

THE FRONTIER

D. H. Cronin, Editor and Owner
 Entered at Postoffice at O'Neill, Nebraska, as Second Class Matter
SUBSCRIPTION
 One Year, in Nebraska $2.00
 One Year, Outside Nebraska 2.25
 Every subscription is regarded as an open account. The names of subscribers will be instantly removed from our mailing list at expiration of time paid for, if the publisher shall be notified; otherwise the subscription remains in force at the designated subscription price. Every subscriber must understand that these conditions are made a part of the contract between publisher and subscriber.
 Display advertising is charged for on a basis of 25c an inch (one column wide) per week. Want ads 10c per line, first insertion. Subsequent insertions 5c per line

THE DAYS OF LONG AGO

Fifty-Five Years Ago

The Frontier, November 3, 1887
 The DeYarman boys, three of them, have purchased of G. W. Goodrich the Checker livery barn and will take possession soon.
 The Frontier, November 10, 1887
 At the election last Tuesday the republicans elected all the candidates on their ticket, with the exception of county treasurer, Jack Meals being re-elected to that position. Following are the candidates and their majorities: Meals, D., 216; McBride, R., 920; Hazelett, R., 33; McEvony, R. 706; Lorwe, R., 324; Manville, R., 622.
 The road between the depot and bridge across the Elkhorn ought to be graded and fixed in such shape that farmers could haul respectable loads over it.
 A dancing party was given at the rink last Thursday evening in honor of Will Stewart, who left Saturday morning for Greeley Center, where he will take charge of a bank recently established there by Mr. Palmanteer. Will has held the position of assistant cashier of the First National Bank here for about three years.
 The Frontier, November 17, 1887
 The Free Press, owned, edited and published by Doc Mathews for the past year, breathed its last on Thursday, November 10.
 Mr. Canton returned from Fort Randall yesterday and will now become a permanent resident of O'Neill. He received his discharge from the United States Army and will study law with Attorney Thomas Carlon.
 S. L. Bohon went to Niobrara last week to accept a position in the United States land office at that place. Mr. Bohon had been a resident of Holt county for several years, serving as deputy county treasurer, and was one of the publishers of The Tribune for a short time.
 At the election last week township organization was adopted with a vote of 2,164 for to 619 against.

Forty Years Ago

The Frontier, November 6, 1902
 One of the warmest campaigns of years closed last Tuesday, with both sides gaining some victories. Arthur F. Mullen was re-elected county attorney with a majority of 189 over J. J. King, republican. W. N. Coates of Stuart, republican, was elected one of the legislative representatives from this county with a majority of 44. E. M. Waring, fusion, was elected representative over Fred Cronk, republican, with a majority of 250. Con Coffey, fusion, of Spencer, was elected senator from this district with a majority of 46. Coffey carried Holt county by 182; Wheeler county was a tie. Bartlett, republican, carried Garfield by 109 and Boyd by 27. Moses P. Kinkaid was elected to Congress from this district, being the first republican congressman from this district.
 A. P. Brooks left last Thursday morning for Lake City, Colo., where he expects to spend the winter.
 J. A. Meals returned from Alaska last Saturday.
 The Frontier, November 13, 1902.
 Married, at the Catholic church, Wednesday morning, November 12, 1902, James F. O'Donnell to Miss Leonie Skirving, Rev. M. F. Cassidy officiating.
 Married, at the Catholic church in the city, Tuesday morning, November 11, 1902, James McCaffrey and Miss Mina Clark, Rev. M. F. Cassidy officiating.

