects Special Election Petition

Wymore, Neb., Jan. 7.—(Special.)—The city council has rejected the petition of citizens to call a special election to determine the question of Sunday closing of the moving picture houses here, on the ground that the petition was improperly prepared and presented.

Lord Mayor of Cork Tells Friends of Irish Freedom He Was Stowed Away for Seven Days

Norfolk, Va., Jan. 7.—The story of how the vigilance of the British soldiers was eluded and he had boarded the West Cannon at Cork for his trip to this country was told last night by Daniel O'Callaghan, lord mayor of Cork, who came here from Newport News with Peter MacSwiney.

O'Callaghan Tells Of His Trip to U.S. In First Address

After boarding the ship, O'Callaghan said, he remained concealed seven days in a bunker until driven out by sea sickness. MacSwiney also was a stowaway three days, he said, but finally came out of hiding and was put to work in the forecastle. Through him O'Callaghan said he received food four days.

Wesleyan Sunday School Team to Visit in Wymore

Wymore, Neb., Jan. 7.—(Special.)—B. E. McProud, dean of the school of psychology, will accompany the Sunday school team of the Nebraska Wesleyan college on their visit to this city January 9. The team has arranged to visit numerous cities throughout the state and has for its specific object the fitting in of Sunday school work with the present-day theories of the common school education.

U.S. Never Will Be Dry, Says Kramer

Washington, Jan. 7.—The United States never will be literally dry, Prohibition Commissioner Kramer declared today, though he expressed the opinion prohibition is here to stay. Sentiment throughout the country, he said, is continually growing stronger for prohibition and practical prohibition will come after the present generation. The sons and daughters of the men of today, he declared, will grow up without a taste for liquor.

Farmers' State Union Will Meet in Omaha Coming Week

Members of the Farmers' Educational Co-Operative State Union of Nebraska will hold their annual meeting here January 11 and 12. C. H. Gustafson of Lincoln is president and L. M. Koch of Omaha is secretary.

would have made out all right, but the ship was rolling badly after being out a week and I succumbed to sea sickness. Finally I determined to lie down a while where the air was better and went to a bunk where the watch was on duty. One fellow, however, came down and discovered me. Despite my sickness, I went to work with Mr. MacSwiney."

After boarding the ship, O'Callaghan said, he remained concealed seven days in a bunker until driven out by sea sickness. MacSwiney also was a stowaway three days, he said, but finally came out of hiding and was put to work in the forecastle. Through him O'Callaghan said he received food four days.

Wesleyan Sunday School Team to Visit in Wymore

Wymore, Neb., Jan. 7.—(Special.)—B. E. McProud, dean of the school of psychology, will accompany the Sunday school team of the Nebraska Wesleyan college on their visit to this city January 9. The team has arranged to visit numerous cities throughout the state and has for its specific object the fitting in of Sunday school work with the present-day theories of the common school education.

U.S. Never Will Be Dry, Says Kramer

Washington, Jan. 7.—The United States never will be literally dry, Prohibition Commissioner Kramer declared today, though he expressed the opinion prohibition is here to stay. Sentiment throughout the country, he said, is continually growing stronger for prohibition and practical prohibition will come after the present generation. The sons and daughters of the men of today, he declared, will grow up without a taste for liquor.

Farmers' State Union Will Meet in Omaha Coming Week

Members of the Farmers' Educational Co-Operative State Union of Nebraska will hold their annual meeting here January 11 and 12. C. H. Gustafson of Lincoln is president and L. M. Koch of Omaha is secretary.

Seek Library Funds

Lodgepole, Neb., Jan. 7.—(Special.)—"Bashful Mr. Bobbs," will be given by the faculty of the schools here to raise funds for library purposes.

Wymore Man Obtains Collection of Civil War Periodicals

Wymore, Neb., Jan. 7.—(Special.)—W. W. Parks, employed by the Burlington here, has received from New York a collection of periodicals published during the civil war. In addition to a number of Harpers Weekly's, illustrated with scenes of battle drawn by their correspondents while witnessing a battle, the collection includes the Independent, published by Horace Greeley. Editorials are all on the front page, and there is but one illustrated advertisement.

Wymore Council Rejects Special Election Petition

Wymore, Neb., Jan. 7.—(Special.)—The city council has rejected the petition of citizens to call a special election to determine the question of Sunday closing of the moving picture houses here, on the ground that the petition was improperly prepared and presented.

Lord Mayor of Cork Tells Friends of Irish Freedom He Was Stowed Away for Seven Days

Norfolk, Va., Jan. 7.—The story of how the vigilance of the British soldiers was eluded and he had boarded the West Cannon at Cork for his trip to this country was told last night by Daniel O'Callaghan, lord mayor of Cork, who came here from Newport News with Peter MacSwiney.

O'Callaghan Tells Of His Trip to U.S. In First Address

After boarding the ship, O'Callaghan said, he remained concealed seven days in a bunker until driven out by sea sickness. MacSwiney also was a stowaway three days, he said, but finally came out of hiding and was put to work in the forecastle. Through him O'Callaghan said he received food four days.

Wesleyan Sunday School Team to Visit in Wymore

Wymore, Neb., Jan. 7.—(Special.)—B. E. McProud, dean of the school of psychology, will accompany the Sunday school team of the Nebraska Wesleyan college on their visit to this city January 9. The team has arranged to visit numerous cities throughout the state and has for its specific object the fitting in of Sunday school work with the present-day theories of the common school education.

U.S. Never Will Be Dry, Says Kramer

Washington, Jan. 7.—The United States never will be literally dry, Prohibition Commissioner Kramer declared today, though he expressed the opinion prohibition is here to stay. Sentiment throughout the country, he said, is continually growing stronger for prohibition and practical prohibition will come after the present generation. The sons and daughters of the men of today, he declared, will grow up without a taste for liquor.

Farmers' State Union Will Meet in Omaha Coming Week

Members of the Farmers' Educational Co-Operative State Union of Nebraska will hold their annual meeting here January 11 and 12. C. H. Gustafson of Lincoln is president and L. M. Koch of Omaha is secretary.

U.S. Never Will Be Dry, Says Kramer

Washington, Jan. 7.—The United States never will be literally dry, Prohibition Commissioner Kramer declared today, though he expressed the opinion prohibition is here to stay. Sentiment throughout the country, he said, is continually growing stronger for prohibition and practical prohibition will come after the present generation. The sons and daughters of the men of today, he declared, will grow up without a taste for liquor.

Farmers' State Union Will Meet in Omaha Coming Week

Members of the Farmers' Educational Co-Operative State Union of Nebraska will hold their annual meeting here January 11 and 12. C. H. Gustafson of Lincoln is president and L. M. Koch of Omaha is secretary.

Seek Library Funds

Lodgepole, Neb., Jan. 7.—(Special.)—"Bashful Mr. Bobbs," will be given by the faculty of the schools here to raise funds for library purposes.

Wymore Man Obtains Collection of Civil War Periodicals

Wymore, Neb., Jan. 7.—(Special.)—W. W. Parks, employed by the Burlington here, has received from New York a collection of periodicals published during the civil war. In addition to a number of Harpers Weekly's, illustrated with scenes of battle drawn by their correspondents while witnessing a battle, the collection includes the Independent, published by Horace Greeley. Editorials are all on the front page, and there is but one illustrated advertisement.

Wymore Council Rejects Special Election Petition

Wymore, Neb., Jan. 7.—(Special.)—The city council has rejected the petition of citizens to call a special election to determine the question of Sunday closing of the moving picture houses here, on the ground that the petition was improperly prepared and presented.

Lord Mayor of Cork Tells Friends of Irish Freedom He Was Stowed Away for Seven Days

Norfolk, Va., Jan. 7.—The story of how the vigilance of the British soldiers was eluded and he had boarded the West Cannon at Cork for his trip to this country was told last night by Daniel O'Callaghan, lord mayor of Cork, who came here from Newport News with Peter MacSwiney.

O'Callaghan Tells Of His Trip to U.S. In First Address

After boarding the ship, O'Callaghan said, he remained concealed seven days in a bunker until driven out by sea sickness. MacSwiney also was a stowaway three days, he said, but finally came out of hiding and was put to work in the forecastle. Through him O'Callaghan said he received food four days.

Wesleyan Sunday School Team to Visit in Wymore

Wymore, Neb., Jan. 7.—(Special.)—B. E. McProud, dean of the school of psychology, will accompany the Sunday school team of the Nebraska Wesleyan college on their visit to this city January 9. The team has arranged to visit numerous cities throughout the state and has for its specific object the fitting in of Sunday school work with the present-day theories of the common school education.

U.S. Never Will Be Dry, Says Kramer

Washington, Jan. 7.—The United States never will be literally dry, Prohibition Commissioner Kramer declared today, though he expressed the opinion prohibition is here to stay. Sentiment throughout the country, he said, is continually growing stronger for prohibition and practical prohibition will come after the present generation. The sons and daughters of the men of today, he declared, will grow up without a taste for liquor.

