Neb. State Historical Seciety

THE FRONTIER

VOL. LXII

O'NEILL, NEBRASKA, THURSDAY, MAY 29, 1941

Number 3

SOUTHWESTERN BREEZES

By Romaine Saunders

As the news story had it, one of those Hollywood celebrities seeking her freedom from matrimonial ties at a Nevada divorce colony, blushed under her seashore tan when questioned as to a new ro- a song leader, Kathyrn Funk remance. A Hollywood divorce is ceiving the highest number of not news but it is news to learn votes. Our next meeting will be that a blush can come out of this held on Tuesday, June 10th, at 8 modern sodom. p. m.

Mrs. Bernard Kennedy was in Stuart and Atkinson most of last week with a very sick little girl, 6-yr.-old Coleen. She was able to bring the child home at the end of the week.

We have no accurate way of measuring either rainfall or velocity of the wind which takes our sombrero spinning, but a safe guess on the rainfall is 2 inches on the existence of an "unlimited May 19 and 20. The past two national emergency." He declared Sundays stirred up a gale like in that America would do all in her the days of Jonah, when "the sea wrought and was tempestuous."

Rev. Mr. Petersen of the Free Methodist church enjoyed a visit from his mother and sister, who were here from Lincoln a few days last week. They all went over to Butte Friday to attend a district conference.

Tom Baker chased out of bed the other morning when Mrs. Baker raised the cry of Wolf! A pesky coyote got in with some cows that had little calves, had badgered the cows around and made a leap for over a shoulder, got on the scene with a shotgun. At a mighty yell and a roar of powder and shot the basic referred to the labor lock the labor lock of people over the coyote made his get-away. Tom He also referred to the labor John Sweet, District No. 86. don't know whether it was the problem in these words: "The shotgun or the yell that saved the overwhelming majority of our citi-

St. John's Round-up Club On Tuesday evening, May 20, the Grade Exercises members of St. John's 4-H Roundmembers of St. John's 4-H Round-Up Club held another meeting at Held Saturday St. John's Hall. Several different club topics were discussed and health bulletins were distributed among the members. These bulletins are to be carefully studied and will be the main topic for discussion at our next meeting.

Candidates were nominated for Kathryn Funk, News Reporter.

Roosevelt In Fire Side Chat On Tuesday Night

President Roosevelt in a fire side chat last Tuesday night proclaimed power to continue her help to England and bluntly stated that America would "actively resist" any attempt by Hitler to gain control of the seas. He said Hitler and the axis powers wanted to conquer the world and "strangle the United States of America." Asserted that war was "coming close to home," and warned that "we will No. 134; Luetta Lenz, District 107; not hesitate to use our armed forces Thelma Morgan, O'Neill; to repel attack." He called upon manufacturers to

County Eighth

The annual eighth grade graduation exercises for Holt County, were held on last Saturday afternoon, commencing at one-fortyfive in the afternoon in the auditorium of the new high school. Two hundred and twenty-three graduates from all over the county were tette, O'Neill Public School; Presentation of Honors and Diplomas County Superintendent, McCul-Entertainment, "Smile lough; Magic," Mortoni, Lincoln, Nebraska. W. H. Munson, of Beatrice, Nebraska, who gave the principal address, is the County Superintendent of Gage county. Eleven pupils over the county maintained a very high scholastic attaining an average of 94 percent century.

Following is the programe given at the exercises: Invocation, Rev. John Spencer; Accordian Solo, Clarence Juracek, of District No. 49; Musical Selection, District No. 183; Address, "Air Castles," W. H. Munson; Instrumental Sex-

or over. These pupils are: Gloria Ott, District No. 228; Verna Miller, District No. 56; Jean Wandersee, District No. 134; Lovinna Hawk, District No. 108; Eugene Fox, District No. 38; Ruth Harris, O'Neill; Marie Gibson, District

Frank Murphy, St. Boniface. Winners of the T. B. essay con-

MISS GRACE MILLARD

Miss Grace Millard died at her Ass'n Holds Annual home in this city on Monday afternoon, about 4:30, at the age of 48 years, four months and twenty-eight days. The funeral was held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock umnae association of St. Mary's from the residence, Rev. V. C. Academy was held in the gymnas-Wright officiating and burial in lum on Sunday, May 25. Follow-Prospect Hill cemetery.

