On The Sidelines

By Observer

O'Neill High has finally the coach that will succeed Don Anderson and Harold Connors; he is Coach E. M. Segel. As far as we can learn he came from Los Angeles, Cal., where he has been teaching. Mr. Segel along with being a football and basketball coach also will take the O'Neill boxing team under his wing, as he has taught this sport elsewhere. The Observer wishes him good luck in his new field here at O'Neill High.

This coming week O'Neill will be host to the Annual Class B Tourney. Ten teams will participate; of these Long Pine, Butte, Atkinson and St. Mary's are seeded. Our predictions are: The first round:

Butte over Spencer. St. Mary's over Orchard. The second round: Butte over Page. Atkinson over Springview. Long Pine over Stuart. St. Mary's over Lynch. The semifinals will find: Butte over Atkinson. St. Mary's over Long Pine. The finals: Butte over St. Mary's.

Of course you know we could be wrong as we often pick things just the opposite from the way they do come out and the reason we pick Butte over St. Mary's is due to the loss during the season which Butte handed to St. Mary's, but since that time the Cardinals have not been idle and I believe will give Butte a better fight than during the season.

Some of the better games of the tournament, we think, will be the Butte-Spencer game, as these two schools are traditional rivals and should put up a good scrap. Butte over Atkinson should be another good game as the big boys from Atkinson should turn on plenty of power to try and down Butte.

Of course the finals will be a real tussle with St. Mary's and Butte battling it out for the right to represent this section in the state tourney.

County Spelling Contest To Be Held Next Month

Every rural school is invited to enter two contestants and the town schools are invited to enter four. Entries must be sent to Miss Irene Wrede, Atkinson Public schools, by March 15th.

Class B Tournament News

Forty-three business people of O'Neill have made contributions for the purchasing of trophies and programs to be presented at the Class B Basketball Tournament. The tournament is being played on the evenings of March 4, 5, 6 and 7, in the O'Neill High School Gymnasium.

The cooperation and support given to the tournament last year undoubtedly influenced participating schools to desire to come to O'Neill again this year. Your continued support is desired in order to make the tournament this year again an outstanding success. Business people of O'Neill are awarding a beautiful trophy to the runner-up team in Class B. If O'Neill is assigned a Class C play-off, they are presenting an artistic trophy to the winning Class C team. Should there not be a Class C play-off, a trophy will be awarded to the team winning third place in the Class B. These trophies will be presented between halves of the final game Friday night.

The trophy for the champion Class B team is provided through the Nebraska High School Activities Association so as to have uniform trophies presented to all winners in District Tournaments. Mrs. Anna Jordan drove to Neigh on Tuesday and spent the day there visiting friends.

Prices Little Easier As Liberal Receipts of Livestock Sold

Last Monday's receipts of livestock consisted of about the usual numbers of cattle and hogs. In addition to these nearly 100 horses and mules and around 50 sheep were sold. Prices were a little easier on the bulk of the day's offering, although the really good kinds were fully steady with a week ago. The demand remains good and there was a ready outlet for all the stock offered.

An extreme top of $12.00 was paid for steer calves. Bulk of this class cashed mostly from $11.00 to $11.75. Yearlings were scarce and the good kind were fully steady. Those of plainer quality were a little off in price compared with a week ago. The cow market was about steady with last week. Good milch cows continued to bring attractive prices.

The extreme top on butcher hogs was $7.10 and $7.00 was the popular price for the bulk of this class. Sows reached $6.50. Stock pigs brought from $8.00 to $9.00. The sheep receipts consisted chiefly of bred ewes. The next regular auction will be held Monday, March 3.

Keeping Farm Accounts Is On The Increase

New income tax regulations are causing more interest on the part of Holt county farm people in keeping farm account records for 1941. Accurate accounting systems have proved very valuable to those filing tax returns this year. New books and assistance in starting are being given by county agent, Lyndie R. Stout, at this time. At the present time 28 farmers have received books and there is still plenty of time to start a book this spring.
