Lighter Receipts Monday But Prices About Steady

The lightest receipts thus far this season met with prices which were mostly steady with those paid here a week ago. Quality of the offering was somewhat below that of last Monday; hence, the day's top prices did not reach the extreme levels of last week. Generally however, prices compared quite favorably with those netted here the previous week.

Extreme top on light steer calves was $12.00, that price being paid for one small bunch. Others not quite so fancy paid from around $10.50 to $11.80. Heifer calves were scarce and sold mostly by the head.

Good yearling steers ranged mostly from $10.00 to $11.00

Cows were again quite plentiful. Good beef cows paid $7.25 to $7.45 with those of plainer quality ranging downward to $6.75 or less. Bulls netted as high as $7.70 but $7.00 to $7.50 caught the long end of the day's offering.

Receipts in the hog division fell off slightly. Top light butchers weighing around 165 lbs. paid $8.70. Practical top was $8.40 to $8.45. Sows sold from $7.55 to $7.65. Pigs brought as much as $10.15 for the extra good kind.

The next regular auction will be held on Monday, May 19.

New Lights To Be Demonstrated Thursday

Producing light without wires will be one of many experiments to be performed on Thursday night, May 22nd, 1941, in the Golden Hotel Dining Room at 8 o'clock.

The O'Neill Commercial Club has arranged to have W. N. Aldrich, noted lamp expert and lighting engineer of the Westinghouse Company, demonstrate some of the newest light sources, just out of the Research Laboratories.

Mr. Aldrich will describe the need for better lighting, and by means of colored light and invisible "ultra-violet" radiation show that "seeing is not always believing."

"Black Light" will be transformed into daylight in the new Fluorescent lamps. This modern light source, introduced at the San Francisco and New York World Fairs, will be demonstrated and explained.

On The Sidelines

By Observer

The controversy raging among the papers of this vicinity for quite some time concerning the birthplace of Frankie Leahy has been settled once and for all, by Mr. Leahy's mother.

Mrs. Leahy dispelled all doubt as to where her son had been born last week when she stated that he had been born in O'Neill, Nebraska and not in Winner, S. D., as most of the papers had stated and that he was born in the Howard home in O'Neill which is a block south of Saint Mary's Academy on the corner. Mrs. Leahy continues by saying that the family did not move to Winner until Frankie was a year old but it was in Winner that he received his education. Mrs. Leahy also brought along the birth certificate from St. Patrick's church of her son who was destined to fill the famed shoes of Knute Rockne, the "Fighting Irish" pilot.

Last week a number of athletes from this section of the state went to the capitol city and did their best for their Alma Maters in the High School State Track Meet.

Tut McKee, Atkinson speedster garnered three points for his team in Class B by taking fourth in the Broad Jump with a leap of 26.2½ feet, and also was in the running in the Century Dash.

Harlan Mille of Chambers was the other outstanding track entry from this part of the state. He won the 440 dash in a 54 second timing in Class D.

Legions teams in this part of the state have again begun to increase their activity. Atkinson has again handed out the uniforms and practice has begun with but little material from last year. Spencer also has begun their practice and there seems to be a lack of players or talent there as well.
