

Making 'Leathernecks' at Parris Island

Brazil's Contribution to Hemisphere Defense

An impressive view of the military airport in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, (upper picture) showing some of the planes of the Brazilian air force, most of which are of U. S. manufacture. Below: Three of Brazil's four submarines, at their base at Luakes island navy yard. Brazil keeps these submarines, all of which were built in Italy, in tip-top shape, ready for any eventuality.

Fighting 'Raid Bombs' in Gotham

Assisted by regular firemen, air raid patrol workers are shown using rescue ladders in the "air raid" drill staged in Union Square, New York city. Mayor Fiorello LaGuardia, national director of civilian defense, watched the boys douse "incendiaries" and rescue victims.

U. S. Officers in Eskimo Regatta

Lucky Driver

This auto, driven by Philip Falco, 34, of New York, smashed through the guard rails, sending car and driver to railroad yards below. Falco got off with a bruised knee and a cut over the eye.

Back to the Wars

Released by the British naval attaché, photo shows British battleship H.M.S. Malaya steaming out of New York harbor after undergoing repairs under lend-lease program.

U. S. Merchantman 'Packs a Rod'

One of the first American merchant ships to be given a gun in accordance with the revised neutrality law which permits U. S. ships to enter belligerent ports and combat zones is shown here with the gun being bolted to the stern mount. Photo was made at an East coast port. The ship's name is withheld at the navy's request.

'U. S. Help Avails Nothing'—Ribbentrop

Joachim von Ribbentrop, German foreign minister, is shown (center background) as he addressed the foreign ministers of Axis satellites after the signing of the anti-comintern pact in Berlin. Von Ribbentrop said that Hitler already has won the war in Russia, and warned that U. S. help to Russia or Britain would avail nothing.

Back From Russia

Laurence A. Steinhardt, U. S. ambassador to Russia, is shown surrounded by reporters after he arrived in New York, en route to Washington to report on Russia's stand before the Nazi machine, and the effect of U. S. lease-lend aid.

'Player-Manager'

Louis Boudreau, 24, has signed a two-year contract as player-manager of the Cleveland Indians. Boudreau, who is shown above, was the Indians' shortstop for the past two seasons.

Hull Takes Japanese to White House

Saburo Kurusu, special Japanese envoy bearing his government's final terms for peaceful settlement of Japanese-American differences in the Pacific, is shown (right) with Secretary of State Cordell Hull (center) and Japanese ambassador Kichisaburo Nomura, as they entered the White House grounds after leaving the state department.

Before Miners Accepted President's Terms

Flanked by district leaders William Hynes (left) and Patrick J. Fagan (right), United Mine workers' chief John L. Lewis is shown after leaving the deadlocked "peace conference" with steel officials. Their failure to agree on closed shop issue was the signal for a general strike in "captive coal mines." Later, the miners agreed to submit the dispute to mediation and the strike ended.

First Seal Purchaser

President Roosevelt, the nation's first purchaser of Christmas seals of the National Tuberculosis association, buys his seals from Steven Dohanos, artist who created seal.

No. Z9397

A WALKING duck, a hopping rabbit, clown ring toss toy and owl bookends—all come from your workshop to make some child happy. Each is traced to wood, cut out with jig, coping or keyhole saw and painted. Off center wheels make the rabbit hop merrily—feet on a disc turning inside make the resplendent duck walk when pushed. The clown's long nose is an excellent target for catching the ring on the end of the string.

No. Z9397, 15 cents, brings cutting outlines and directions for all four items. Send your order to:
