Neb. State Historical Society

THE FRONTIER

VOL. LXI

BREEZES

Getting Ready For Golf Season Opening

By Romaine Saunders

SOUTHWESTERN

wants us to feed "starving Eurresponsibility on us?

Well, our precinct assessors are stil functioning. Rafe Shaw, who has inventoried Swan to the satisfaction of all since the memory of man runneth, was around early April to see what this corner of the precinct harbored that the tax gatherers could get a crack at.

The defense and lease-lend prosperity still leaves the country with nine million unemployed, say labor leaders. And if they decide to lay down their guns in the war zone, what sort of an industrial crash will overwhelm us? Prosperity built upon the accumulated billions of national debt for the purpose of lengthening the black shadow of cussed. death and broken bodies of man can in no sense become a permanent asset.

been loping by on their ponies on of acquaintance will be open to the way to school with a cheery them. The club is the center of wave of the hand as they pass will social activities for the summer now be missed. Last week closed season and is by no means an exthe term in two districts of this clusive organization. Any citizen neighborhood. Miss Foss, the in O'Neill is welcome to join. R. on the school grounds Sunday.

The golf course of the O'Neill Country Club is attracting numerous golfers who are enjoying the beautiful weather and the A militant group wants to fight healthful sport. Ladies in increastheir battles-a sympathetic group ing numbers are appearing on the course and are reporting scores ope." In heavens name, let them that may well be compared with starve until they come to their the scores of the best men players. ers are responsible. Why load continue to show increasing interest, a tournament may be arranged for them. Possibly some of them will enter the state ladies golf tournament which will be held at Norfolk this season. A membership drive will be held during the month of May, and it is anticipated that the membership club offers a varied entertainment by feeding for higher production, mony being performed in this city. with highlights as follows: Opening dance, May 22, ment. Invitation tournament, June 15, 16 and 17. A Fourth of July celebration.

The weekly dinner parties, and The stag party. The ladies Spring Tea, held each year by the ladies, has been ed as broilers. set for May 14. At this affair May hatched Leghorn chicks of- this county.

activities for the year will be disfer greate possibilities for egg The purpose of the O'Neill Country Club is for entertainment but hatching after May 15 will not of the county for nearly fifty only. Newcomers to O'Neill will find a hearty welcome awaiting losses. The boys and girls who have them at the club and new avenues

Livestock Prices On Local Markets Steady

Last Monday's offering of liveteacher in the Berry district, en- M. Sauers is the membership chair- stock stacked up prices fully steady tertained the pupils and their par- man and will gladly explain the with last week's and the demand will regret to learn of her death ents at a quiet picnic gathering system of dues, which prospec- was broad on all kinds. Receipts as it was not generally known that O'Neill High "O" Club tive members will find to be very were about normal and the quality her condition was serious. was better than a week ago. Brisk moderate. who are play- action prevailed througout the sale. County Project Clubs Among the la

O'NEILL, NEBRASKA, THURSDAY, MAY 1, 1941

Mrs. Nellie Maring Egg Production Increasing To Assist National Defense

Recent announcements of a na- ing at 4:45 o'clock, after an illtion wide drive to produce every ness of about three months, at possible egg from present laying the age of 66 years, two months offer farmers in Holt county an be held from the Catholic church opportunity to take part in the in this city on Saturday morning national defense and aid to Britain at 9 o'clock and burial in Calvary senses over there. The axis pow- It is believed that, if the ladies programs according to information cemetery at the side of her husreceived by county agent, Lyndle band who passed away last Octo-R. Stout. The announcement that ber.

the department of agriculture Nellie Murray was born in Colwould support long time egg prices fax county, Nebraska, on Februat on average of about 22 cents ary 14, 1875. In the latter eighat Chicago and indications that if ties she came to this county with necessary corn will be released her parents and she grew to womfrom the present loan to insure anhood in this section. On May feed will give incentive to poultry 23, 1900, she was united in marraisers to increase egg production riage to Joseph Maring, the cereculling to remove disease carriers Three children were born of this and the use of better flock manage- union, two of whom preceded their mother in death leaving one daugh-Comments by poultry men from ter, Mrs. Levi Yantzi and four the Nebraska agricultural college grandchildren to mourn the passare that where possible it probably ing of a kind and affectionate Mothwill pay to hold over old hens for er and grandmother. She is also a second year and to hold pullets survived by one sister, Mrs. John which would otherwise be market. Cleary and three brothers, Lawrence, Thomas and Henry, all of

