

Celebrities Join Up With Uncle Sam

Outdoors Their Dining Room in Aleutians

Alaskan scouts dine outdoors in season in the Aleutian Islands. "In season" means when it isn't raining there. For a warm current in the Pacific (we used to call it the Japan current) keeps snow and frost from the bleak islands, but it encourages rain—and how! Here one of the scouts passes a piece of cherry pie to his pal.

Jumping Chaplain

Lieut. Matthew J. Connolly, OSH, chaplain of the 308th parachute infantry, is shown putting on his chute, in Washington, D. C. He recently qualified as a jumping chaplain by making five parachute jumps. It would seem that the expression "ship-plot" has a double meaning in this particular case.

Army Dogs Serve as Messengers to Men at Front

Children's Hospital Closed to Save Fuel

With severe cuts in fuel rations of non-residential users in eastern states bringing supplies to about 45 per cent of normal, the Neponset children's hospital at Rockaway, N. Y., was emptied of its little patients so the hospital could be closed. Bedridden evacuees are shown being carried from the hospital.

'Victory in '43'

Adm. William F. Halsey predicts complete victory over the Axis in 1943. He warned the dictators, "We are just starting now." Of Tojo, he said: "You started something which will make you wish you had died when you were a baby." Admiral Halsey is shown above, in his new quarters in the South Pacific.

Private Wins $1,500 Air Medal Competition Somewhere in India

Private Walter Hancock of St. Louis submitted the winning design for the new air medal. Private Hancock entered the competition while he was yet a civilian. Word that his design won the competition came at the end of a day of KP at Camp Livingston, La. Picture shows Hancock, left, receiving $1,500 check from Col. W. M. Dixon, finance officer, U. S. army. Inset: Cast of the new air medal designed by Private Hancock.

Capt. James W. Snyder, U. S. army intelligence officer, who in civilian life was a historian, is shown in conversation with a veteran Indian guide. This picturesque native served in China during the Boxer rebellion. The ribbon decoration is for service with the late Lord Kitchener. He also served under Lord Roberts.

What Mermaids Will Wear Next Summer

Just to remind you that somewhere in the world the sun is shining, and that it'll be shining on you, too, some day, presented here is a preview of what the well undressed mermaids will be wearing on the beaches next summer. This preview took place at Los Angeles, where it is summer most of the time.

Defense Worker

Dorothy Graves, 19, a defense worker, participated in a ski meet at Bear Mountain, N. Y., with 24 of the country's best jumpers. She made leaps of 110 and 117 feet, reaching sixth place in the competition. Dorothy was the only girl competing.

The Home Town Boys Lend a Hand

Natives, who know New Guinea territory even better than the jungle-hardened Aussies and Americans, carry the wounded past a machine gun nest. Transporting the injured from the line of battle is merely one important function of these dark-skinned men and boys who act as porters, guides and carpenters.

Riding High

Personally we are of the opinion that Sergeant Baycura belongs in the air force. If he can make a motorcycle fly just think what he could do with an airplane! The sergeant is an instructor in the motorcycle school at Camp Lee, Va.

Yanks in Holy Land Visit Wailing Wall

Taken on a tour of the Holy Land by the hospitality committee of the Jewish agency for Palestine, these American soldiers are shown at the famous wailing wall in Jerusalem, the only existing relic of Solomon's temple. They are watching a bearded "chassid" (left) devoutly saying his prayers.

Pooch in Boots
