

IRENE'S...Beauty Salon

Get ACQUAINTED OFFER: 50c on Permanent, 10c on Finger Wave, deducted until November 1st.

Located in GILDAY'S BARBER SHOP Now open for business SATISFACTION GUARANTEED

RISER-HUBER

Miss Veronica Riser of Lincoln, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Riser of Friend, was united in marriage to Elmer E. Huber, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Huber, on August 29, at 8 p. m., at the home of the bridegroom's parents...

The bride wore a blue street length dress, trimmed with two rows of white buttons from the neckline to the waist. The three-quarter length sleeves were lined with white lace. Her shoulder corsage was of gladioli. The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. John George, who was attired in white. Gerald R. Huber was his brother's best man.

Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served after the ceremony, which was attended by members of the immediate families.

Mrs. Huber is a graduate of the Friend High school with the class of '34 and has been employed in Lincoln for the past four years. Mr. Huber is a graduate of Lincoln High and is employed as switchman for the Burlington railroad. The couple are at home at 2312 Washington Street, Lincoln.

THE DAYS OF LONG AGO

Fifty-Five Years Ago

The Frontier, September 2, 1886 W. A. Bridges, son of our enterprising mill owner has arrived in O'Neill to remain permanently, and will take charge of the work here.

District Court commenced Tuesday morning with Judge Teffany on the bench. The docket is extremely large this term, and promises to be interesting in some cases at least.

Frank Campbell's commission as postmaster at O'Neill arrived last week, and on Sunday, the 29th, so D. Mathews stepped down and Mr. Campbell took possession.

W. S. Spencer has purchased of E. E. Evans hotel which he has been running for the past two years, known as the Evans House and has changed the name to the Spencer House.

The Frontier, September 9, 1886 The frost hangs off. None to injure crops as yet.

J. H. Meredith and family have moved into their new home.

Tom Golden has placed in operation a telephone between his office and court house.

A party of good Tempers, consisting of W. J. Gordon and wife J. J. Adams and wife, Misses Maude Baldwin, Bertha Adams, Nellie Brown, John Welton, Thomas McNichols and H. Clarborne went out to Rack Falls Saturday night and aided in the organization of a lodge at that place.

Fifty Years Ago

The Frontier, September 3, 1891 Near the little village of Deloit, in the southeast corner of Holt county, is the oldest homestead in the United States, says the World-Herald. James McDouall is the name and he is now living with his son James McDouall Jr. He filed homestead papers eight years ago on a quarter section of land near Deloit and lived on it five years necessary to prove up. At the time of making proof he was 100 years of age.

C. A. Moore started out Monday with the first regular mail from O'Neill to Spencer and Fort Randall. The Frontier, September, 10, 1891

Paddy McManus, Mana's popular and efficient head clerk has severed his connection with that mammoth establishment and has decided to embark in the Mercantile business for himself. He has rented the C. C. Millard room next door to the post office and started east this morning to purchase his stock.

There were over 200 homestead applications mailed at the O'Neill land office during the month of August.

D. L. Darr and family are nicely ensconced in their new home which is about completed.

The J. H. Meredith family are rejoicing over the arrival of a baby sister Sunday morning.

The item, September 3 1891

The school teachers have gone all highly pleased with O'Neill and O'Neill highly pleased with them.

Marshall Slappan is swelling the number of arrivals in dog heaven.

Miss Hannah Gibbons died at Chicago, where she had resided for the past year and a half, of Typhoid fever. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Gibbons, pioneer residents of this city. The body was brought here and the funeral was held from the Catholic Church Wednesday morning.

The item September 10, 1911

On September 23, the Academy Dramatic company will put on a play entitled Ireland As It Is The cast of characters as follows: Don O'Carolan, H. E. Murphy; Neil O'Carolan, D. H. Cronin; Conor O'Flaherty, R. J. Dwyer; Ragged Pat, Frank Howard; Septimus Stone, T. J. Birmingham; Slaug, H. E. Uttley; Gossoon, Delia Marsh; Honor, Bridget Welsh, Florence, Mary Stretch.

The Frontier, September 5, 1901 Joe Sullivan went to Omaha yesterday to enter Creighton University.

The material for the telephone line is on the ground and work will be commenced the latter part of this week.

R. H. Jenness retired September 1st from the receivership of the U. S. Land office and he was succeeded by D. Clem Deaver of Omaha.

Among the marriage licenses issued last week by Judge Selah was one for George Hess of Chambers and Miss Carrie Benson of Turner.

Sam Wolfe, marketed a watermelon last Thursday that weighed 46 3/4 pounds.

O'Neill lost a swell ball game to Norfolk on the local diamond last Monday, by a score of 4 to 5. Norfolk had a salaried team while our team was composed of local residents.

The Frontier, September 12, 1901 Tom Coyne is clerking in Mann's grocery. George Weingartner has moved

The Frontier, September 10, 1901

The Frontier, September 10, 1901

The old Pfunder harness shop to the rear end of the lot and is erecting a building on the lot 20 X 30 with 20 foot posts. The old building will be attached to the new one.

Over three inches of rain fell in O'Neill the past week.