Mrs. Maring was a loveable production than heavier breeds woman and had been a resident prove profitable at current prices, years. The family lived south of because of poor hatches and death Emmett for several years, then moved to their farm north of this city where she resided until the death of her husband last fall when she moved to this town and had since made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Yantzi. She had a host of friends in this city and adjacent territory who

Presbyterian Church Honors Old Resident Mrs. Nellie Maring died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Levi And Church Benefactor Yantzi in this city, Thursday morn-

The Crops Judging and Identification team, the Crops and Soil "On April 29,1907, the congre- Management team, and the Livegation of the Presbyterian church stock Judging team, with their of O'Neill, Nebr., was most agree- instructor Mr. Mathis, left for flocks this spring and summer will and sixteen days. The funeral will ably surprized in the gift of a bell Lincoln last Thursday morning, "This was a gift of Mr. Neil April 24, to participate in the Brennan, a worthy townsman and Twenty - Seventh Annual State half interest in the Stuart Ledger, a member of the Roman Catholic Agriculture Contest. Church. The bell weighs 1000 pounds net, and will be placed in in this contest, making a total of the belfry to be rung on Sunday seven hundred and fifty boys. The morning, May 12th, for the first contest lasted three days and was time in memory of the 33rd Anni- held at the Agricultural College. rock, were in town the first of the versary of the doners residence The boys on the Crops and Soils week. here, and I rather think the found- Management team, Francis Muring of O'Neill as a town. "On Sunday morning, the 12th of a Superior rating as a team. Fran- County. By some, it is claimed May, 1907, the bell was rung for cis Murray also received an Ex- that seven rainy Sundays always the first time and all were very cellent as individual in this same follows a rainy Easter. much pleased with it and resolucontest. The Crops Judging and for their fine work. Francis Murray placed Superior in this as an

...J. K. Ernst

Center Union Male Quartet

Everyone cordially invited.

is hard on the railroads.

Busy Hour Club

Busy Hour Club met at the home

Roll call was answered by giv-tions were passed by the congrega- Identification team, Rex Oberle, tion thanking Mr. Brennan for his Clifford Burival, and Francis Murhadsome and useful gift." ray, received an Excellent rating

F. C. Hullhorst, pastor

At a regular meeting of the on Monday evening, April 21, it was regularly moved and seconded and the motion was unanimously ed in this state contest. carried that May the 12th, 1941, Superior and Excellent ratings brought from $11.00 to $14.00 per be called - Neil Brennan Day -and that the bell be rung five (5) lent are not given.

minutes in appreciation of the gift and in honor of the donor.

Session— R. H. Shriner, clerk C. E. Yantzi B. T. Winchell Ed Burge John Meyers	did not bring back a placing. Even if this team did not place, it was excellent experience for the boys, I and we believe that the education- al valu gained was indeed worth while. Considering the number of schools entered in this state con- test, our boys are to be commend-
R. M. Sauers Dr. J. E. Spencer, pastor

ed highly for their fine work. Have Successful Party Annual Home Coming

At Center Union More than 100 merry makers

ces

Message in Song

2:30 Sermon __

8:30 Sermon

LONG AGO

Fifty-Five Years Ago

Number 51

The Frontier, April 22, 1886. John W. Wertz has purchased a and already the paper has assumed Sixty schools were represented a brighter, livlier appearance.

> The Frontier, April 29, 1886 Milt and Sol Henoch, of Sham-

The rain of last Sunday was ray and Clifford Burival, received worth thousands of dollars to Holt

Fifty Years Ago

The Frontier, April 23, 1891

Eighteen hundred and ninetyession of the Presbyterian Church individual. The Livestock team, five carloads of hay has been Bob Hanley, John Etherton, and shipped out of this county during George Hendrick, also participat. the past shipping season. Hay sold last fall for $4.00 per ton and and each May 12th from now on are the only ratings given at this ton during the winter and spring. contest. Any ratings below Excel- Tracy Gwin started for Omaha Tuesday morning. He has secured O'Neill can boast that only one a position in one of the large pack-team went to this contes which ing plants in south Omaha. id not bring back a placing. Even f this team did not place, it was The Neligh Leader says that no xcellent experience for the boys, Italian war ships have been seen nd we believe that the education- to sail up the Elkhorn yet.