Thirty Years Ago

The Frontier, November 7, 1912.
 Last Saturday the Holt County Telephone Company sold their telephone lines in this county to the Nebraska Telephone Company, who are now in control of the property. The cash involved in the transaction was about $10,000.
 Wilson carries the state and Morehead, democrat, elected governor. Norris was elected United States senator; Kinkaid re-elected to congress from this district. He carried this county by a majority of 892. John A. Robertson was elected State Senator, carrying this county with a majority of 105, Boyd 55 and Wheeler 8. Hunter carried Keya Paha by 99 and Garfield by 33, giving Robertson a majority in the district of 36 votes. Cronin was re-elected to the legislature, receiving a majority of 832. For representative from the Fifty-fourth district, Holt and Boyd, Anderson carried Holt county by 123 and was elected. Walter Hodgkin was elected county attorney over John

Twenty Years Ago

The Frontier, November 2, 1922.
 Miss Marie Lois Hammond celebrated her sixth birthday anniversary last Saturday afternoon at the residence of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Hammond, by inviting twenty of her little friends to assist in the festivities.
 Anton F. Sauser died at his residence in this city Tuesday morning at 11:30, after an illness of but a few days. He was 58 years, nine months and 19 days old at the time of his death.
 The Frontier, November 9, 1922.
 Zimmerman & Son moved into their new building on east Douglas street Monday.
 Mrs. J. J. McCafferty and daughter, Miss Florence, returned home Sunday evening from a three months visit with relatives and friends in the New England states.
 The election last Tuesday was a cut and slash affair. Howell, republican, carried the county over Hitchcock, democrat, with a majority of 1,122. For governor, Bryan, democrat, defeated Randall, republican, in the county by 1,066 votes. Mullen, democrat, for lieutenant governor, carried the county by 225, and Pool, democrat, carried the county for secretary of state with a majority of 240. The balance of the republican ticket carried the county. Simmons, for congress, carried the county by 501 over Beal, democrat. Robertson, democrat, for state senator, defeated Sturdevant, republican, 710 votes in the county. Donald Gallagher, republican, was elected to the legislature by 417 votes over Gribble, democrat. There were two close races in the county. Duffy led Brittle by two votes on the unofficial tabulation of the vote. Ed Porter led John C. Gallagher by 98 votes for county clerk. Julius D. Cronin was elected county attorney with a majority of 696 over Scott. Miss Anna Donohoe was elected county superintendent with a majority of 1,310 over John Ashton.

Ten Years Ago

The Frontier, November 10, 1932.
 More than 7,000 votes were cast in this county last Tuesday, which resulted in a democratic landslide, not only in this county and state, but the nation at large.
 Herb Hammond, Ira Moss and M. H. Horiskey went up to Cherry county Wednesday, where they will try duck hunting for a few days.
 The Frontier, November 17, 1932.
 At the election Tuesday of last week Judge Dickson was re-elected district judge with a majority of 3,063 over Ely, of Ainsworth.
 At the conclusion of the memorial meeting at the district court room last Monday afternoon the lawyers present organized a bar association of the lawyers of the district. J. A. Donohoe of O'Neill was elected chairman and L. G. Nelson of Bassett was selected secretary-treasurer.
 On the invitation of Judge Dickson members of the bar of the Fifteenth Judicial District met in this city last Monday afternoon, the first day of the opening of the Holt county fall term of court and held memorial services for the three members of the Holt county bar that had passed away during the past year: M. F. Harrington, Lewis C. Chapman and Joseph H. Meredith, all of this city.
 The Frontier, November 24, 1932.
 Mr. and Mrs. Paul Beha of Lincoln visited at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Beha, in this city last Monday.
 F. J. Sexsmith was shot and killed at his home northeast of this city last Sunday morning. The men who did the killing were quickly traced and rounded up by local officers and were lodged in jail on Wednesday evening, with a written confession from one of them. They were Lloyd Hammond, 23, a young farmer living west of Bloomfield, and Frank Mackey, a half breed Indian, aged 50, of Niobrara.

Several Planes Circle O'Neill Tuesday Night

Several large planes were flying over the city between 8:30 and 11 o'clock last evening, causing many of our citizens to rush out and look into the heavens. Our guess is that they were from the Sioux City Air Base and the flyers were getting some experience in night flying.

