

Our Sky Fighters in the Pacific

'Somewhere on the Eastern Front'

An ammunition dump in a forest somewhere behind the German lines in Russia is shown in lower picture. Men are stacking giant aerial bombs near a bomber base, whence Nazi planes go out to blast Russian positions. Above: Long lines of Russian war prisoners, carrying their worldly possessions in a sack, are being marched to an internment camp somewhere on the eastern front by the Nazi army.

Coal for Strike-Bound Yale

Picket at gates of powerhouse of Yale university, New Haven, Conn., moves aside when truckload of coal arrives for the strike-bound university. Maintenance employees at the university struck an hour before the state board of mediation was scheduled to meet with the C.I.O. to discuss settlement of union shop dispute. Inset: Phillip Murray, C.I.O. president who, on the same day resigned from the national defense mediation board because of an opinion rendered on "captive" coal mines of the bituminous coal industry.

'Plaything'

The German caption says that these are Russian children playing about the remains of a Red Army bombing plane, shot down somewhere in occupied territory. The red star, Soviet insignia, may be seen on the fuselage. What strange "playthings" war has brought to children!

Pickets at the Red Lion mine, one of the "rebellious" spots in western Pennsylvania's captive coal strike are routed by state motor police after the pickets had earlier stoned cars and blocked a public highway for two hours. Above photo shows a picket arguing vainly with a trooper. This particular incident was closed without personal injury.

Crash of Streamliner in Texas

This photo shows the wrecked locomotive, tender and car of the streamlined railroad train that struck a truck near Dallas, Texas. Note the rail twisted and uprooted 30 feet in the air by the impact. Two were killed as a result of the accident.

As Neutrality Act Was Revised

Revision of the neutrality act in the house was one of the hardest fought battles to come before that body in years. These photos, taken on the day the bill was repealed, show (top), left to right, Speaker Sam Rayburn and Majority Leader John McCormack, examining letter from President Roosevelt declaring that a vote by the house against repeal would "cause rejoicing in the Axis countries." Below: left to right, Rep. James P. Richards (S. C.) floor leader for the Democratic opposition, congratulates Rep. Sol Bloom (N. Y.), leader of fight for passage.

Strengthening Burma's Defenses

A Burmese longshoreman, clad only in breechcloth, aids in unloading Bren gun carriers from a British freighter at Rangoon. Burma is very much in the spotlight as the gateway through which passes British and American supplies to keep the Chinese fighting. One of Japan's threats was that she would cut the Burma road.

British Chief

Gen. Sir Alan Brooke (above), has been named chief of the British Imperial staff. An expert on mechanical warfare, he earned fame as head of Britain's "anti-invasion" home forces, which he brought to a high level of efficiency.

Harm in Excess
The desire of power in excess caused the angels to fall; the desire of knowledge in excess caused man to fall; but in charity there is no excess, neither can angel or man come in danger by it.—Bacon.