Farmers' State Union Will Meet in Omaha Coming Week

Members of the Farmers' Educational Co-Operative State Union of Nebraska will hold their annual meeting here January 11 and 12. C. H. Gustafson of Lincoln is president and L. M. Koch of Omaha is secretary.

Seek Library Funds

Lodgepole, Neb., Jan. 7.—(Special.)—"Bashful Mr. Bobbs," will be given by the faculty of the schools here to raise funds for library purposes.

Wymore Man Obtains Collection of Civil War Periodicals

Wymore, Neb., Jan. 7.—(Special.)—W. W. Parks, employed by the Burlington here, has received from New York a collection of periodicals published during the civil war. In addition to a number of Harpers Weekly's, illustrated with scenes of battle drawn by their correspondents while witnessing a battle, the collection includes the Independent, published by Horace Greeley. Editorials are all on the front page, and there is but one illustrated advertisement.

Wymore Council Rejects Special Election Petition

Wymore, Neb., Jan. 7.—(Special.)—The city council has rejected the petition of citizens to call a special election to determine the question of Sunday closing of the moving picture houses here, on the ground that the petition was improperly prepared and presented.

Toilet Goods and Drugs

- 40c Djer Kiss Rouge or Compact Powder, at 39c
30c Mennen's Talcum, at 19c
40c Odorono, special, at 29c
30c Bromo Quinine, at 21c
30c Saniflush, at 19c
65c Hospital Cotton (1-lb. pkg.), special, at 35c
65c Ablens Water, at 35c
15c Violet Glycerine or Juvenile Soap, extra special, at 8 1/2c

HAYDEN'S THE CASH STORE

Some Unusual Values in the Corset Section
Corsets made in very finest pink batiste and coutil—2 and 3 pairs hose supporters, fancy and plain materials. Your choice of front and back lace. All sizes, 19 to 36, at $3.29
Brassieres, made with linen lace reinforced under arm. Sizes 34 to 46. Special, at 68c
Corset Department—Second Floor

Out Go All the Winter Coats

The Suits—The Dresses At Most Astonishing Bargain Prices Saturday.

- Fur Coats, worth $100.00, Saturday— $69.00
Fur Coats, worth $275.00, $300.00, $325.00, Saturday— $200
300 Women's and Misses' Cloth and Plush Coats, sold up to $59.00, Saturday— $25.00
100 Women's and Misses' Cloth and Silk Dresses, special Saturday— $19.75
500 Georgette Crepe Blouses, all colors, worth up to $10.00, choice Saturday— $5.00
200 Women's and Misses' Wool Sweaters and Slip-ons, worth up to $10.00, Saturday— $5.00

Saturday in Children's Department choice of any Girl's Cloth Coat at HALF-PRICE. Choice of any Girl's Wool Dress at HALF-PRICE.

January Shoe Clearance

We have taken all the short lines and odd pairs in both men's and women's and have marked them so low that they must appeal to all who want to make or save money. Men's Gun Metal Bluchers and Bals with a few broken sizes of a dark brown gun metal blucher, good $7.50 values $5.00
Women's Black Vici Kid Lace Shoes with French or Military heels, $8.50 values $5.95
Men's Heavy Work Shoes, in black or brown with good solid leather nailed soles, in sizes 7 to 12 $3.00
Misses' Good School Shoes, a splendid $3.50 value $2.50
Men's or Women's All-Felt House Slippers with good heavy felt soles $1.00

Your Choice of Our Entire Fall and Winter Stock of Men's and Young Men's SUITS and OVERCOATS

Hart Schaffner & Marx And Other High Grade Makes That Sold to $90. $27.75
Every winter garment goes. Plain blues and blacks are included. All at the one price. Every garment guaranteed the same as if sold at regular retail prices. An opportunity to choose from an immense stock of high class, fully guaranteed Suits and Overcoats at actually less than replacement cost today. Just our method of insuring the opening of the Spring Season with all new stocks. No C. O. D.'s, No Alterations, No Layaways.

January Clearance Hosiery

Large Assortments of Dependable Quality. Women's Fine Gage Pure Thread Silk Hose, full fashioned and some with mock seam, in all good colors. Values sold up to $3.50 and $3.75; Clearance Price $1.89
Women's Full Fashioned Mercerized Lisle Hose, in best makes; black, white and colors; never sold for less than $1.75 and $1.50; our Cash Price only $1.00
Women's Fine Cotton and Mercerized Lisle Hose, in regular and extra sizes; large assortment of colors sold from 85c to $1.25; sale price, only $1.00
Infants' Cashmere Hose, 65c and 75c values, at 39c