TO ALL PERSONS INTERESTED IN SAID ESTATE, BOTH CREDITORS AND HEIRS: You are hereby notified that on the 28th day of May, A. D., 1942, Tony Asimus and Carl Asimus, petitioners, filed their supplemental petition in the above matter setting forth, among other things, that James Dixon, a citizen, resident and inhabitant of Holt County, Nebraska, died intestate on the 16th day of May, 1897; that he died seized and possessed of the following described real estate, situate in the County of Holt and State of Nebraska, to-wit:

Southwest Quarter of Section Twenty-seven, Township Thirty, North, Range Twelve, West of the Sixth P. M.

Livestock Prices Ease Somewhat

Livestock prices on both cattle and hogs were lower Monday. Several factors affected the price trends; notably, the unusually heavy receipts and the generally weak undertone that dominated all the central markets. These conditions were reflected in the price trends here.

The toppest steer calves offered for sale here held up to $13.50, but only a sprinkling of this grade were included in the day's supplies. Bulk of the class ranged in price from $11.80 to $12.75. These included some short yearlings around 500 lbs. in weight. Best heifer calves, scaling 425 lbs. and medium to good in quality brought $12.00. The long end of the heifers placed in the elevens, most of them in the upper brackets.

Yearling steers ranged in price from $10 to $11, which is nominally steady with a week ago. Heifers in the yearling division, likewise, held their prices together pretty well with the bulk selling between $10 and $11, most of them claiming upper scale prices. A few 2-year-olds were included in the offering but scarcely enough to make a quotable market.

Cow supplies were lighter than in several weeks. The best beef cows ranged in price from $9 to $9.80. Commoner grades paid from $7.50 to $8.60. Bulls failed to measure up to last Monday's extreme highs, though most of the bull supplies placed in the high nines with $9.95 the limit on 1300 pounders.

Hog receipts numbered close to 500 head—one of the heaviest runs thus far this season. Prices here reflected the current weakness at the central markets. Choice, well-finished butchers topped at $13.50; bulk sold at $13.35 to $13.45. Sows cashed mostly from $13 to $13.25. Feeders weighing around 150 pounds sold at $13.50. An unusually large number of small pigs sold by the head and brought good prices, though not quite so high as a week ago. Next auction Monday, June 15.
