NOTICE

46-1 duty. Barber.

Spuds for the "k.p."

ON CHICAGO'S near southwest side there's a place that is as busy as a bargain basement on sale day. It is "North Western's" Wood Street Terminal Potato Yard.

The area might well be called the distributing center for the "Four F's"-Fighting Foods for Fighting Forces. Not only is it the world's largest potato yard; it is also a depot for other vegetables-onions, cabbages, rutabagas. But their stay is brief. America and her uniformed boys must be fed-and soon a generous share of these foods is transferred to camps to become wholesome, tasty "chow."

America's fighting forces are the best fed in the world. "North Western's" job, as well as that of all other American railroads, is to help keep them so. Trainloads of food follow them wherever they go-a swift, uninterrupted movement of meats, fruits, vegetables and dairy products. Even the "hot dogs" that made the hazardous trip to the African Front might well have begun the first leg of their journey on a "North Western" train.

The transportation of food is only one of "North Western's" war jobs. Moving men is another; hauling weapons and the materials from which they are made, still another. We are eager and proud to serve. But the extent to which we can do our job depends largely on our ability to obtain an adequate supply of materials to keep our equipment in perfect condition.

Uncle Sam always comes first. When he commands, we obey.

"I've been meanin' to ask you for the last couple of weeks, Judge, what you think of this prohibition talk that keeps croppin' up every so often."

"I've heard some of it too, Henry, and I feel like this about it...

"It comes from a comparatively small group of reformers...the same type that plunged us into prohibition during the last war. And, as we all remember, into nearly

14 years of the worst crime and gangsterism

this country has ever known. Everybody had all the liquor they wanted only it came from bootleggers at exorbitant prices and the government was deprived of millions and millions of dollars in taxes.

"It seems to me, as I told my Congressman down in Washington last week, that we've got all we can do here at home to help win this war without wasting time arguing about things we know, from sad experience, won't work."