on December 28, 1892, the daugh- of Prof. Ira George, played several ter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Millard, selections, the following program awarded certificates of graduation. pioneer residents of this city and was given: county. She had been a semi-in-the city of O'Neill for more years than any other in-habitant. Two brothers and two car, Omaha; Mrs. L. E. Hughes, present for the funeral services. The ballbearers were life long tiful rendition of "Sundown." friends of the family, most of them having been residents of this city and acquaintences of the standing in their examinations, all deceased for over a quarter of a

The Third Annual Kloppenborg, District No. 20; Leo Session Bicameral Hamik, District No. 203; Norma Adjourned Friday

The third annual session of the and bicameral legislature concluded give precedence to materials the test, which is sponsored every opinion that they made a fairly nation needs and "upon our loyal workmen as well as employers to merge their lesser differences in merge their lesser differences in a calf just as Tom, both shoes on hut only one suspender hooked up the larger effort to insure the sur-hut only one suspender hooked up the larger effort to insure the sur-hut only one suspender hooked up the larger effort to insure the sur-hut only one suspender hooked up the larger effort to insure the sur-hut only one suspender hooked up the larger effort to insure the sur-hut only one suspender hooked up the larger effort to insure the sur-hut only one suspender hooked up the larger effort to insure the sur-hut only one suspender hooked up the larger effort to insure the sur-hut only one suspender hooked up the larger effort to insure the sur-hut only one suspender hooked up the larger effort to insure the sur-hut only one suspender hooked up the larger effort to insure the sur-hut only one suspender hooked up the larger effort to insure the sur-hut only one suspender hooked up the larger effort to insure the sur-hut only one suspender hooked up the larger effort to insure the sur-hut only one suspender hooked up the larger effort to insure the sur-hut only one suspender hooked up the larger effort to insure the sur-hut only one suspender hooked up the larger effort to insure the sur-hut only one suspender hooked up the larger effort to insure the sur-hut only one suspender hooked up the larger effort to insure the sur-hut only one suspender hooked up the larger effort to insure the sur-hut only one suspender hooked up the larger effort to insure the sur-hut only one suspender hooked up the sure of the s but only one suspender hooked up vival of the only kind of govern- Loretta O'Malley, District No. 144; of interest charges prior to 1939, association.

St. Mary's Alumnae Consumers Public Power Announces Cooperation With Local Retailers Reunion Sunday Complete cooperation with prisales

these words:

petitors."

in the retail sales field.

Meets Here On

Monday, May 26

The annual convention of High-dele-

"This means that our quoted

Deceased was born in this city Mary's band, under the direction

Under the able and witty directvalid for several years, but her last ion of Margaret Hammond, who was and fatal illiasses was only of two weeks duration. She is sur-vived by her mother, Mrs. Charles our Alma Mater. Verne Coyne and "America, I Love You." Stephen Price followed with a stirring toast to "Our Clergy.' sisters. They are: Fred, Omaha; Ralph, O'Neill; Mrs. L. B. Massa-and "At The Balalaki." A mixed quartette, consisting of Verne Denver, Colo.. all of whom were Coyne, Bob Parkins, Eileen Kelley and George Hammond gave a beau-

Perhaps one of the most inspiring speeches was given by Mrs. Frank Biglin, whose address was entitled: "Welcome, Class of

'41." Her speech made a deep and lasting impression on all who heard it. She concluded with these Solf Be Hiway 20 Ass'n The response was given by her daughter, Constance Biglin, who

Summary Of New Laws Passed By 1941 Bicameral

vate firms retailing electric ap-Following is a brief summary of pliances and equipment in centers the contents of the new laws enin which are also located retaill acted at tht 1941 session of the merchandise stocks was announced Nebraska legislature, in which the today as a general policy of the main changes and provisions are Consumers Public Power District. | outlined. Those carrying the word The policy, outlined by General "emergency" are now ineffect, or Manager V. M. Johnson, received will be if and when the government the full endorsement of the Con- signs them. Those not so marked sumers Board of Directors, and become effective within three calwas ordered by it as the District's endar months from the date of adpermanent policy in merchandise journment. Because of the fact that the governor has five days Consumers President Charles B. in which to approve or disapprove Fricke summarized the policy in bills after they have come into his hands, those upon which he has "While the District contemplates not acted at this writing are carried an aggressive program of appliance in a separate list as are also those sales in all our divisions, at the which he vetoed. A total of 202 same time this program will never bills were passed of which six were vetoed. Two years ago 144 be destructive to our competitors were passed and five vetoed.