The Frontier, April 30, 1891

G. M. Cleveland has fully dechools entered in this state con- cided to move from O'Neill to Hot est, our boys are to be commend- Springs, S. D. He had been a resident of O'Neill for about a dozen years, engaged in the practice of law and for a time in the newspaper business.

The forecast of horticulturalists and nursery men that the early freeze up last fall meant death to fruit and shade trees that were caught in full foliage proved to be erroneous as to this community. Apple and Elm trees that had are now budding to another sea- ite threat in the June tournament for less. bushes have put forth early blossoms. Cottonwoods are the earliest to wave a green plume in the St. John's Nebraska. spring and the last to embrace the frosty air of autumn in nude arms.

best friends are the native snakes. tures destroy rats and other rodents. The Nebraska prairies have been my dwelling place for well nigh a lifetime. I have saved eggs, young chickens, birds and frogs and toads from the fatal Battle Creek. embrace of the subtle serpent but I have yet to run onto a streak of mottled ugliness with a rat going down his throat.

H. L. James came out from the city Sunday with bulls to turn into high school and Creighton univer- O'Neill High School's 1941 track not been removed from one of the player. When he moved to Batle Placing only four men in the There is a fellow sufferer over Askey at Lincoln. here who sustained a bunged-up Dr. and Mrs. Hunt will make cus 100 feet for 4th position. shoulder because of an obstreper- their home in Battle Creek. ous heifer. We might have been able to ride the Chisholm Trail with the best of them in our day, some and slow to be playing at the picture and are gone, the mem- competed at Bassett. the cowboy stuff.

Art Doolittle has made a start ing years. But few will even now day, May 2nd. at tree planting in his section of remember such notable papers as the ranch country by putting out the Chicago Inter-Ocean, the Oa thousad trees this spring. There maha Bee and many others that are many magnificent groves in wielded a powerful influence over We wish to express our heart-try also produces tall timber.

After 111 years of continuous as grass and the glory of man as our recent bereavement in the loss ing. publication, the Boston Transcript the flower of grass. The grass of my beloved wife and our dear announced it would expire on April withereth and the flower thereof mother.

30. Great papers, like great men, falleth away. But the word of the have a period of popularity, in- Lord endureth forever."

ing an unusually good game for Good lightweight steer calves Held Annual this early in the spring are Mrs. sold from $12.00 to $12.75 with Meeting Last Week Fred Harper, Helen Biglin, Ber- medium grades placing mostly in nadette Brennan, Mrs. Max Wan- the $10.50 to $11.50 brackets. ser and Mrs. Robert Smith. Play- Heifer calves were scarce and the ty held their annual achievement an O'Neill H. S. organization com- an all day service and basket din- northern part of the city. ers who are turning in remarkable best that were here brought from scores and are sure to be a defin- $9.75 to $10.75. Plainer kinds sold O'Neill Public School last Thurs- their letter in competition.

son of leaves and blooms. Plum are Norman Gonderinger, Allan One load of good steers averag-Jaszkowiak, Gerald Classen, Max ing 510 lbs. changed hands at Golden, and Rev. Beyersdorfer of $11.65 per cwt. Bulk of the yearlings ranged from $10.00 to $11.00.

> Cows were in good demand, especially milch cows. Good young Hunt-Oetting beef cows brought $6.90 easily.

Others not quite so fancy sold Dr. Merle W. Hunt, mayor of from $5.80 to $6.70.

A gentleman offering incense Battle Creek, and Miss Gladys Oet- Bulls reached an extreme top on the altar of Nehustan, tells ting, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. of $7.05 with the bulk of these Nebraska farmers among their William Oetting. Battle Creek, selling from $5.50 to $6.95. were married Saturday afternoon A sprinkling of sheep were on The claim is based upon the sup- at 5 o'clock at the home of the hand and sold at fairly good prices. position that these crawling crea- bride's uncle, the Rev. W. J. Oet- Hogs were here in heavier supply ting, Madison, who read the mar- than last Monday. An extreme top of $8.40 was paid for butchers; riage lines. Attending the couple were Rich- practical top was $8.20 to $8.25. ard Thomsen and Miss Norma Oet- Pigs sold as high as $10.35. Sows ting, sister of the bride, both of ranged from $7.00 to $7.60.

