Receipts of livestock at the market here were heavy last Monday, though not quite so heavy as a week ago. The general trend of prices was on the easier side, though some classes looked fully steady. Fewer choice cattle showed up, which undoubtedly affected the price levels. Lightweight steer calves reached an extreme top of $14.25. Bulk cashed at $13 to $14. Heifers sold from $12 to $13. Yearling steers moved at prices ranging from $11.50 to $12.50, with a few reaching slightly higher. Heifers in this class made $10.75 to $11.75. Two-year old steers paid around $12. Heifers cashed from $10.50 to $11.50. Good beef cows pushed upwards to $10.35 on 1180-pound weights, with the long end making $9 to $10. Plainer grades made $8 to $9, with canners and cutters selling from $6.50 to $7.75. Heavy bulks topped at $10.25. In the hog division, butchers sold from $14.10 to $14.20 on the heavyweights. Sows paid $13.90 to $14.10. Feeders made $17.30 on 70-pounds. Light supplies of sheep and a few horses completed the offering. Next auction on Monday, October 26.

Do They Really? There's Something Wrong With Catholics. If Catholics worship pictures, statues and saints—if they think medals, holy water and the like, will in themselves prevent accidents, disease, lightning and drowning—if Catholics have no mind of their own and must vote and fight and act as their priests order—then surely there is something wrong with the Catholics. Yes, something so wrong that they should never be permitted to take a hand in running this great country of ours.

If, on the other hand there is no idolatry or superstition about anything Catholic—if all Catholics have 100 per cent free will—if their patriotism is a proved fact—if in short, Catholics believe that their Faith has in it and behind it reason, common sense, God-given authority and a philosophy which if generally adopted, would solve all present-day problems—if Catholics have such a story to tell their non-Catholic neighbors and refuse to tell it—then again we say there is something wrong with Catholics—woefully wrong. Consumers is a PUBLIC utility in the true sense of the term — it is publicly-owned and it serves the public in Nebraska. Organized under an enabling act passed by the Nebraska legislature, Consumers is a non-profit, Nebraska-controlled electric utility. And yet it was financed WITHOUT the aid of either state or federal funds. Its financing came from the sale of revenue bonds sold to the investing public. Its policies are determined by a board of directors. These directors are elected by legal voters residing in incorporated communities served at retail by Consumers. So "pleasing the public" is more than a mere slogan with Consumers—it is the very business of this Nebraska publicly-owned PUBLIC utility.
