To Our Friends and Associates:

We take this opportunity to thank all of our patrons who have helped us during the past three years to render to this community what we believe has been a worth-while service.

With your cooperation, the business of the O'Neill Livestock Commission Company has grown steadily during the years of our management and now it is one of the widely known, well-established livestock auctions in Nebraska.

Our good will goes with the business, and our sincere support to the business we helped to build remains firmly behind it.
