EDUCATIONAL NOTES

The date of the annual Holt County Pre-Opening Day for rural teachers is Friday, Sept. 4, at the O'Neill public school building. Beginning teachers will be required to come at 10 a. m., all other teachers may come at 11 a. m., but are welcome earlier. Schools which begin August 31 should close school that day to allow their teacher to attend this meeting.

Educational notes were sent to each paper in the county on August 6, listing rural school vacancies and available teachers in the county. Some of these vacancies have been filled but some are still vacancies.

FRESH FRUITS AND VEGETABLES

"YES, WE HAVE NO BANANAS" —This is a familiar story these days but at Council Oak Stores we have an abundant supply of firm, golden-ripe So American Bananas, selling at the same low price at which they sold in March spite of advanced costs to us.

WATERMELONS —Council Oak Stores watermelons are guaranteed the year around but at this time of the year they are absolutely no danger of watermelons being ripe. At Council Oak Stores they are sold either whole or half at a reasonable price.

VEGETABLES —While you have your Victory Garden vegetables and for economy are using these up, there are other items which you do not have, such as mountain-grown Cauliflower, head lettuce, pascal celery, and other out-of-season vegetables. You can get a fresh selection of these items at your nearest Council Oak store.
