

"This War Will Become Bigger and Tougher . . . During the Long Months to Come"

Franklin D. Roosevelt

Italy has fallen—but the war is not over and you know it! Think of Berlin and Tokyo—think of the men dying at this moment.

Can we, you and I, afford to let them down—to turn their battlefront victory into a home-front defeat? Let's buy more War Bonds than ever . . . let's back up their victory with ours—the success of the 3rd War Loan!

There are battles coming—tough, bloody, hard-to-win battles—before this war is over. And it's the last battle that counts. We've got to back up our fighting men . . . we've got to buy War Bonds with every dollar, every dime we can scrape up.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT said it, as Commander-in-Chief:

"I say that we Americans will not be satisfied to send our troops into the fire of the enemy with equipment only equal to that of the enemy. We are determined to provide our troops with overpowering superiority of quality and quantity of arms and armaments..."

Our fighting men will do their job—it's up to you, personally, to keep their victories safe by buying War Bonds NOW with every dollar you can—not with what you'd ordinarily save or invest, but more—every bit more you can manage.

INMAN ITEMS

The W. S. C. S. held their first dinner of the fall season on Thursday of last week. A large crowd was present and enjoyed the chicken dinner.

A reception, in honor of Rev. Maxcy, was held at the Methodist church Thursday evening of last week. A large crowd was in attendance to welcome him back for his eighth year here. Pep songs led by Harvey Tompkins started off the evening. Ira Watson welcomed Mr. Maxcy with a purse of money. Mr. Maxcy responded in his usual witty way, telling the people he was glad to be back with his friends of this community. The teachers of the Inman school were introduced and welcomed. After an hour spent in visiting, the crowd adjourned to the Aid parlors where lunch was served.

On Wednesday evening of last week, at the I. O. O. F. hall, the losers in a recent contest in the Rebekah lodge entertained the winners at a lovely three course dinner. Tables formed a V. Places were laid for thirty-eight. The table decorations were carried out in a patriotic way, with flags and stars. The center pieces represented water, with ships sailing. Mrs. Marjorie Kelly was toastmistress. The welcome was given by Mrs. Maurine Smith, leader of the losing side; the response by Miss Mildred Keyes, leader of the winners. The theme of the toasts was Victory.

V—Victims, Ruth Hansen.
I—Interest, Mildred Coventry.
C—Cooperation, Jessie Smith.
T—Truth, Wilametta Kelly.
O—Order, G. E. Moor.
R—Rebekah, Carrie McMahn.
Y—Yarns, Ada Clark.

The evening was greatly enjoyed by all present.
