THE DAYS OF LONG AGO

Sixty Years Ago
Holt Co. Banner, May 1, 1883. County officers: Judge, G. M. Cleveland; Clerk, Sanford Parker; Treasurer, D. L. Darr; Sheriff, Barnabas Welton; Superintendent of Schools, C. H. Wixon; Coroner, J. R. Smith; Surveyor, John G. Fritz; County Commissioners: W. C. Townsend, chairman, Ford; Frank Bitney, Atkinson; Geo. T. Bastedo, Cleveland. The original O'Neill's Irish American Colony settled in this locality nine years ago this spring. If General O'Neill could see it now (and perhaps he can) he no doubt would feel highly gratified at the advancement made. Sanford Parker resigned his position as county clerk today and M. D. Long, his deputy, was appointed to fill the vacancy. Holt Co. Banner, May 8, 1883. Billy Reed, the murderer of Sheriff Barney Kearns, is now reported under arrest in the upper country for the murder of another man. We hear the cow boys have deserted him, as he probably deserves. E. F. Gallagher, a cousin of Frank Campbell, and Mr. Hogan, of Darlington, Wis., have been in O'Neill the past week and are looking up a business location. They are very pleasant gentlemen and we would be pleased to have them locate here.

Fifty-Five Years Ago
The Frontier, May 3, 1888. Will Malloy and Miss Maggie Gaffney, both of Emmet, were married this morning in the Catholic church by Rev. M. F. Cassidy. The Frontier, May 10, 1888. Charlie McHugh, of the Tribune, was out to Shamrock Friday last making improvements on his claim. C. S. Murphy, an attorney of Red Oak, Iowa, has been in O'Neill and the county several days and thinks some of locating permanently. The body of D. B. Lukins, who was lost in the January blizzard, was found last Friday afternoon near Bartlett, Wheeler county, where it has lain since that eventful and long-to-be remembered blizzard. Our readers will recollect that Mr. Lukins started to go to the house from the barn during the storm and had never been seen since.

Fifty Years Ago
The Frontier, May 4, 1893. At the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Halloran, one mile west of Inman, on Monday evening, May 1, 1893, took place the marriage of Harry Coffin of Burwell and Miss Mary Halloran of Inman. The young couple will make their home in Burwell, where the groom is engaged in the lumber business. Died, at her home in this city on Monday evening, May 3, 1893, Mrs. Margaret Kearns, aged 59 years and four months. She is survived by her husband and five children. The Frontier, May 11, 1893. Thomas Kearns left this morning for his home at Park City, Utah. He was accompanied by his sister, Miss Maggie, who will visit him this summer. Senator Mullen and Representatives Smith and Henry addressed a rather small contingent of Alliance devotees at the court house last Saturday.

Forty Years Ago
The Frontier, May 7, 1903. Thomas McNicholas, son of Mrs. J. J. McNicholas of this city, died at Victor, Colorado, on May 4, after an operation for the removal of an abscess of the lung. The remains were brought to this city for burial and the funeral will be held tomorrow morning. The Frontier, May 14, 1903. The new passenger on the Northwestern arrived on schedule time—2:50 p. m.—Monday and the people of O'Neill now feel as if they lived several miles nearer Omaha, being able to get their morning papers at 3:00 p. m., the day of publication instead of the day after as heretofore.

Thirty Years Ago
The Frontier, May 1, 1913. Robert Magirl was one of the graduates from the Creighton Medical college the first of the week. Parnell Golden has commenced the erection of a commodious bungalow on the corner of Clay and Sixth streets. The building will be 50x36 feet. Judge and Mrs. Dickson are rejoicing over the arrival of a daughter at their home Monday evening. The Frontier, May 8, 1913. P. J. Biglin returned last Saturday from Lincoln, where he had been for the past week receiving instructions as to his duties as pure food and oil inspector for this district. The splendid rains last week has placed the ground in splendid condition for spring work. The Golden Hotel will be formerly opened to the public next Saturday night with a banquet. Invitations have been extended to the Commercial Clubs of the several towns of the county and to the Clubs of Omaha, Norfolk, Lincoln and Sioux City and it is expected that a number of the representative business men from these cities will be here for the banquet.

Ben Grady Appointed O'Neill City Clerk

The city council held their first meeting for the new fiscal year on Wednesday evening, the meeting having been postponed from Tuesday to Wednesday evening on account of the exercises at the school auditorium Tuesday evening. C. W. Porter, who has been city clerk for several years, tendered his resignation at this meeting and Bennett Grady was appointed by the Mayor and confirmed by the council as his successor. Mr. Porter was appointed a deputy collector by the Omaha office a couple of months ago, and as that position takes up practically all his time, he was forced to resign as city clerk. The mayor made the following appointments, all of whom are the present officials of the city, and they were all confirmed by the council: Chief of Police, Chester Calkins; Assistant Chief, Bert Peterson; Engineer at Pump Station, Jess Scofield; Medical Advisor, Dr. L. A. Carter; Water Collector, Mattie Soukup; Street Maintenance, Robert Cook; City Dump Man, Roy Lowery. The following committees were appointed for the ensuing year and were also confirmed by the council:

Streets and alleys: Rakowski, Wallace, Melvin.
Lights: Melvin, Yantzi, Bosn.
Water: Johnson, Yantzi, Rakowski.
Sewer: Bosn, Wallace, Melvin.
Walks and crossings: Wallace, Melvin, Yantzi.
Parks and grounds: Yantzi, Johnson, Rakowski.
Auditing: Johnson, Rakowski, Melvin.

MOTHER!

This Wartime Mother's Day, May 9, will find many homes in which "son" is absent.

Wherever he is he will remember the day in some fashion—material or otherwise. Many of these mothers are now in the fight themselves, taken war time jobs at home in defense plants... riveting... welding... selling... teaching... Red Cross work... farming... anything that will bring Victory quicker and the boys home.

Let us fathers, daughters, young sons, who are left in the home remember mother this Mother's Day with unusual thoughtfulness. She may not wear her heart on her sleeve, but in secret she will gloat over whatever little remembrance may be given because of the affection and regard that motivated the gift.

At Brown-McDonald's you will find a great many practical and thrift-priced things for person and home, from a pair of rayon stockings to a warm blanket that will meet the elasticity of any budget. Why not choose something now?

War Takes 96¢ Of Each Dollar

Out of every $18.75 that is invested in a War Bond, $18 goes into guns, planes, tanks, ships and other military equipment. The 75 cents goes for ordinary governmental expenditures. Out of every dollar 96 cents goes toward the war effort and 4 cents goes for Government "business as usual."
The same ratio applies to all other securities the Government has offered investors in the Second War Loan campaign for 13 billion dollars.