The next regular auction will be The wedding came as somewhat held on Monday, May 5.

Makes Good Showing of a surprise to the couple's many friends as Dr. and Mrs. Hunt had O'Neill High Track Team previously announced plans to be married in June.

Dr. Hunt is a graduate of O'Neill the herds at the ranch. When un- sity dental school. While at Creigh- and field team makes up in qualloaded from the truck a rope had ton, he was an outstanding football ity instead of quantity.

animals. H. L. caught up the rope Creek nine years ago, his future Holt County meet, O'Neill returnto hold the bull but his White- bride was employed as his office ed home with eleven points. Ted Faced Excellence kept on going, assistant. She later attended Manzer took a first in the 880 yd with the result that Mr. James Wayne college, and for the past run; Dale French ran in 3rd place was thrown and dragged into the few years has been employed as an in the mile event; Erwin Kloppunpleasant mire of a cow corral. assistant in the office of Dr. Hollis enburg put the shot into 4th place Lumbermen Held Annual and Gene McKenna hurled the dis- Meeting Here.

ory of them drifted over by life's activities and follies of the pass- bion Invitational Meet come Fri-

Card of Thanks.

the southwest bearing their mute a passing generation, and are now felt thanks and appreciation for the State Association, and Phil April 25 witness that the tall grass coun- no more. Time-slow, inexorable, the acts of kindness and messages Ruynon of Lincoln, Secretary, April 26 brings changes which men like to of sympathy received from our were present at the meeting, and April 27 think of as progress. "All flesh is kind friends and neighbors during both briefly addressed the gathr- April 28 program at the auditorium of the posed of athletes, who have earned ner at noon.

was held. class of the O'Neill High School. ing a happy evening.

The afternoon program which was in charge of Mrs. George Rector, O'Neill Public School the present county chairman, conboth the O'Neill Public School and

St. Mary's Academy. The after- On Friday evening, May 9 at noon feature was presented by 8 o'clock in the high school gym-Miss Elin Anderson from the Ne- nasium, the children of the public braska Extension Service who grade school will have a May Fesbrought some very vital facts con- tival. The program will feature cerning rural health and medical choruses of the first six grades connection with the national de- Also there will be May dances and fese measures. The afteroon program was con- and a May Queen and attendants

O'Neill is getting to be quite a cluded with the candle lighting chosen by the children themselves. bus center. With two busses runnrecognition service and the pres- Following the program the grade ing between O'Neill and Sioux entation of a gift by the O'Neill teachers will hold open-house in City; two from Grand Island to and Stuart groups to Miss Verna their rooms so that the parents O'Neill and two busses running The carpenters have about com-Glandt whose services will no and friends may visit them if they between O'Neill and Aisworth, pleted their work at the court longer be available to the county. wish.

the Chambers group to Miss Glandt charge and the public is cordially bus running from this city to the up-stairs section of the cuildat a current date.

Northeast Nebraska

present from this district ...

Arthur M. King, of the Galena Lumber Company of this city, was for the week: elected as a director from this district to the State Board. Herber Killdare, President of April 24

Folowing the dinner and the April 30

Ethel, Floyd, Velda and Thelma. ber industry was shown.

took to the floor of the small High The annual Home-Coming at the School auditorium, Wednesday evening, to dance the light fan- Center Union church will be held The project clubs of Holt coun- tastic, sponsored by the "O" Club, Sunday, May 4th. There will be addition to his residence in the prepared an exhibit of their work Prancing to the tunes of a "Nico- 11:00 Sermon ____ during the year and the annual lodian," interspersed by circle business meeting of the leaders dances, gymnastic interpretations, 12:00 Basket dinner and fellowship. the county. tag dances, a grand march, and a 1:30 Devotional

At noon a covered dish luncheon prize dance, everyone went merrily Rev. Harold Scaggan of Spencer, at Sioux City, Iowa, Geo. Merritt was served by the home economics on his way at 10:30 p. m., report Nebr.

