Professionals Too Strong From Amateurs

One hundred thousand people packed and pushed to get in to Soldiers Field in Chicago, where the All Stars were to play the Chicago Bears. The first score was made by Ken Kavanaugh of the Bears who caught a pass from Luckman and then streaked the five yards needed to make a touchdown. The next six points were made when Gopher George Frank, of the All Stars, caught Tommy Harmon's pass for a touch down, but both teams failed to kick the extra point. In the second quarter Harry Clark plunged over soha of Southern California for the Bears second touchdown. Manders kicked the extra point and the half ended 13-6 in favor of the Bears. Then between halves Commander R. F. Whitehead of the U. S. Navy swore five members of the All Stars team into the Navy. They were Bob Saugau of Norte Dame, George Frank of Minnesota, Dave Rankin of Purdue, Ed Frutig of Michigan and Warren Alfson of Nebraska. The first field goal and the third quarter ended with the score 16-6 against the All Stars. Charlie O'Rourke of Boston College faded back and sent a beautiful pass to Jack Robinson who made a swell catch and went over making the score 16-13. Then things began to happen and the All Stars just couldn't keep the Bears from scoring and the final score was 37-16. Warren Alfson of Nebraska, All American Guard, played nearly half the game. Some of the best players for the All Stars were George Frank of Minnesota, Tommy Harmon of Michigan, Jack Robinson of U. C. L. A., Pennell of Texas Aggies, Ed Frutig of Michigan, Dave Rankin of Purdue and last but not least Warren Alfson of Nebraska. End Ray Prochaska of Nebraska and half back Herman Rohrig of Nebraska did not get a chance to play.

Pioneer Resident Passes Away In Iowa

Edmund O. Root, son of Ozias and Emily Root was born on a farm in Jones County, Iowa, September 3, 1862, and departed this life at his home in Hale on August 27, 1941, at the age of 78 years, eleven months and twenty-four days. He was the youngest of a family of four children, three sisters having preceded him in death. On August 22, 1907 he was married to Cora May Tubbs at Anamosa, Iowa. Besides his wife, he is survived by a daughter Mrs. Esther Young of Mechanicsville, Iowa, and one step son, Morris Tubbs, at home. His early life was spent on a farm near the Diamond Cemetery. His parents were pioneer settlers of Iowa.

When eighteen years of age he moved with his parents to Inman, Nebraska. Here he took up a homestead near O'Neill and experienced many hardships incident to early pioneer life. He returned to Iowa, with his family in 1909. He had been in failing health for several years, the last four months being confined to his bed. He was still a member of the Diamond Willow Camp of Modern Woodman of America, at Inman, Nebraska. Funeral services were held at the Campbell funeral home at Olin, Iowa, Saturday at 2 P. M. conducted by William N. Lundquist of Moline, Illinois.

Four H. Club News

All eight members of the Dainty Decoration Club from north of O'Neill, attended achievement Day in O'Neill, August 23rd. The mothers of all the girls and other close relatives were also present. All the girls over ten in our Club put something they had made on exhibition. They all judged in the morning and demonstrated in the afternoon. The two associate members who are nine years old are Mary Hayes and Charlotte Davis. They couldn't partake in the contest but they have been doing their Club work well all summer, and have kept their eyes and ears open to anything they could learn from those who were competing.

The prizes awarded to our Club were as follows; Second place curtain demonstration, Margaret Sausser and Doris Davis.

Sixth place, Polishing Silverware demonstration, Mary Davis and Margaret Hynes. These two girls were not old enough to compete to go to the State Fair but were given honorable mention for being the youngest ones to demonstrate.

First place in judging was awarded to Margaret Sausser and fourth place to Doris Davis.

First place in framed picture was awarded to Mary Davis second place to Margaret Sausser and fourth place to Doris Davis.

First place in curtains for girl's room was awarded to Margaret Sausser.

The luncheon cloth and napkins was placed as follows: Margaret Sausser, first; Margaret Hynes, second; Mary Davis, third. Margaret Sausser and Doris Davis were selected to represent Holt County at the State Fair, as the only girl's judging team from this county in '41.

They returned Monday evening and report a very good time. They gained much valuable experience but didn't gain any of the prizes. As yet they have not received their placing.

Bob Parkins returned on Sunday evening from Omaha, where he spent the past week visiting relatives and where he attended the National Amateur Open Golf Tournament.

in a rural school. Due to Miss Storjohann's ability and interest in Home Economics, the students in her classes will find their work very much worthwhile.

Miss Frances Cash has had her training at The University of Nebraska. Her major interest is teaching English and she has had special training for that work. Miss Cash's home is in Maxwell, South Dakota.

Mr. Howard-Dean attended Litchfield High School and Peru State Teachers college. During the past two years he has achieved a very enviable record in his coaching at Sargent, Nebraska. Last year his football team won the Loup Valley Conference and his basketball team came through the regular season with only one defeat. Mr. Dean will be head coach, direct gym classes for boys, and teach science classes. Judging by the interest already being shown by the boys in football this fall, Mr. Dean will have a squad that will go places.

Mr. Ellsworth Peterson will have charge of the commercial classes and will also be assistant coach. Mr. Peterson has his degree from the Wayne State Teachers College and has taken graduate work at the University of Nebraska. He has been teaching commercial at Platte Center, Nebraska, for the past two years. Mr. Peterson's home is at Wausa.

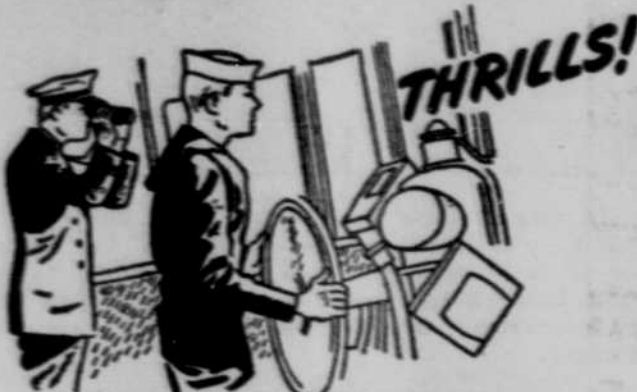

The O'Neill Public School will offer an outstanding program of studies and activities again this year under the direction of outstanding teachers. The students and patrons of this community can justly be proud of their schools due to the achievements attained and developments acquired by the pupils.
