

Official Pictures of Torpedoed U. S. S. Kearny

A Lesson or Two in Preparedness

Marines of the royal Netherlands navy, still loyal to their exiled queen, are pictured above crossing a river, fully dressed, during maneuvers at Sourabaya, Netherlands East Indies. Japan is their nearest Axis enemy. Inset: A "casualty" is floated across a river on a makeshift raft during demonstration staged by Britain's royal army medical corps. Buoyancy is given by empty oil cans.

They Watched the Tanks Go By

... Not to Market

Not to market, but to San Francisco's grand national livestock exposition, is the destination of these two little pigs, chosen as her entrants by Miss Milo Kimberle. The exposition will present a livestock, horse and radio show of national character, November 15-22.

Turkey Dinner in the Offing

Turkey, with all the trimmings, will grace the festive board at army camps throughout the country on Thanksgiving day. These soldiers of Camp Lee, Va., could not resist their battle training as they creep up on the all-unsuspecting turkeys at the Wippenock farm, South-land, Va.

After Record Leap

Arthur Starnes is greeted by his wife and son, Robert, on right, after plunging six miles in record "free fall" chute leap. He parachuted less than 1,500 feet in the six-mile drop.

'Much Greater Sacrifices in Future'

President Roosevelt addressing the 250 delegates of the International Labor organization at their annual meeting in the East room of the White House, at which 33 nations were represented. The address was carried to the nation by radio. The President condemned the "mis-guided" few industrialists and labor leaders "who place personal advantage above the welfare of their nation," and warned that every American faces "much greater sacrifices in the future." Photo shows Secretary of Labor Perkins as she introduced the President to the meeting.

Japanese Attack Changsha

This remarkable photograph, one of the most vivid to come out of the Sino-Japanese war zone, shows a vanguard of Japanese shock troops led by a sword-brandishing officer, rushing the burning camp of the Chinese soldiers at Changsha. Changsha was one of the most important positions of the Chiang Kai-shek forces.

As Army Takes Over Air Plant

With an armed soldier standing by, machinists are shown at work in the Bendix plant of Air Associates, Inc., Bendix, N. J., the defense plant taken over by the U. S. army on orders from President Roosevelt. The army rehired workers "as Americans," disregarding their previous status in the dispute which had kept the vital defense plant idle. Col. Roy M. Jones, eastern district supervisor of the army air corps procurement division, stands behind the sentry. Machine guns were set up at strategic spots on the grounds of the plant to keep the peace. More than $5,000,000 in defense contracts are held by Air Associates, which manufactures airplane parts.

Poles Take Over U. S. Submarine

Under terms of the lend-lease act, two average United States submarines were turned over to the British and Polish navies at the Groton submarine bases, Groton, Conn. The Polish crew is shown going aboard the submarine, an 800-ton craft built in 1931. The British got a 600-ton submarine built in 1918.

Speaks for Nippon

Saburo Kuruu, special Japanese envoy who flew here from Tokyo on a Pacific clipper for a "final" talk to ease the "very serious situation in the Pacific." Kuruu was former ambassador to Berlin, where he signed the Axis pact for Japan.

Warns Pastors

Col. Early Duncan, commandant at Lowry Field, Denver, Colo., who has been quoted as saying that churches whose pastors "preach against true Americanism" will be declared "out of bounds" for the 10,000 soldiers at Lowry Field.

King of Tin

First picture of Sihanok, new king of Cambodia. He is pictured standing ominously in the rain during last rites for King Sisovad-Monivon, former ruler of the kingdom of 3,000,000. Most important resource is its tin. The kingdom is now largely under Japanese influence.

Ship Lost

Lt. Comdr. H. L. Edwards, commanding officer of the U.S.S. Reuben James, sunk by a torpedo while on convoy duty near Iceland. The ship was a flush-deck destroyer.

Bulbs Bloom All Winter If You Start Them Now

Flowers at Different Periods.

A SUCCESSION of lovely blooms in your home all winter! That's your reward—if you start potting bulbs now. Clever to choose stunning "show pieces" that flower at different periods—white callas start blooming in January, colorful amaryllis and daffodils a little later. Before these and in between you can always have the fragrant narcissus.

Our 32-page booklet tells how to raise favorite flowering and foliage plants. Ferns, bracket plants. Tells how to pot bulbs, also how to grow bulbs, vines and other material in water. Send your order to:
