BRIEFLY STATED

Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Bredehoft received word the latter part of the week that their daughter, Eleanor, had received a civil service appointment in Washington, D. C., and started on her duties there last week. She is in the accounting department of the Department of Labor. For the past eight months Miss Eleanor has been working in Birmingham, Alabama, having a position there with a large firm as stenographer and bookkeeper, but her Washington appointment is a distinct advancement. Her many O'Neill friends extend congratulations on her success. Washington is getting quite a colony of O'Neill people, so that the O'Neill Club will have to have larger quarters if they wish to be able to care for all the O'Neill people now employed in the capital city.

Mrs. Jacob Hoerle, of Southeastern Holt, was in the city Tuesday and made this office a pleasant call and ordered The Frontier sent to her address so they could keep posted on the happenings in this big county of ours.

Mrs. Dale Asher of Page has accepted a position with the Gamble Store and started working Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville McKim and Mr. McKim's mother, went to Valentine Monday to attend the funeral of a relative.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Bogie left Monday for Sioux City, Iowa, to visit relatives for a few days before returning to their home at San Mateo, California. They have been here for the past week visiting Mrs. Bogie's mother, Mrs. Mable Tomlinson and other relatives.