THE GOVERNMENT AIMS TO TAKE OVER SCRAP

Scrap on the farm of James Jelenek near Alliance has been requisitioned by the War Production Board and is being moved in by a salvage company. Among the items to be removed were 20 automobiles, 20 gasoline tractors, 13 old combines, 2 old steam tractors and 130 rubber tires, the total weight being estimated at 317 tons. Just a little evidence that the government is going to follow up its several appeals for scrap by the force method on those who have so far failed to heed the calls.—Bassett Leader.

BRIEFLY STATED

Jack Gallagher and Bert Brennan went to Lincoln on Wednesday to spend Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Tom Brennan and family.
 Bob Parkins arrived home on Tuesday from Chicago, Ill., where he attends Loyola University, to spend the Thanksgiving vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Parkins.
 Jack Harty arrived home Tuesday from Chicago, Ill., where he attends Loyola University, to spend the Thanksgiving vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Harty.
 Mr. and Mrs. Perkins and son, Bob, of Ainsworth came to O'Neill last Sunday, and that evening,

THE GOVERNMENT AIMS TO TAKE OVER SCRAP

Scrap on the farm of James Jelenek near Alliance has been requisitioned by the War Production Board and is being moved in by a salvage company. Among the items to be removed were 20 automobiles, 20 gasoline tractors, 13 old combines, 2 old steam tractors and 130 rubber tires, the total weight being estimated at 317 tons. Just a little evidence that the government is going to follow up its several appeals for scrap by the force method on those who have so far failed to heed the calls.—Bassett Leader.

BRIEFLY STATED

Jack Gallagher and Bert Brennan went to Lincoln on Wednesday to spend Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Tom Brennan and family.
 Bob Parkins arrived home on Tuesday from Chicago, Ill., where he attends Loyola University, to spend the Thanksgiving vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Parkins.
 Jack Harty arrived home Tuesday from Chicago, Ill., where he attends Loyola University, to spend the Thanksgiving vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Harty.
 Mr. and Mrs. Perkins and son, Bob, of Ainsworth came to O'Neill last Sunday, and that evening,

THE GOVERNMENT AIMS TO TAKE OVER SCRAP

Scrap on the farm of James Jelenek near Alliance has been requisitioned by the War Production Board and is being moved in by a salvage company. Among the items to be removed were 20 automobiles, 20 gasoline tractors, 13 old combines, 2 old steam tractors and 130 rubber tires, the total weight being estimated at 317 tons. Just a little evidence that the government is going to follow up its several appeals for scrap by the force method on those who have so far failed to heed the calls.—Bassett Leader.

smashing victory for the Populists, carrying the county with a majority of 189 on the head of the state ticket and elected their county ticket. The vote on the head of the ticket was: Republican, 1,002; Populist, 1,191; Democrats, 233.
 The Frontier, November 17, 1892
 It was a pleasant party of young folks that assembled at the home of Miss Agnes Gallagher last Wednesday night, according to invitations received, to appropriately celebrate her eighteenth birthday.
 Married, at Grand Forks, N. D., on Thursday, November 10, 1892, John McHugh, of this city, and Miss Mamie E. Leete, of Grand Forks.
 The Frontier, November 24, 1892
 Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Ed Gallagher last week, a boy of usual weight.

Forty Years Ago

The Frontier, November 6, 1902
 One of the warmest campaigns of years closed last Tuesday, with both sides gaining some victories. Arthur F. Mullen was re-elected county attorney with a majority of 189 over J. J. King, republican. W. N. Coates of Stuart, republican, was elected one of the legislative representatives from this county with a majority of 44. E. M. Waring, fusion, was elected representative over Fred Cronk, republican, with a majority of 250. Con Coffey, fusion, of Spencer, was elected senator from this district with a majority of 46. Coffey carried Holt county by 182; Wheeler county was a tie. Bartlett, republican, carried Garfield by 109 and Boyd by 27. Moses P. Kinkaid was elected to Congress from this district, being the first republican congressman from this district.
 A. P. Brooks left last Thursday morning for Lake City, Colo., where he expects to spend the winter.
 J. A. Meals returned from Alaska last Saturday.
 The Frontier, November 13, 1902.
 Married, at the Catholic church, Wednesday morning, November 12, 1902, James F. O'Donnell to Miss Leonie Skirving, Rev. M. F. Cassidy officiating.
 Married, at the Catholic church in the city, Tuesday morning, November 11, 1902, James McCaffrey and Miss Mina Clark, Rev. M. F. Cassidy officiating.

Twenty Years Ago

The Frontier, November 2, 1922.
 Miss Marie Lois Hammond celebrated her sixth birthday anniversary last Saturday afternoon at the residence of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Hammond, by inviting twenty of her little friends to assist in the festivities.
 Anton F. Sauser died at his residence in this city Tuesday morning at 11:30, after an illness of but a few days. He was 58 years, nine months and 19 days old at the time of his death.
 The Frontier, November 9, 1922.
 Zimmerman & Son moved into their new building on east Douglas street Monday.
 Mrs. J. J. McCafferty and daughter, Miss Florence, returned home Sunday evening from a three months visit with relatives and friends in the New England states.
 The election last Tuesday was a cut and slash affair. Howell, republican, carried the county over Hitchcock, democrat, with a majority of 1,122. For governor, Bryan, democrat, defeated Randall, republican, in the county by 1,066 votes. Mullen, democrat, for lieutenant governor, carried the county by 225, and Pool, democrat, carried the county for secretary of state with a majority of 240. The balance of the republican ticket carried the county. Simmons, for congress, carried the county by 501 over Beal, democrat. Robertson, democrat, for state senator, defeated Sturdevant, republican, 710 votes in the county. Donald Gallagher, republican, was elected to the legislature by 417 votes over Gribble, democrat. There were two close races in the county. Duffy led Brittle by two votes on the unofficial tabulation of the vote. Ed Porter led John C. Gallagher by 98 votes for county clerk. Julius D. Cronin was elected county attorney with a majority of 696 over Scott. Miss Anna Donohoe was elected county superintendent with a majority of 1,310 over John Ashton.

Ten Years Ago

The Frontier, November 10, 1932.
 More than 7,000 votes were cast in this county last Tuesday, which resulted in a democratic landslide, not only in this county and state, but the nation at large.
 Herb Hammond, Ira Moss and M. H. Horiskey went up to Cherry county Wednesday, where they will try duck hunting for a few days.
 The Frontier, November 17, 1932.
 At the election Tuesday of last week Judge Dickson was re-elected district judge with a majority of 3,063 over Ely, of Ainsworth.
 At the conclusion of the memorial meeting at the district court room last Monday afternoon the lawyers present organized a bar association of the lawyers of the district. J. A. Donohoe of O'Neill was elected chairman and L. G. Nelson of Bassett was selected secretary-treasurer.
 On the invitation of Judge Dickson members of the bar of the Fifteenth Judicial District met in this city last Monday afternoon, the first day of the opening of the Holt county fall term of court and held memorial services for the three members of the Holt county bar that had passed away during the past year: M. F. Harrington, Lewis C. Chapman and Joseph H. Meredith, all of this city.
 The Frontier, November 24, 1932.
 Mr. and Mrs. Paul Beha of Lincoln visited at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Beha, in this city last Monday.
 F. J. Sexsmith was shot and killed at his home northeast of this city last Sunday morning. The men who did the killing were quickly traced and rounded up by local officers and were lodged in jail on Wednesday evening, with a written confession from one of them. They were Lloyd Hammond, 23, a young farmer living west of Bloomfield, and Frank Mackey, a half breed Indian, aged 50, of Niobrara.

Several Planes Circle O'Neill Tuesday Night

Several large planes were flying over the city between 8:30 and 11 o'clock last evening, causing many of our citizens to rush out and look into the heavens. Our guess is that they were from the Sioux City Air Base and the flyers were getting some experience in night flying.

THE GOVERNMENT AIMS TO TAKE OVER SCRAP

Scrap on the farm of James Jelenek near Alliance has been requisitioned by the War Production Board and is being moved in by a salvage company. Among the items to be removed were 20 automobiles, 20 gasoline tractors, 13 old combines, 2 old steam tractors and 130 rubber tires, the total weight being estimated at 317 tons. Just a little evidence that the government is going to follow up its several appeals for scrap by the force method on those who have so far failed to heed the calls.—Bassett Leader.

BRIEFLY STATED

Jack Gallagher and Bert Brennan went to Lincoln on Wednesday to spend Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Tom Brennan and family.
 Bob Parkins arrived home on Tuesday from Chicago, Ill., where he attends Loyola University, to spend the Thanksgiving vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Parkins.
 Jack Harty arrived home Tuesday from Chicago, Ill., where he attends Loyola University, to spend the Thanksgiving vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Harty.
 Mr. and Mrs. Perkins and son, Bob, of Ainsworth came to O'Neill last Sunday, and that evening,

THE GOVERNMENT AIMS TO TAKE OVER SCRAP

Scrap on the farm of James Jelenek near Alliance has been requisitioned by the War Production Board and is being moved in by a salvage company. Among the items to be removed were 20 automobiles, 20 gasoline tractors, 13 old combines, 2 old steam tractors and 130 rubber tires, the total weight being estimated at 317 tons. Just a little evidence that the government is going to follow up its several appeals for scrap by the force method on those who have so far failed to heed the calls.—Bassett Leader.

BRIEFLY STATED

Jack Gallagher and Bert Brennan went to Lincoln on Wednesday to spend Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Tom Brennan and family.
 Bob Parkins arrived home on Tuesday from Chicago, Ill., where he attends Loyola University, to spend the Thanksgiving vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Parkins.
 Jack Harty arrived home Tuesday from Chicago, Ill., where he attends Loyola University, to spend the Thanksgiving vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Harty.
 Mr. and Mrs. Perkins and son, Bob, of Ainsworth came to O'Neill last Sunday, and that evening,

THE GOVERNMENT AIMS TO TAKE OVER SCRAP

Scrap on the farm of James Jelenek near Alliance has been requisitioned by the War Production Board and is being moved in by a salvage company. Among the items to be removed were 20 automobiles, 20 gasoline tractors, 13 old combines, 2 old steam tractors and 130 rubber tires, the total weight being estimated at 317 tons. Just a little evidence that the government is going to follow up its several appeals for scrap by the force method on those who have so far failed to heed the calls.—Bassett Leader.

BRIEFLY STATED

Jack Gallagher and Bert Brennan went to Lincoln on Wednesday to spend Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Tom Brennan and family.
 Bob Parkins arrived home on Tuesday from Chicago, Ill., where he attends Loyola University, to spend the Thanksgiving vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Parkins.
 Jack Harty arrived home Tuesday from Chicago, Ill., where he attends Loyola University, to spend the Thanksgiving vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Harty.
 Mr. and Mrs. Perkins and son, Bob, of Ainsworth came to O'Neill last Sunday, and that evening,

THE GOVERNMENT AIMS TO TAKE OVER SCRAP

Scrap on the farm of James Jelenek near Alliance has been requisitioned by the War Production Board and is being moved in by a salvage company. Among the items to be removed were 20 automobiles, 20 gasoline tractors, 13 old combines, 2 old steam tractors and 130 rubber tires, the total weight being estimated at 317 tons. Just a little evidence that the government is going to follow up its several appeals for scrap by the force method on those who have so far failed to heed the calls.—Bassett Leader.

BRIEFLY STATED

Jack Gallagher and Bert Brennan went to Lincoln on Wednesday to spend Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Tom Brennan and family.
 Bob Parkins arrived home on Tuesday from Chicago, Ill., where he attends Loyola University, to spend the Thanksgiving vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Parkins.
 Jack Harty arrived home Tuesday from Chicago, Ill., where he attends Loyola University, to spend the Thanksgiving vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Harty.
 Mr. and Mrs. Perkins and son, Bob, of Ainsworth came to O'Neill last Sunday, and that evening,

THE GOVERNMENT AIMS TO TAKE OVER SCRAP

Scrap on the farm of James Jelenek near Alliance has been requisitioned by the War Production Board and is being moved in by a salvage company. Among the items to be removed were 20 automobiles, 20 gasoline tractors, 13 old combines, 2 old steam tractors and 130 rubber tires, the total weight being estimated at 317 tons. Just a little evidence that the government is going to follow up its several appeals for scrap by the force method on those who have so far failed to heed the calls.—Bassett Leader.

BRIEFLY STATED

Jack Gallagher and Bert Brennan went to Lincoln on Wednesday to spend Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Tom Brennan and family.
 Bob Parkins arrived home on Tuesday from Chicago, Ill., where he attends Loyola University, to spend the Thanksgiving vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Parkins.
 Jack Harty arrived home Tuesday from Chicago, Ill., where he attends Loyola University, to spend the Thanksgiving vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Harty.
 Mr. and Mrs. Perkins and son, Bob, of Ainsworth came to O'Neill last Sunday, and that evening,

THE GOVERNMENT AIMS TO TAKE OVER SCRAP

Scrap on the farm of James Jelenek near Alliance has been requisitioned by the War Production Board and is being moved in by a salvage company. Among the items to be removed were 20 automobiles, 20 gasoline tractors, 13 old combines, 2 old steam tractors and 130 rubber tires, the total weight being estimated at 317 tons. Just a little evidence that the government is going to follow up its several appeals for scrap by the force method on those who have so far failed to heed the calls.—Bassett Leader.

BRIEFLY STATED

Jack Gallagher and Bert Brennan went to Lincoln on Wednesday to spend Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Tom Brennan and family.
 Bob Parkins arrived home on Tuesday from Chicago, Ill., where he attends Loyola University, to spend the Thanksgiving vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Parkins.
 Jack Harty arrived home Tuesday from Chicago, Ill., where he attends Loyola University, to spend the Thanksgiving vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Harty.
 Mr. and Mrs. Perkins and son, Bob, of Ainsworth came to O'Neill last Sunday, and that evening,

Brantley Sturdevant is elected State Senator by a majority of 42. Glen Tomlinson came home last Saturday morning from Lincoln, where he has been working with a fence building crew on a federal road.
 A blanket of snow 16 inches deep fell over this section of the state Sunday night, containing 2.24 inches of moisture. Although the snow did not drift badly the roads were impassable for car traffic for several days.
 The Frontier, November 23, 1922.
 A son was born this morning to Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Biglin in this city.
 Word was received in this city of the death of William Lockard at his home in Denver, Colo. He was a resident of O'Neill for several years, being engaged in the jewelry business.
 The Frontier, November 30, 1922.
 Miss Bessie McLeod is visiting with friends in Lincoln this week. Charles Carroll, of Carrollton Council No. 701, Knight of Columbus, initiated a class of thirty-five into their order last Sunday at the Knights of Columbus hall in this city.
 The South Fork State Bank of Chambers was closed Wednesday of last week. It had a capital stock of $15,000 and carried deposits of $37,000.

Ten Years Ago

The Frontier, November 10, 1932.
 More than 7,000 votes were cast in this county last Tuesday, which resulted in a democratic landslide, not only in this county and state, but the nation at large.
 Herb Hammond, Ira Moss and M. H. Horiskey went up to Cherry county Wednesday, where they will try duck hunting for a few days.
 The Frontier, November 17, 1932.
 At the election Tuesday of last week Judge Dickson was re-elected district judge with a majority of 3,063 over Ely, of Ainsworth.
 At the conclusion of the memorial meeting at the district court room last Monday afternoon the lawyers present organized a bar association of the lawyers of the district. J. A. Donohoe of O'Neill was elected chairman and L. G. Nelson of Bassett was selected secretary-treasurer.
 On the invitation of Judge Dickson members of the bar of the Fifteenth Judicial District met in this city last Monday afternoon, the first day of the opening of the Holt county fall term of court and held memorial services for the three members of the Holt county bar that had passed away during the past year: M. F. Harrington, Lewis C. Chapman and Joseph H. Meredith, all of this city.
 The Frontier, November 24, 1932.
 Mr. and Mrs. Paul Beha of Lincoln visited at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Beha, in this city last Monday.
 F. J. Sexsmith was shot and killed at his home northeast of this city last Sunday morning. The men who did the killing were quickly traced and rounded up by local officers and were lodged in jail on Wednesday evening, with a written confession from one of them. They were Lloyd Hammond, 23, a young farmer living west of Bloomfield, and Frank Mackey, a half breed Indian, aged 50, of Niobrara.

Several Planes Circle O'Neill Tuesday Night

Several large planes were flying over the city between 8:30 and 11 o'clock last evening, causing many of our citizens to rush out and look into the heavens. Our guess is that they were from the Sioux City Air Base and the flyers were getting some experience in night flying.

THE GOVERNMENT AIMS TO TAKE OVER SCRAP

Scrap on the farm of James Jelenek near Alliance has been requisitioned by the War Production Board and is being moved in by a salvage company. Among the items to be removed were 20 automobiles, 20 gasoline tractors, 13 old combines, 2 old steam tractors and 130 rubber tires, the total weight being estimated at 317 tons. Just a little evidence that the government is going to follow up its several appeals for scrap by the force method on those who have so far failed to heed the calls.—Bassett Leader.

BRIEFLY STATED

Jack Gallagher and Bert Brennan went to Lincoln on Wednesday to spend Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Tom Brennan and family.
 Bob Parkins arrived home on Tuesday from Chicago, Ill., where he attends Loyola University, to spend the Thanksgiving vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Parkins.
 Jack Harty arrived home Tuesday from Chicago, Ill., where he attends Loyola University, to spend the Thanksgiving vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Harty.
 Mr. and Mrs. Perkins and son, Bob, of Ainsworth came to O'Neill last Sunday, and that evening,

THE GOVERNMENT AIMS TO TAKE OVER SCRAP

Scrap on the farm of James Jelenek near Alliance has been requisitioned by the War Production Board and is being moved in by a salvage company. Among the items to be removed were 20 automobiles, 20 gasoline tractors, 13 old combines, 2 old steam tractors and 130 rubber tires, the total weight being estimated at 317 tons. Just a little evidence that the government is going to follow up its several appeals for scrap by the force method on those who have so far failed to heed the calls.—Bassett Leader.

BRIEFLY STATED

Jack Gallagher and Bert Brennan went to Lincoln on Wednesday to spend Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Tom Brennan and family.
 Bob Parkins arrived home on Tuesday from Chicago, Ill., where he attends Loyola University, to spend the Thanksgiving vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Parkins.
 Jack Harty arrived home Tuesday from Chicago, Ill., where he attends Loyola University, to spend the Thanksgiving vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Harty.
 Mr. and Mrs. Perkins and son, Bob, of Ainsworth came to O'Neill last Sunday, and that evening,

THE GOVERNMENT AIMS TO TAKE OVER SCRAP

Scrap on the farm of James Jelenek near Alliance has been requisitioned by the War Production Board and is being moved in by a salvage company. Among the items to be removed were 20 automobiles, 20 gasoline tractors, 13 old combines, 2 old steam tractors and 130 rubber tires, the total weight being estimated at 317 tons. Just a little evidence that the government is going to follow up its several appeals for scrap by the force method on those who have so far failed to heed the calls.—Bassett Leader.

