Peter-Buckandahl

Monsignor McNamara officiated at a very pretty fall wedding which took place Monday, November 22, at 9:00 o'clock a. m., at St. Patrick's church in O'Neill, in the presence of a few of the relatives and close friends of Miss Anna Peter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Peter of O'Neill, and Wm. H. Buckandahl of Stanton.

The Misses Mary Ann and Martha Mae Janousek and Miss Josephine Minarik went to Omaha last Friday for a few days' visit with friends. They returned home Monday morning.

O'Neill Couple Joined In Holy Wedding Wednesday

Miss Dorothy Ryan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Ryan of this city, became the bride of Second Lieutenant George Hammond, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Hammond, also of this city, at a ceremony in St. Patrick's church at eight o'clock a. m. on November 24th.

The groom, who wore his Army uniform, was attended by Robert Parkins, a friend of the young couple. Immediately following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the M & M Cafe to relatives and immediate friends of the happy couple.

Boys Appreciate The Cigarettes Sent Them

The following two letters were received by the local American Legion post from two O'Neill boys who are in the service and who had received their Christmas cartons of cigarettes that were sent by the Legion Post from the money donated by our citizens in the glass bottles that were in different business establishments the past four or five months.

Dear Friends: I received your very welcome carton of Chesterfields yesterday and I must say they will come in very handy. I want to commend your organization and every member of the American Legion for what they are doing.

Dear Friends: I received your most welcome Christmas gift, which is a carton of cigarettes. I do think that the folks back home can't send anything to us boys over here any better than cigarettes. I really appreciate them and thank you folks for thinking of me.

A Worth While Donation To A Worthy Cause

O'Neill is fortunate in having two of the finest school systems in the state, the O'Neill Public School and St. Mary's Academy. These fine schools make this city a splendid educational center for this part of Nebraska.

The public school is supported by the taxpayers of O'Neill. St. Mary's Academy has functioned for many years without a cent of tax funds. Were it not for the Academy, the tax burden for school purposes in O'Neill would be almost doubled.

St. Mary's Cardinals Win Last Game

St. Mary's Cardinals got into motion again as they rolled over Lynch 48 to 14. Clark scored the first points in the first play after the kick-off. Two plays later, Kelly scored on an end run.

This office received a letter from John Wrede, for years a prominent business man and resident of the county, but who went west a few months ago to make his home. He says they are now well located near Vancouver, Washington.

Miss Margaret Jordan returned last Sunday from Butte, where she had been visiting her parents and other relatives and friends. Her brother, Seaman 2-c Warren Jordan, U. S. C. G., who is stationed at Vineyard Haven, Mass., was home on furlough.

BREEZES FROM THE SOUTHWEST

By Romaine Saunders Atkinson, Nebr., Star Rt. No. 5

The lasting pleasures of life are found in loyalty to duty and in doing good. Drinking water neither makes a man sick, nor in debt nor his wife a widow, observed a notable gentleman. He might have added that water is also good for dirty faces.

Unionists continue to demand more pay, the alibi being "increased living costs." Whatever increases in living costs there are can be traced to increased costs of production, mostly accounted for in the higher wages. Many citizens are making the sacrifices the times call for with no thought of a "strike" for increased income and are doing very well at it.

A Kansas paper gives this out as a true story: An Atchison woman will sue for divorce. She will allege terrible, terrible cruelty. The first time she consulted her attorney he asked: "Do you think your husband will fight the case?"

Thanksgiving, it finds Yankee-land with a lot to complain about, real and fancied—a people of freedom's heritage unconquered to life under the restrictions of a multitude of high behests, brought upon them because of the tragedy and ruin abroad in the world. The silent suffering in desolated homes to which a brief message concerning a son, lost in action has come.

"What shall we say of sorrow's hours, Of hunger and denial, Of tears and loneliness and loss, Of long and bitter trial? Oh, in the darkness have not we Seen new, resplendent stars? Have we not learned some song of faith Within our prison bars?"

Amid the thorns along life's pathway there has been abundant bloom of roses. The song of birds, the color and life and human contacts assuage the harsher hours of life. A little boy was crying with unrestrained abandon as a motherly matron in passing his home asked him what was the matter. "I lost my tin whistle."

