

Over the County

EMMET NEWS

Mrs. Clarence Farr has been ill for the past week and is improving now. Mrs. J. H. Patterson has also been ill and Bobby Allen, who has been absent from school, is better now and returned to school Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Peacock are also on the sick list for the past two weeks. We are glad to report that they are all much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Beckwith and family, Mr. Fred Beckwith, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Beckwith and Leona Fern were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Rex Beckwith Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sewell Johnson and daughters were Sunday dinner guests of Mrs. Gerald Johnson's sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Cooper, of Chambers.

Dick, Keith and Justin Anspach visited at the John Conard home Sunday afternoon and night.

The South Side Improvement Club met last Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Ben Bachman. The women enjoyed an all day meeting and a lovely dinner was served at noon. After dinner some work for the Red Cross was done and a book review on "The Life of Will Rogers" was given by Mrs. Robert Fox, which was enjoyed by all.

Besides the other entertainment of the afternoon the business showed some antiquities of which one was a knitted glove worn by her grandmother on her wedding day. It was interlarded with tiny beads. At the Christmas Day party, which was at the home of Mrs. F. W. McGinnis, two new members were welcomed into the club, namely, Mrs. John Conard and Grandma Cole. The features of this party besides the exchange of Christmas gifts was filling boxes for the Veterans' hospital and also the Orthopedic hospital. The members were all present except Miss Alex McConnell and Mrs. Cal Tenberg. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Francis Clark.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Covens and son, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Beckwith and Leona Fern, Mrs. Lowell Johnson and children visited at the Sewell Johnson home Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Alex McConnell returned to her home Monday evening after being in O'Neill the past weeks.

Offie Beckwith spent the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Beckwith.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Foreman and Mr. and Mrs. John Pruss visited Mr. and Mrs. Anson Tomjack and family in Ewing Sunday.

Bonnie Tomjack went to her home Wednesday of last week to help with the work during her mother's illness of pneumonia.

Eather and Dorothy Fox visited Merna Fox in Emmet Sunday.

A. E. Roggach, of Duff, and John Hammer, of Rose, spent Thursday night at the J. S. Bair home.

Mrs. Dale Vetter and daughter, of Riverview, were callers at the Thomas Peacock home to stay for a week's visit. She is their daughter.

Sadie Marie Lowery was a supper guest at the Henry Kloppenborg home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Bair and family and Mrs. Theresa Roggach were Sunday dinner guests at the John Bair home in Bassett.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Tenberg were dinner guests at the W. R. Tenberg home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Pickett and family were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Eli McConnell and family, of Atkinson.

MEEK AND VICINITY

The Ladies Aid met with Mrs. Emmet Slaughter on Wednesday afternoon. Quite a large crowd attended. After the business meeting a delicious lunch was served by the hostess. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Sam Robertson, where the ladies plan on doing some sewing for the Red Cross.

Mr. Lowe and son, of Ponca, Nebraska, visited their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Lowry, the first of the week. They left for their home on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Devall and sons spent Wednesday evening at the Art Remter home.

Mr. and Mrs. August Kavel entertained several guests at Pinochle on Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Pfeil and family and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Martin and son were dinner guests at the Art Anker home on Springview on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Thomas and family were dinner guests of Mrs. Della Harrison on Sunday.

Mrs. Art Remter and daughter, Mary Janice, visited from Tuesday until Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Martin Langan near Spencer.

Dinner guests of Mrs. Carrie Borg on Monday were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Niday and Rev. Martz, of Meadow Grove, Marriedly Hubby, of Atkinson, and Elmer Devall.

Warren Wilson, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Robertson, is quite ill with pneumonia at the O'Neill hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Larson are the proud parents of a baby boy. Mrs. Larson was the former Charlotte Kurtz.

Mrs. John Gifford, of Dorsey, was a dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. Herman DeGroof on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Karl Krogh and John Krogh, jr., of Redbird, were dinner guests on Sunday at the Fred Lindberg home.

INMAN NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hancock and two daughters and Mrs. Frank Kubitschek, of O'Neill, were Sunday visitors at the home of Mrs. Mary Hanenck.