VETOED BY GOVERNOR.

price of merchandise will not be L. B. 29-Provides that if the embarrassing to other dealers second half of the previous year's handling similar lines of electrical taxes on real estate are the only equipment, nor will our trade-in taxes delinquent it shall not be allowances be runious to our comsubject to sale; by Weborg.

L. B. 39-Prescribes the requisite number of percentage of votes cast to carry proposals for internal improvement law; by Gantz.

L. B. 150-Provides a special open season and regulations concerning beaver; by Hanna, Carmody.

L. B. 135-Prescribes procedure whereby cities of the first class which have suffered a decrease of population below 5,000 may reorganize and be governed as cities of the second class and may subsequently if so desired reorganize

L. B. 301-Permitted county boards, in counties of 8,000 or less which now have a district court, until the next general election,

L. B. 329-Permitted county

The Anuual Reunion of the Aling the banquet, during which St.

C. Millard, who has lived in then sang two solos, "Fairy Roses'

True, And it shall follow as the Night the Day, Thou cans't not then be false to any man."

is a member of this year's graduating class. Brief talks were way Twenty Association was held given by Monsignor McNamara, in O'Neill on last Monday, May their session last Friday afternoon. Father Parr, Mother Virginia and 26th, with over a hundred In some things we are of the Mrs. Froelich, who is the retiring gates registered from the various towns between Thermopolis, Wyo. president of the Alumnae Associ- and Sioux City, Iowa. Three delea great number of people over the "Blue Danube Waltz" and "Ama- The day was given over to busi- when people should vote on quesstate who have been hard hit by polia," by Joan Frenking. Al- ness metings, in which various tion; Neubauer. the long period of depression and though only nine years old, Joan, methods of promoting increased of Casper, J. F. Cowan, also at-One of the high lights of the tended, along with a large dele- to retain the office, by resolution, evening was the singing of the gation from that city.

calf. 1000

was held at Amelia last Thursday guards of both labor and manageand burial at Atkinson. The deceased had been a resident of Holt county for 55 years, coming to express the will of its people, and O'Neill in 1886, but for many years to prevent interference with the few miles north of Amelia. Mr. our national security." Traever and I had been on the intimate terms of those who address each other by the given name, We were in the bloom of youthful land would be undertaken-prompt- view delivering the address and vigor when thrown into more or ly construed in some quarters as a Monsignor J. G. McNamara conless close association by mutual possible forerunner of the convoy ferring the honors. faincies in the frontier town that has now become somewhat of a metropolitan county seat. I did sinking merchant ships at a terrific Communion. not get to the funeral but knew rate, more than twice as fast as George had been in declining health the past three or four years. his friends hoping against hope a splendid citizen, a Christian should "hesitate to take every gentleman, a devoted friend, father and husband, and the community where he pioneered in early manhood has sustained a distinct loss.

one whose soul is not stirred by a proclamation that an unlimited the concord of sweet sounds is base national emergency exists and reenough for any villiany. Holt quires the strengthening of our county music lovers have been defense to the extreme limit of amply entertained in recent weeks our national power and authority." with the golden notes of song and harp brought to us by a fine group of school boys and girls. I have seen some of these groups but was unable to tarry for their program. The southwest has its daily program on nature's vast quivering harpstrings-the hum of insects, the song of birds, the wind in the treetops, the patter of rain on shingle and pane, the roll of thunder and the throbbing of the storm King's mighty soul as it sweeps across the prairie. "Let me tell you, O my brother, if you haven't learned to hear All the music that is swelling daily round you year by year; If you haven't caught the melodies that nature plays and sings,

You are missing all the music of Jehovah, King of Kings."

"All the music, O my brother, O my sister, is for you;

Will you not, then, listen for it, as your journey you pursue? It will fill your life with sunshine, it will banish pain and care, If you only catch the music that is swelling everywhere."

Vernon Harley, of Bliss, was arrested on May 22 by Patrolman Meistreal for speeding. He appeared before the court on May 26 where he pled guilty, and was fined $10 and 3.10 costs.

zens expect their government to ment, this government is deter-mined to use all its nower to On Thursday mined to use all its power to system-was prefaced by a dissystem—was prefaced by a dis-closure that the Germans were 8:00 o'clock, all receiving Holy English and American ship yards Wednesday evening at St. Mary's At Bridge Thursday Even can replace them. He asked whether, in view of gram was given: the world situation, the nation single measure necessary to maintain our American liberty."

The President further declared, "heretofore, with profound con- Dorothy Valla. sciousness of my responsibilities to my countrymen and to my coun-An immortal bard has said that try's cause, I have tonight isssued M. J. C.

