

BRIEFLY STATED

John Galligan of Denver visited his aunt Mrs. E. N Flood and family Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy McNally and family came up from Gothenburg Sunday, to visit relatives and friends. They returned to Gothenburg Tuesday.

L. D. Fraley of Omaha arrived here Sunday and is renewing old acquaintances this week. Mr. Fraley was Swift salesman for this territory several years ago.

Rev. V. C. Wright has been returned to the Methodist church in O'Neill for the fourth year. In addition to being pastor Mr. Wright is Chairman of the Board of Ministerial Training of the Nebraska annual conference. One of the delightful experiences for him in the recent conference was at the annual dinner of the undergraduates when they presented him with a beautiful walnut desk chair. There are about sixty licentiates in this group.

Circle two of the Presbyterian Church held an old time supper and party in the church parlors Thursday evening, which was a real success. The menu, costumes and entertainment were of an early day. Mrs. Mable Gatz, Mrs. L. A. Burgess and Mrs. Fred Robertson were voted as having the most perfect early day costumes—although there were a number that were very outstanding. May we have more informal affairs like this in our church.

Mr. and Mrs. James Robertson of Sioux City, Iowa, visited relatives over the week end. While here Mr. Robertson received word that he was being transferred to Alliance, Nebr., as office manager of the Fairmont Creamery.

Mr. and Mrs. Dorrance Crabb and daughter left Wednesday morning for Pocasset, Oklahoma, to visit her parents Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Cron.

George T. Robertson has been transferred from Tekamah to Omaha where he will be acting Supervisor for the F. S. A.

Mrs. Anna McCartney went to Butte Sunday to visit friends and relatives for the day.

Henry Grady and daughter Mrs. Arthur King and Miss Geraldine Cronin went to Grand Island Saturday after Mrs. Grady's mother Mrs. J. F. Hayes of Los Angeles, Calif. who will visit here for several months.

Mr. and Mrs. John Garrett of Seattle, Washington, came Friday and visited at the P. J. Lansworth home and other relatives until Wednesday when they left for Missouri and Kansas.

Mrs. James S. Evans arrived in O'Neill Tuesday evening from Grand Island where she will take care of some business affairs before returning to Grand Island Wednesday evening.

Mrs. William Gatz and Mrs. Mable Gatz and son, Eddie, left for Omaha Wednesday to visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Schroder for a week.

Mrs. William Gatz entertained her bridge club Monday evening at her home. Mrs. C. J. Gatz and Mrs. William Gatz won the prizes.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Harper spent the week end in Sioux City, Ia., visiting relatives. GALLEY FOUR Dr. and Mrs. B. F. Gleason of Randolph were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hart Harty Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Turner and daughter

Shirley Ann, and son Jimmy Paul arrived Monday from Winner, So. Dak. to visit her mother Mrs. Theresa Connelly for a week.

Mrs. James Walling entertained two tables of bridge at her home Monday evening in honor of Miss Geraldine Cronin who is leaving for Chicago the latter part of the week. Mrs. Esther Harris and Mrs. Robert Smith Jr. won the prizes.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Tanner of Cozad, Nebr., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Seth Noble Thursday and Friday. They were enroute from S. D., to their home.