Stuart Hartigan of Norfolk, was in Inman Thursday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Renner left Thursday for Neligh, where they visited until Saturday at the home of Mrs. Renner's mother, Mrs. Bert Jones.

Harold Britell of the CCC camp at Madison visited his father from Thursday until Saturday.

The L. L. Club met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Jennie Crosser.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Sawyer and family returned Wednesday from Arcadia, where they have been visiting relatives the past three weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Alexander and family, of Royal, visited at the home of her mother, Mrs. Julia Riley over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Noe and son, of Orchard, visited Sunday at the W. H. Chicken home.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Conger and family, of Elgin, visited Sunday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Conger.

Mrs. J. T. Thompson visited at the Pete Cooper home in Orchard on Friday.

Oscar Gregory, of Arcadia, is visiting friends in Inman this week.

David Morsbach was in Neligh Tuesday and Wednesday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Perkins, of O'Neill visited Sunday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Perkins.

The Rebecca Lodge held installation of officers at the I. O. O. F.

Had Wednesday evening. A group of women from the Atkinson camp attended the meeting.

E. L. Watson returned Tuesday from Lincoln, where he spent several days visiting relatives.

Lawrence Lynch and Dale Stamp of the CCC camp at Madison, spent the week end with home folks.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Miller visited Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Miller at Neligh.

Bob Messman left Monday for Madison, where he will enter the CCC camp.

Mr. and Mrs. Hardin Anspach drove to O'Neill Monday, where they attended the funeral of Mrs. Anspach's mother, Mrs. Anna Hughes.

Mr. and Mrs. David Morsbach and two children visited relatives at Neligh Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence McClurg, of Omaha, visited at the Warren McClurg home in Inman Wednesday.

The Inman High School basketball team attended the county tournament in Stuart Wednesday and Thursday evenings.

The Inman railway section house was bought by Ted Hopkins and he is moving it to his farm south of Inman.

McKinley Davis, of Maville, Iowa; Dewey Davis, of Hildre Creek, Iowa; Mrs. Corn Garrison, of Persia, Iowa; Mrs. Esther Thompson, of Ida Grove, Iowa; Lloyd Davis, of Oteholt, Iowa; John Davis, of O'Neill, and Kenneth Davis, of Rebel Creek, Nevada, attended the funeral of their father, George T. Davis, in Inman Saturday.

Editor Cronin went to Lincoln Monday to be ready for duty when the legislature convened Tuesday.

The Frontier, January 12, 1931. Jas. Jacobs, one of the old-time residents of the county, died at his home in this city on January 8, 1931.

The Frontier, January 9, 1931. A card received from E. H. Whelan at San Diego, Cal., states that Mrs. Whelan and the family have arrived and that they are now cozyly settled.

The newly elected county officers commenced their official duties this morning. They are: Ira H. Moss, Atkinson, Clerk of the District Court; J. M. Hunter, County Assessor. Members of the county board: L. C. McKim, L. E. Skidmore, Samuel Riley.

The Frontier, January 13, 1931. James P. Mullen, one of the prominent citizens of this county, died in a hospital in Omaha Tuesday morning after a short illness, while he was in Omaha attending a meeting of the Farmers Insurance Company, of which he was a director.

Miss Catherine P. Morrison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Morrison and Edward Davidson, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Davidson, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony at St. Patrick's church Tuesday morning, the Rev. M. F. Cassidy officiating.

The Frontier, January 1, 1931. Supervisor Elmer Gibson died in the hospital at Stuart Tuesday evening, December 30, following an operation for appendicitis. He was a little over 61 years of age. Henry Kiepper, 84, passed away at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Henry Wegman, three miles west of O'Neill Wednesday night.

The Frontier, January 8, 1931. Mrs. Adam Martin passed away at her home in the western part of the city on Wednesday, January 7, following several years illness. She was 70 years of age.

Charles Wyatt and Miss Mary Goddy were united in marriage at Emmet, Neb., by Rev. M. F. Byrne at 8 o'clock Monday morning.

