Many eastern livestock feeders are coming to this market and stocking their feedlots. All indications point to early buying, since rough feed is plentiful in many sections of the cornbelt region. If you have livestock to sell, RIGHT NOW looks like a good time to market them. Bring them to this market and receive top returns.

An Open Letter To Boys Back Home

I'm writing this short letter, And every word is true. Don't look away, draft dodgers, For it is addressed to you. You feel at ease and glory, Being back in the old home town, You cook up some pitiful stories, So the draft board turns you down. You never think of real men, Who leave there day by day, You just think of their friends, To date while we are away. You sit at home and read your paper, Yes, jump up and say "We will win," But where do you get the "we stuff"? This war will be won by men. Just what do you think, draft dodgers, That this nation of ours would do, If all the men were slackers, And afraid to die, like you. Well, I guess that is all, slackers, I suppose your face is red, America is no place for your kind, I mean every word I say. So in closing this letter, you dodgers, Just remember what I say, Stay away from our girl friends, For we'll be back some day. For I'll be back some day.

—Pfc. Robert J. Keller, India.

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

On Sunday morning as you sit in church and see the vacant places in the choir and wonder where the war has taken the young people from your community you may feel certain that they are attending divine services if circumstance permits.

Chaplains and choral leaders are found on the larger ships and even abroad in the Army centers. Millions of hymns have been distributed to the men and women of all services and you may rest assured that a portion of the savings you are placing into War Bonds is used for their spiritual welfare.