	Opening Concert of the O'NEILL BAND
Saturday Evening, May 31 8:00 o'clock
	Patriotic '
1.	March — "Ramparts We Watch"—Berlin.
2.	March — "Bugles and Drums"—Goldman.
3.	Ballad—"There's a Long, Long Trail a Winding"— Eliot.
4.	Selection — "Over There", Medley of War Songs of 1917-1918—Lake.
5.	March-"Semper Fidelis"
6.	Sousa. Patrol — "Spirit of Ameri- ca"—Zamacenik. Marching Song — "It's A
7.	Long, Long Way To
8.	Tipperary." Vocal Solo—"Till We Meet Again" — John V. Sulli- van.
9.	Descriptive Selection — "There's Something About A Soldier"—Gay.
10.	March—"Stars And Stripes Forever"—Sousa.
11.	"Taps"—Davene Loy and Dorothy Yocum.
12.	National Anthem.

Thursday morning thirty-three

Class Day Exercises were held Garfield Lodge Entertains

Class Day Grand March Militaire, Wollenhaupt-Sheila Barrett. Greetings—George Hammond. Roll Call—Constance Biglin.

May 22, at the I. O. O. F. Hall. Violin Duet - Darlene Dalton, Jorothy Valla. History I—Etta Meyer. Vocal Solo—Charlotte Buell. History II—Irma Langer. Flute Solo—Lillian Peter. History III—Dale Kersenbrock. Vocal Solo—George Hammond. History IV Junior Shoemakar History IV—Junior Shoemaker. Senior Chorus.

Class Motto-Donna Fronek. Mixed Quartette. Class Colors — Mildred Cavan-close.

Violin Solo-Darlene Dalton. Class Flower - Catherine Mc-Nichols. Mr. Parker. Trombone Solo - Robert Par-Class Patron - Mildred O'Malley. Vocal Solo, "Ave Maria"—Verne Coyne.

kins.

Class Prophecy-Eileen Kelly. Boys' Quartette. Class Will—Rose Anne Schulte. Valedictory—Robert Parkins. Senior Chorus. Accompanist for musical num-bers—Mrs. F. E. Parkins.

Class Officers President-George Hammond. Secretary—John Shoemaker. Vice-President—Constance Big-Treasurer-Eileen Kelly. Class Motto-True to God; true to self. Class Flower-American Beauty

Rose. Class Colors-Blue and Gold. Class Patron-Our Lady of Perpetual Help.

Class Roll

Constance Biglin. Mary Brophy. Charlotte Buell. Mildred Cavanaugh. Verne Coyne. Darlene Dalton. Dorothy Dalton. Norbert Fernholz.

Donna Fronek. (Continued on page 4)

it meets with general approval 12 the daughter of Mr. and Mrs J. A. sented by Congressman Coffee of for Joan.

Chadron. Most of this district is his home has been on the ranch a production of materia's essential to seniors from St. Mary's Academy predominantly cattle and irriga- Mother Virginia presented Lillian at the convention, was re-elected

Garfield Lodge A. F. & A. M.

Entertained members of the order guests at Bridge Thursday evening, were awarded their diplomas at tion. We have a lot of cattle here, Peter and Robert Parkins with president; as were also the Vice-His pledge that whatever may be decement Exercises held at but we do not have irrigation and our people would have been much brarska High Schools Activities Lusk; and C. W. Erwin, Treasurer, court to hear all cases where the Lusk; and C. W. Erwin, Treasurer, court to hear all cases where the cases where the cases where the court to hear all cases where the cas necessary to get the goods to Eng-land would be undertaken—prompt-land would be undertaken—prompt-ly construed in some guarters as a Monsignor J. G. McNamara coning disrict. But we have been the district music contest, which also re-elected. Eight new direc-The entire class attended a High changed and will have new com- entitled them to compete in the tors for the association were elect- terest in any bonds or other obliof the Eastern Star and invited Jitterbug Ball At Country Club Monday, June 9th

Features of the evening were a The O'Neill Country Club cordially invites all the Junior piano solo by Mrs. John Harbottle, a trombone selection by Miss Patsy Members of dancing age to attend Kruse, a vocal number by Miss the first annual Jitterbug Ball on Genevieve Graves and a musical Monday evening, June 9th, at reading by Mrs. Howard Manson. eight o'clock.

Hot weinie sandwiches and coffee were served to thirty-eight at the the Club.

