

First Under-Water Photos of Life-Saving

A demonstration of life-saving is shown above, photographed for the first time under water, as staged by members of Boston chapter of the Red Cross. At left, three swimmers enact role of "victim," untrained rescuer and trained rescuer. Victim grabs would-be rescuer about neck; would-be rescuer gets panicky, grabs victim. Trained rescuer drops down on both and breaks their grips, prying both apart as shown in first and second photos. Right: Rescuer flexes knees for spring that will shoot both to surface.

Keep 'Em Loaded and Keep 'Em Flying

At an army air depot somewhere in the western part of the U. S., huge transport planes, "the flying box-cars" of the army air force, ship freight on wings to foreign battle fronts. At left the loading crew is transferring freight to waiting "flying box car." Inset: Poised for flight are these air freight planes, to any air field in case of an emergency call.

War Heroes—and Symbol of Their Purpose

Thirteen British and American war heroes visit Independence hall, Philadelphia, Pa., after being given a rousing welcome in New York. They are shown grouped around the Liberty Bell—the bell which is the symbol of that freedom in whose cause they performed their heroic deeds. The heroes then went to Washington to visit President Roosevelt.

Plead for Lives

Stark terror written on their haggard, unshaven faces, these five Frenchmen, accused by the Nazis of being saboteurs, cringe pitifully on their knees somewhere in Occupied France. Their fate? We leave that to your imagination.

Messerschmitt Flies Over U. S.

The first German Messerschmitt plane ever to fly in the U. S. took part in the Air Cavalcade—a joint army force and treasury department tour to boost sale of war bonds. The itinerary included 18 cities. The plane (shown above) was shot down over England. Included in the Cavalcade was a British Spitfire, famous fighter plane.

Swell Falla

"Falla," the nation's No. 1 Scottie, owned by President Roosevelt, did his share in the national scrap rubber salvage campaign by rounding up balls, rubber bones and other gadgets dear to the heart of a pup, and donated them to the drive.

Tank Corner in 'Arsenal of Democracy'

This is a view of the Chrysler plant in Detroit turning out land battle-ships by the hundred. Imposing as it is, this is just a cog in the mighty machine now in high gear turning out the sinews of war to defeat the Axis. Production has now hit its stride and the tanks roll off, night and day, in a steady stream.

Japs Inspect Malaya Ruins

Pudgy General Tomoyuki Yamashita, Japan's No. 1 soldier, is shown leading his staff on an inspection tour of the ruins in Malaya. The general directed the capture of Singapore and then went on to take Bataan and Corregidor in the Philippines. This soundphoto is from an enemy source, and has just been received in the United States.

Rescued by Bomber in Caribbean

Somewhere in the Caribbean . . . The thrilling moment when seven men, adrift in the Caribbean sea on a raft, were hauled to safety to the cabin of a giant U. S. navy patrol bomber. The men had been adrift for seven days after their torpedoed freighter had been sunk. Lieut. Hugh Rogers and Ensign Rance Thompson were in command of the rescue plane which was landed in heavy seas.

Saves Work for U. S.

The army and navy soon will inaugurate a new method of microscopically copying letters to soldiers in foreign lands. By means of this method 1,500 letters can be recorded on one reel of film. Three reels are the equivalent of two mail pouches. In this picture Private Erwin Twad-dell removes the camera from the recording machine, for processing before reel is shipped.

Midway Hero

Lieut. Henry Fitts, 25, of Macon, N. C., first publicly acclaimed hero of the battle between American air arms and Jap fleet off Midway island. He dropped the bombs which sank a Jap aircraft carrier.

Mourning Outfit

Dressed in his German bund storm trooper's uniform, Karl Geiger, 59, of Brooklyn, leaves the federal court building after a hearing. He was arrested as he left a Brooklyn funeral parlor, wearing this outfit. Geiger explained that he and a friend, Eugene Habel, had made a pact that whoever should die first would be mourned by the other wearing the bund's storm trooper uniform.

Underwater Alert

At the periscope during diving practice at the naval submarine training school, New London, Conn. As the sub goes down the officer sees a green film cover the lens, which gradually darkens to black. When the dive level is reached he commands "level off."

One thing a soldier is afraid of is a display of emotion. That's why his slang so often sounds derogatory. For example, he refers to the silver eagles on his colonel's shoulder straps as "buzzards." But when he speaks of his favorite cigarette, he says: "Camels." They're first with men in the Army as well as with Sailors, Marines, and Coast Guardsmen. (According to actual sales records in service men's stores.) A gift of a carton of Camels is always well received. Local tobacco dealers are featuring Camel cartons to send to any member of our armed forces. Hint for the day: Send "him" a carton of Camels.—Adv.

Kidneys Must Work Well-

For You To Feel Well 24 hours every day, 7 days every week, never stopping, the kidneys filter waste matter from the blood. If more people were aware of how the kidneys must constantly remove surplus fluid, excess acids and other waste matter that cannot stay in the blood without injury to health, there would be better understanding of why the whole system is upset when kidneys fail to function properly. Burning, scanty or too frequent urination sometimes warns that something is wrong. You may suffer nagging backache, headaches, dizziness, rheumatic pains, getting up at night, swelling. Why not try Doan's Pills? You will be using a medicine recommended the country over. Doan's stimulate the function of the kidneys and help them to flush out poisonous waste from the blood. They contain nothing harmful. Get Doan's today. Use with confidence. At all drug stores.