"That fields have yielded ample store Of fruit and wheat and corn. That nights of restful blessedness Have followed each new morn; That flowers have blossomed by the paths That thread our working days, That love has filled us with delight! We offer heartfelt praise."

The human touch, the art and music, the material things, the fruit and wheat and corn—is that all our Thanksgiving means?

"Not only for the earth's rich gifts, Strewn thick along our way, Her looks of constant loveliness, We thank our God today; But for the spirit's subtle growth, The higher, better part, The treasures gathered in the soul— The harvest of the heart."

Most of the old guard that fought like demons, spewed venom and kept alive political turmoil in the county have faded from the picture. Was a county

Gallagher, Holt county chairman of the War Fund Drive.

The Flag Salute: "I pledge allegiance to my flag and the republic for which it stands; one nation — invincible with liberty and justice for all." That is the thing members of a militant church group refuse to subscribe to. But they will go into the majestic chamber of the highest court in the land, where floats the starry emblem of liberty and justice, to secure their rights.

This comes out of the canebreaks of Alabama via Congressman Sam Hobbs: One of the best Negro farmers of Hale county came to the owner of the plantation to get his "advances" agreed on for the next year. The owner said: "Why, Charlie, we just had our settlement for this year two weeks ago. You paid your account in full and had $700 left, which you said you were going to put back in the bank. Why borrow money to run on next year when you have your home, mules, cows, chickens, meat and everything else you need, and more money already than you could possibly need to finance your operations?"

National Collection Of Discarded Clothing And Rags Nov. 22 To Dec. 4

Herbert J. Faust, director of the salvage division of the War Production Board, in announcing the drive for the collection of discarded clothing and rags, said: "The need for clothing to aid in the rehabilitation of people in the liberated countries abroad and for relief purposes here at home had made this drive necessary. In addition rags are desperately needed by our armed forces and industry for wiping purposes and other essential uses."

"Many of our textile mills that would normally produce new clothing materials are now engaged in weaving cloth for war. While there is no shortage here at home, our manufacturing facilities are not great enough to make all the new clothing needed this winter in the occupied and liberated countries, therefore, we are attempting in this two-week period to get enough discarded clothing to do the job."

"A number of American associations for domestic and foreign relief, charities, churches, and others have collected and prepared for reuse all types of discarded clothing. Waste collectors and old clothes dealers have bought rags and old clothes for a number of years. This collection is not an attempt to ignore the normal and permanent business of these dealers and associations. It simply means a more intensified effort to get old clothes and rags than would be collected through normal activities."

"Any clothing which the owner knows will be used now or in the immediate future is not wanted. Discarded clothing only is wanted—clothing the owner no longer intends to wear. All types are needed for men, women, boys, girls, and infants. And any unwearable clothing which can be reduced to rags is wanted. Donors are requested to see that woollen garments are brushed and cotton garments and rags are clean. Mending is not required. Shoes are not wanted, nor rubbers, rubber boots, overshoes, galoshes, slippers, leather leggings, leather gloves, hats, caps, neckties, collars, garters, garter belts, suspenders, belts, girdles, corsets, brassieres, veils, spats, rubber coats, diapers and masquerade costumes."

"Churches of all denominations will assist in the drive. Many of them will open their doors as collection depots, others will aid established groups. Complete details of collections for your area will be announced by your local salvage committee, who is in charge of the program. Ten per cent of the amount collected, if needed, will be held for relief work in that area. This is another opportunity for America to do this humanitarian work necessary for relief and rehabilitation purposes at home and abroad."

BONDS OVER AMERICA * * * Chinatown Deep within San Francisco's Chinatown lies St. Mary's Park, a mere speck on the city map, but it is here that a new landmark greets the eye of the visitor. It is an heroic statue of Dr. Sun-Yat-Sen, first president of China. Buy an Extra $100 Bond in the 3rd War Loan Years ago the French erected a statue to Dr. Benjamin Franklin, economist, scientist, humanitarian. One of the first acts of the Nazi conquerors of France was to remove this memorial to this American statesman.