Thirty Years Ago

The Frontier, September 7, 1911 J. B. Ryan left last Monday for a weeks visit with his brother, John, at Ekalaka, Montana, where John is engaged in the real estate business.

J. A. Donahoe went down the road the first of the week and we understand was married this morning in Omaha to Miss Florence Lowrie, of Lincoln, daughter of Rev. N. S. Lowrie, for many years pastor of the Presbyterian Church of this city.

Last week J. B. Mellor and T. A. Quilty purchased an interest in the hay business of J. B. Ryan and the new firm will be known as the O'Neill Hay company with Mr. Quilty as manager.

A. J. Hammond returned last Sunday from a ten weeks visit at his boyhood home in England.

Twenty Years Ago

The Frontier, September 1, 1921 Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Coyne gave a watermelon party to a number of friends at their home Monday evening.

A linen shower was tendered Miss Beatrice Cronin at her residence Friday evening by twenty-five of her friends.

D. H. Cronin left Tuesday morning for Omaha, where today he took over the office of United States Marshall.

From last Thursday and including Monday O'Neill sweltered in an uninterrupted hot spell of 97 degrees.

The largest enrollment of which there is any record, 168 teachers, are registered at the County Institute this week. Records have been kept since 1898.

The Frontier, September 8, 1921 Miss Helen Beglin is teaching in the Emmet public schools this term.

Three thousand tons of hay already have been put up on the east half of the Lee and Prentiss ranch southwest of O'Neill.

Miss Bessie McCloud and Miss Marie Berry left Sunday for Brunswick, where they will teach this year.

The first frost of the season occurring in the low lands around the city is reported for Sunday night. No damage was done.

Miss Beatrice Kathleen Cronin and Patrick Bernard Harty were united in marriage Monday morning at St. Patrick's church, Rev. M. F. Cassidy officiating.

Mary A. Harding, 84 years died at the residence of her son, Charles Harding in this city Wednesday morning at 4 o'clock. She had been a resident of the county since 1880.

Ten Years Ago

The Frontier September 3, 1931 Sanford Parker, one of the pioneers of this county, and the first county clerk of the county and later served several years as receiver of the United States land office, he passed away last Monday at the home of his son Clarence, 80 years of age.

John Brady, one of the early settlers of the county, died at his home in Atkinson Monday.

The Frontier September 10, 1931 A number of O'Neill people drove to Atkinson Wednesday morning to attend the funeral of Mose Campbell former O'Neill resident and for many years one of the Atkinson's leading business men who passed away Monday.

A movement is on foot for joining of Boyd and Holt counties in the interests of governmental economy. The move was initiated by taxpayers of Boyd county who met at Butte and it gained momentum at a meeting in Spencer. Backers say the cost of county government in Boyd county is heavy because of the small property valuation in the county.

The Frontier, September 17, 1931 The Page State Bank of Page failed to open its doors for business Tuesday morning. Continued withdrawal of funds is given as the reason for closing the doors.

Mrs. Loren Nelson left Tuesday for Omaha where she will visit relatives for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. William Froelich left Tuesday for Chicago.

Mike McHugh returned to Philadelphia, Pa., Tuesday after visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Minton and Mrs. Roy Judge.

Mrs. B. E. Harding and daughters, Miss Marvel Harding and Mrs. Jewell Waugh of Whiting, Iowa, spent from Friday till Sunday at the home of Mrs. Harding's mother Mrs. Mattie Johnson and sisters, Mrs. Otto Clausen and Mrs. John Clausen.

Mrs. Ed M. Gallagher, Joe Mann and Dr. J. P. Brown took Miss Betty Gallagher to St. Vincent's hospital in Sioux City Saturday, where Betty underwent an emergency appendectomy. She is getting along fine.

Miss Ruby Edlund leaves Friday on a two week's vacation to visit a sister in Chicago and a friend at Hazard, Kentucky.

Miss Ruth Osenbaugh left for Lincoln Wednesday where she will visit her sister Miss Maybelle for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Aiken of Lincoln spent the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Froelich.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Stout entertained 16 guests at the Golden hotel Sunday evening in honor of Robert Gordon, who had been visiting here for several weeks, and was leaving Tuesday for his home in Lawrence, Mass.

COUNCIL OAK STORES advertisement featuring a menu of meats, cheeses, and other goods with prices. Includes sections for 'BETTER MEATS Mean BETTER MEALS', 'Good Buys!', and 'FRESH FLUFFY MARSHMALLOWS'.

Wrestling Friday Night October 10 Crystal Ball Room advertisement listing matches between John Pesek vs. John Connolly and King Kong vs. Bill Miskey.

BURN Frogil fuel oil advertisement featuring a large illustration of a heater and text: 'TOAST it! MORE HEAT with 1/3 the fuel! Because of imperfect combustion, many ordinary oil heaters allow partially consumed gases to escape up chimneys. Frogil's famous DOWN-DRAFT principle holds these gases in the combustion chamber until they are FULLY consumed! That's why Frogil gets ALL the heat from every particle of fuel... gives MORE heat... uses up to 1/3 LESS oil.'