BANKS AND THE WAR

TAXES and the AXIS

THIS is the most costly war of all time and everyone of us might as well recognize the fact that we will be paying for it for years in the form of higher taxes.

Our advice is this: Make taxes part of your budget. There are many reasons why you should provide for taxes in advance—but the best reason is that it's plain common sense. A bank account provides a convenient way to accumulate tax money.