BRIEFLY STATED

Jack Gallagher and Bert Brennan went to Lincoln on Wednesday to spend Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Tom Brennan and family.
 Bob Parkins arrived home on Tuesday from Chicago, Ill., where he attends Loyola University, to spend the Thanksgiving vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Parkins.
 Jack Harty arrived home Tuesday from Chicago, Ill., where he attends Loyola University, to spend the Thanksgiving vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Harty.
 Mr. and Mrs. Perkins and son, Bob, of Ainsworth came to O'Neill last Sunday, and that evening,

THE GOVERNMENT AIMS TO TAKE OVER SCRAP

Scrap on the farm of James Jelenek near Alliance has been requisitioned by the War Production Board and is being moved in by a salvage company. Among the items to be removed were 20 automobiles, 20 gasoline tractors, 13 old combines, 2 old steam tractors and 130 rubber tires, the total weight being estimated at 317 tons. Just a little evidence that the government is going to follow up its several appeals for scrap by the force method on those who have so far failed to heed the calls.—Bassett Leader.

BRIEFLY STATED

Jack Gallagher and Bert Brennan went to Lincoln on Wednesday to spend Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Tom Brennan and family.
 Bob Parkins arrived home on Tuesday from Chicago, Ill., where he attends Loyola University, to spend the Thanksgiving vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Parkins.
 Jack Harty arrived home Tuesday from Chicago, Ill., where he attends Loyola University, to spend the Thanksgiving vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Harty.
 Mr. and Mrs. Perkins and son, Bob, of Ainsworth came to O'Neill last Sunday, and that evening,

THE GOVERNMENT AIMS TO TAKE OVER SCRAP

Scrap on the farm of James Jelenek near Alliance has been requisitioned by the War Production Board and is being moved in by a salvage company. Among the items to be removed were 20 automobiles, 20 gasoline tractors, 13 old combines, 2 old steam tractors and 130 rubber tires, the total weight being estimated at 317 tons. Just a little evidence that the government is going to follow up its several appeals for scrap by the force method on those who have so far failed to heed the calls.—Bassett Leader.

BRIEFLY STATED

Jack Gallagher and Bert Brennan went to Lincoln on Wednesday to spend Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Tom Brennan and family.
 Bob Parkins arrived home on Tuesday from Chicago, Ill., where he attends Loyola University, to spend the Thanksgiving vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Parkins.
 Jack Harty arrived home Tuesday from Chicago, Ill., where he attends Loyola University, to spend the Thanksgiving vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Harty.
 Mr. and Mrs. Perkins and son, Bob, of Ainsworth came to O'Neill last Sunday, and that evening,

THE GOVERNMENT AIMS TO TAKE OVER SCRAP

Scrap on the farm of James Jelenek near Alliance has been requisitioned by the War Production Board and is being moved in by a salvage company. Among the items to be removed were 20 automobiles, 20 gasoline tractors, 13 old combines, 2 old steam tractors and 130 rubber tires, the total weight being estimated at 317 tons. Just a little evidence that the government is going to follow up its several appeals for scrap by the force method on those who have so far failed to heed the calls.—Bassett Leader.

BRIEFLY STATED

Jack Gallagher and Bert Brennan went to Lincoln on Wednesday to spend Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Tom Brennan and family.
 Bob Parkins arrived home on Tuesday from Chicago, Ill., where he attends Loyola University, to spend the Thanksgiving vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Parkins.
 Jack Harty arrived home Tuesday from Chicago, Ill., where he attends Loyola University, to spend the Thanksgiving vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Harty.
 Mr. and Mrs. Perkins and son, Bob, of Ainsworth came to O'Neill last Sunday, and that evening,

THE GOVERNMENT AIMS TO TAKE OVER SCRAP

Scrap on the farm of James Jelenek near Alliance has been requisitioned by the War Production Board and is being moved in by a salvage company. Among the items to be removed were 20 automobiles, 20 gasoline tractors, 13 old combines, 2 old steam tractors and 130 rubber tires, the total weight being estimated at 317 tons. Just a little evidence that the government is going to follow up its several appeals for scrap by the force method on those who have so far failed to heed the calls.—Bassett Leader.

BRIEFLY STATED

Jack Gallagher and Bert Brennan went to Lincoln on Wednesday to spend Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Tom Brennan and family.
 Bob Parkins arrived home on Tuesday from Chicago, Ill., where he attends Loyola University, to spend the Thanksgiving vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Parkins.
 Jack