Mrs. Mary Hewitt of Atkinson Roy Carroll of Bassett, Nebrasvisited here on Monday with her ka, was in O'Neill on Monday, atdaughter, Mrs. R. H. Parker and tending the Highway 20 convention our opinion, easily one of the most and visiting old friends.

Rev. V. C. Wright

George Hammond

Rev. John J. O'Brien

- - - -

Genevieve Graves

Davene Loy - Dorothy Yocum

Rev. V. C. Wright

- -

- - - - -

- - - -

- - -

this section. The congressional Frenking, of Omaha, (Mrs. Frenk-redistricting hill does not receive to retain register redistricting bill does not receive ing will be remembered here as was present and told the enthusi- of deeds until next election, when much favor in this county. We Florence McCafferty born and grew astic gathering that the last link were taken from the Third Con- to womanhood in this city) has a on Highway Twenty in Sioux gressional district and put over in lovely soporano voice and perfect county would be completed by the by Mekota. the Big Fourth district, now repre- poise. We predict a rosy future middle of June. the Association, whose home is in over veto. At the end of the program Lusk, Wyo., and who was present national contest at St. Paul where both received high ratings. ing of the Federation Hymn and ing of the Federation Hym and Nebraska.

The retiring directors of the association, many of whom were present at the convention, are: Tom Miller, Lusk, Wyo.; Hans Grutsch, Hay Springs, Nebraska; Paul Engler, Bassett, Nebr.; R. R. Dempster, Chadron, Nebraska; and J. F. Cowan, Casper, Wyo. The American Legion Junior Drum and Bugle Corns of Bassett Drum and Bugle Corps of Bassett, Nebraska, which is the official corps of the association, was present at the all-day convention, and three times during the day, entertanied the delegates with their playing and intricate marching. The corps, which is under the direction of Carl S. Carrell, is, in ranging in age from 9 to 17 years, and in their cadet uniforms presented a very neat and attractive appearance. Phyllis Carrell, age ber of intricate formations. The O'Neill and St. Mary's com-outstanding junior drum and bugle of fifteen boys and fifteen girls, 16, is the directing majorette, and led the band through a large num- and gives authorization of funding bined high school band, under the direction of Ira George, played a bonds at interest rates not exceedconcert on the street at five ing 5 percent without submitting o'clock, which was very well re- to a vote unless a referendum signceived. In the evening ,at seven o'clock, filed. By Howard, Emergency. approximately three hundred were served at the banquet, which was under the direction of the Presby- amendments to the unemployment terian ladies. Julius D. Cronin compensation law among which quet.

Mrs. M. F. Meer, of Valentine, Ward Belmont school.

voters will pass upon the question:

L. B. 130-Tax moratorium, was Roy Chamberlain, President of also disapproved, but was passed

IN HANDS OF GOVERNOR

L. B. 212-Empowers the district owner of or has or claims any ining of the Federation Hymn and ing of the Federation Hymn and the guests went home feeling an even closer bond between them and their Alma Mater. Howa; and J. D. Cronin, O'Neill, tended to clean up defaulted bonds owned by state board, By Howard.

Emergency. L. B. 154-Provides for the erganization of the co-operative land companies to facilitate the acquisition of agricultural and grazing lands and prescribes the powers and functions of such companies; permits the making of contracts with the United States, the state of Nebraska or any yof their agencies for the purpose of effectuating any plans for rural rehabilitation or with any non-profit corporation organized for such purpose; makes obligations of company secured by first mortgage lawful investment corps in Nebraska. It is composed for funds of any insurance company which has conveyed real estate to the co-operative in the full extent of the purchase price. By Peterson.

L. B. 183-Provides procedure of general indebtedess of any political subdivision and to issue ed by 20 percent of the voters is

L. B. 403-Contains a number of served as toastmaster for the are provisions for special benefit gathering, and called upon numer- rights for individuals inducted inous delegates form the various to the armed forces; revises the to the armed forces; revises the The O'Neill high school band method of determining the weekly played a concert during the ban- benefit amount; eliminates special treatment of part time workers; changes the basis of contribution liability from wages payable to is expected to stop in O'Neill on wages paid; provides three year Friday for a visit with relatives. reserve account experience as a Mrs. Meer wil go from here to basis for future contribution rates; Rushville, Tenn., to get her daugh- provides for insuring the solvency ter, Mary Ann, who is attending of the pooled account; consolidates prennial peppergrass and Russian

(Continued on Page 8)

Boys' Quartette

Reading

Address

"Taps"

Vocal Solo

Benediction