R. E. Calvert on New Year's Day won for the second time the championship cup offered by the O'Neill Gun Club for the best live rock shot in a seventy-five yard contest sponsored by the club each year. He broke 68 out of 75. Best score was second with 62 out of 75.

E. E. Porter, republican county clerk, and E. L. Woodard, democratic registrar of deeds, completed their terms of office Wednesday evening. John C. Gallinger, democratic, took over the office of county clerk, while Mrs. Esther Cole Harris, republican, took charge of the office of registrar of deeds on Thursday morning.

The thermometer dropped to seven degrees below zero sometime during Tuesday night, according to the official weather department supervised by Harry Bowen. This was the first of the sub-zero weather since the twenty-second (January, 1930).

Miss Mary Hartly left on Sunday for Chicago, Ill., where she will spend the next two weeks visiting relatives and friends.

Miss Genevieve Williams returned Tuesday evening from Omaha, where she spent several days on business.

Sec. and Mrs. V. C. Wright returned on Tuesday evening from Omaha, where they were on business.

Gene Kilpatrick and Miss Vivian Erickson, of Norfolk, spent Sunday here visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Kilpatrick.

Mrs. W. H. Hartly and Mrs. J. P. Brown left on Sunday for Omaha, where they spent a few days shopping and visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Noah Uhl, L. O. Johnson and E. J. Reardon left on Tuesday morning for Rochester, Minn., where they will go through the clinic of the Mayo Brothers.

L. E. Stout, County Agent, returned on Thursday evening from Lincoln, where he had attended the annual conference of the Extension Department.

Mrs. Marie Lamphere left on Friday morning for her home at Lincoln, Nebraska, after spending several days here visiting her sister, Mrs. L. E. Stout and family.

O'Neill Livestock Commission Company O'NEILL, NEBRASKA

A good, dependable home market for your livestock.

OUR AIM IS TO PLEASE YOU Try us with your next consignment.

SALE EVERY MONDAY PHONE 2

BIG 2 DAY CANNED GOODS SALE

Friday and Saturday January 17 and 18

A Special 2-day event for thrifty shoppers who wish to stock up their pantries and Hospitality Shelf with canned foods of recognized dependability at reduced prices.

SUPERB BRAND CANNED FRUITS

Table listing various canned fruits and their prices, including Apricots, Peaches, Pineapple, Fruits for Salad, Apples, Pears, Fruit Cocktail, Strawberries, Cherries, Prunes, Boysenberries, and Grapes.

SUPERB BRAND VEGETABLES

Table listing various canned vegetables and their prices, including Asparagus, Beans, Mixed Vegetables, Corn, Carrots, Peas, Tomatoes, Pumpkin, and Sweet Spuds.

Advertisement for Council Oak Coffee, featuring 'No. 10 Near Gallon Morning Light Fruits' and 'Nancy Ann Bread'.

Advertisement for Council Oak Coffee, featuring 'Navy Beans' and 'Peanut Butter'.

COUNCIL OAK COFFEE

Table listing various coffee products and their prices, including Fresh Citrus Fruits, Delicious Apples, Wine Sap Apples, Head Lettuce, and York State Cabbage.

BETTER MEATS mean BETTER MEALS

Advertisement for Council Oak Meat Cutters, featuring 'Dependable Beef Roasts' and 'Beef Steak'.

Advertisement for 'The Dr. Shrader Ear Pump' for home treatment of deafness, head noises, and dry ears.

Ten Years Ago

The Frontier, January 1, 1921. Supervisor Elmer Gibson died in the hospital at Stuart Tuesday evening, December 30, following an operation for appendicitis. He was a little over 61 years of age. Henry Kiepper, 84, passed away at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Henry Wegman, three miles west of O'Neill Wednesday night.

Thirty Years Ago

The Frontier, January 5, 1901. Mercury ranged from 32 below zero on Tuesday morning to 36 above this morning. Editor Cronin went to Lincoln Monday to be ready for duty when the legislature convened Tuesday.

The Days of Long Ago

(Continued from page 4)