(First publication July 29, 1943) ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE.

In the District Court of Holt County, Nebraska.

In the Matter of the Application of Julius D. Cronin, Administrator with the Will Annexed of the Estate of Gilbert Clay Rominger, Deceased, for license to sell the following described real property, to-wit:

Lot Four; Southwest Quarter of the Northwest Quarter and West Half of the Southwest Quarter, all in Section

Five, Township Twenty-five, North, Range Fourteen; East Half of the Southeast Quarter of Section Thirty-one; South Half of the Southwest Quarter; East Half of the Northwest Quarter; North-east Quarter of the Southwest Quarter and the Northwest Quarter of the Northwest Quarter, all in Section Thirty-two, all in Township Twenty-six, North, Range Fourteen, all in Holt County, Nebraska, for the purpose of paying the debts owing by said deceased and said estate and for the further purpose of paying the bequest to Vernon R. Rominger contained in Paragraph Fourth of the Last Will and Testament of the said Gilbert Clay Rominger, Deceased, and it appearing to the Court from the petition that Gilbert Clay Rominger at the time of his death was a resident of Rio Grande County, Colorado; that his Last Will and Testament was admitted to probate in Rio Grande County, Colorado, and also in Holt County, Nebraska; that the estate of said deceased in Rio Grande County, Colorado, real and personal, is insufficient to pay the debts filed and allowed in his said estate in Colorado and the cost and expense of administering said estate in Colorado; that there is no personal estate in Nebraska and none in the hands of the administrator with the will annexed of this estate in Nebraska excepting the sum of $81.34 obtained from current assets and that there is not sufficient personal estate in the hands of the administrator with the will annexed in Rio Grande County, Colorado, or the administrator with the will annexed in Nebraska or in existence to pay the debts owing by said deceased and said estate and the expense of administering said estate in Colorado and in Nebraska; that there are no personal assets in existence with which to pay the bequest to Vernon R. Rominger under Paragraph Fourth of the Last Will and Testament of Gilbert Clay Rominger, Deceased. That it is necessary to sell the real estate heretofore described for the purpose of paying the debts and the expenses filed and allowed against this said estate in Colorado and in Nebraska and the cost of administration in Nebraska and this proceeding and for the further purpose of paying the bequest to Vernon R. Rominger, as heretofore set out.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED BY THE COURT that all persons interested in this said estate appear before the District Court of Holt County, Nebraska on the 30th day of August, A. D., 1943 at ten o'clock A. M., to show cause why license should not be granted to Julius D. Cronin, administrator with the will annexed of the Estate of Gilbert Clay Rominger, Deceased, to sell the real estate above described, to pay such debts and expenses and the legacy to Vernon R. Rominger.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that notice of the time and place of such hearing be given by publishing a copy of this order for three successive weeks in The Frontier, a weekly newspaper printed, published and of general circulation in Holt County, Nebraska.

BY THE COURT:
D. R. MOUNTS, (12-3) District Judge.

Tomorrow YOU may be the "Other Fellow"

Farm line telephone service is best for all when everyone shares the line fairly with the other fellow.

Food producers need to save all the time they can these busy days. Telephone calls that save trips, also save time, tires and gasoline.

Every farm line user can help in these ways:

1. Keep Conversations Brief — so that your line will be available for farm business when needed.
2. Try Not to Make Unnecessary Calls — so that no one will have to wait long to make important calls.
3. Keep Receiver on Hook When Not in Use — so that the line is not busy unnecessarily — and so that those telephoning can hear well.
