O'Neill, Aug. 13, 1928, 1 p. m.

Board met pursuant to adjournment.

All members present. Board called to order by the Chairman.

Mr. Chairman: Whereas, on the 1st day of August, 1928, this Board, by resolution declared that the public good required immediate action to repair and replace two bridges and that an emergency existed with regard thereto, and

Whereas, said resolution, as passed, was published in The Frontier in its issue of August 2nd, 1928, and no objection, remonstrance or complaint of any kind has been made regarding said resolution or the action proposed to the taken

Whereas, Holt County does not have a contract with any one providing for the repair or construction of bridges, and

Whereas, these said bridges are both on the line dividing Holt and Knox counties and the expense of their repair is joint liability of such counties,

Therefore, I move you that the Chairman of the Holt County Board of Supervisors be authorized and instructed, for and on behalf of the County of Holt to enter into a contract jointly with Knox County, Nebraska, with some responsible person or firm for the repair of said bridges, at a cost not to exceed the last yearly bid of Holt County by the Western Bridge and Construction Company and with the proviso that such person or firm shall execute a bond jointly to Holt and Knox Counties conditioned that he or they shall repair or construct such bridges promptly, and in a (Concluded next week)
