fifth of said real estate, or an interest therein, from said deceased. That the prayer of said petition is that the Court may find and determine the time of the death of Anna Burke, deceased; that she died intestate, a resident and inhabitant of Lincoln County, South Dakota; may find and determine who are her heirs, and fix their degree of kinship; may find and determine the right of descent of the real property belonging to said deceased; that further administration of this estate may be dispensed with; that there are no debts against said estate, and that the claims of all creditors are barred; that there is no inheritance tax, State or Federal, due from this estate, or any of the heirs thereof, and for such other and further relief as may be just and equitable.

That said matter is set for hearing before the County Court of Holt County, Nebraska, in the County Court Room in the Court House in the city of O'Neill, Holt County, Nebraska, on the 25th day of March, A. D., 1943, at the hour of ten o'clock A. M., and that if you fail to appear at said time and place to contest said petition, the Court may grant the prayer thereof.

Dated this 1st day of March, A. D., 1943.

It being the second meeting, the newly-elected officers presided. They went through their regular business and then adjourned the meeting and watched a free show on fishing.

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...
A lot of storekeepers in town are worrying about being able to get help these days, Judge Men are mighty scarce and getting more so all the time. "I know. Even the big companies are having quite a job getting them. Yep, and they need 'em too. Take the beverage distilling companies for example... they need a lot of manpower. I though they're not making whiskey any more, they're doing a 24-hour-a-day job of turning out alcohol for gun powder and synthetic rubber for the government. "Makes me think back to the days before repeal when a powerful number of people were making liquor, too... only they were a bunch of law-flouting criminals doing it behind closed doors. And the government wasn't collecting a billion dollar excise tax either. Ever stop to wonder where the government could get all its war alcohol today if it weren't for the beverage distillers?"