sisted of musical numbers from May Festival Next Week

Evening Service.

facilities which have such a close and the kindergarten rhythm band. O'Neill Bus Center Of poems. There will be aMay King,

A similar recognition was made by There will be no admission O'Neill and Norfolk and a and commodious rooms added to invited to attend this grade pro- Bonesteel, South Dakota, each day ing.

gram. The Weather

This section of the state has At Bassett last Tuesday, Zane The annual meeting of the mem- been blessed with some real wet -Norfolk Daily News. Cole soared 5 ft. 31/2 inches to bers of the Northeast District of weather the past week, the moisplace 5th in the high jump, while the Nebraska Lumbermen's As- ture amounting to .57 of an inch, Manzer had to be satisfied with sociation was held in O'Neill on up to this morning for the week. Jess, but have grown too cumber- fluence and usefulness, pass from 2nd place in the 1/2 mile. 22 schools Wednesday evening at a six-thirty This brings the total rainfall for o'clock dinner at the Golden Hotel, the month of April up to 4.09 in- of Mrs. Art Given on April 24th. Coach Segel will trek to the Al- with about fifteen of the members ches, as compared to 3.26 inches for April of 1940.

- 63 72 71 71
- .49 business meeting about two hours Total for the month of April, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Gatz spent the Adams; Councilmen: C. C. Mil-George Sanders, Ervin, Flora, of colored film, depicting the lum- 1941, 4.09 inches. Total for the week end visiting relatives in O- lard, J. C. Harnisk, Dave Stannard, month of April, 1940, 3.26 inches. maha.

The Item, April 23, 1891

C. S. Handlan is building an

This issue of the Item contains 11:00 Devotionals ... Clarence Ernst a column article about the antics of day with 230 members and guests Several enjoyable hours were 10:30 Exposition of the Sunday County Judge Lowe and a woman attending the event. During the spent by the students of both St. School lesson _____ Ralph Ernst companion. The paper demands morning each club in the county Mary's and O'Neill High Schools. Duet __Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Hubby the resignation of the Judge after giving his side of the story. It Rev. Hallgrimson of Ainsworth. was the sensation of the year in Married, on Tuesday, April 22, and Miss Nellie Holden, both of 2:00 Sunday School Reminisen- this city.

The Item, April 30, 1891 Born to Mr. and Mrs. John Welton, on Sunday evening, April 26, Rev. P. S. Kindchi, Mitchel, S. D. a boy.

On last Monday evening Barney 8:00 DevotionalG. M. Hubby Mullen left for Hot Springs, S. D., where he has contracts for erecting Rev. R. L. Gowan, Page four large buildings this summer. He took George Trigg, Jack Davis,

John LaRue and J. H. Pine with him to work on the buildings and This Section Of The State two from Atkinson and four from Long Pine

Forty Years Ago

The Frontier, April 25, 1901

daily, three each way daily between house and have two well finished the traveling public in this section | The O'Neill National Bank openof the state is pretty well looked for business yesterday morning. after in the matter of transporta- It is organized with a Capital of tion. Improved highways make this $25,000.00.

bus transportation possible, but it Mrs. Jane Mullen died at her home in this city Tuesday morning at the age of 75 years. She had been a resident of the county for eighteen years.

The Frontier, May 2, 1901 The first meeting of the City ing a household hint. These were Council, after it passed from a village organization, was held Games were played, Mrs. Ruby May 3, 1889, twelve years ago. Wayman, Mrs. Glen Splinder and John McBride was elected Mayor Mrs. Lowell Johnson receiving and I. R. Smith, J. P. Weekes, M. M. Sullivan, Will Canton, Frank The remainder of the afternoon Campbel and H. Heinerickson were was spent in playing "Bunco" and members of the council. For the succeeding years, up to date, the Next meeting will be with Mrs. officers were as follows: 1890-Mayor, John McBride; City Clerk, W. McK Slocum; Treasurer, Dave

(Continued on page 4)

Following is the weather chart very good. High Low Prec. 34 prizes. 43 50 45 sewing for the hostess.

68 68

47 April 29 52

0

.06 Lizzie Schmor May 23rd.

