CELIA NEWS.
 Wednesday evening young Delbert Scott was driving along the road north of the home, when all at once the Ford, which Mr. Scott has converted into a light truck, made a leap for the ditch turning completely over. Delbert landing on his head in the ditch, luckily it was narrow, the sides of the ditch holding the truck up off from him, giving him a chance to crawl out. The Ford was smashed up pretty bad, but Delbert escaped with only a small scratch.

 Peter Judge has driven and worn out two Fords but evidently wanted a car of a different make and is now driving a Dodge.
 Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Scott are enjoying a visit from Mrs. Scott's parents and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert from Rushmore, Iowa. They drove in Saturday evening and will stay a few days.
 Nearly every cornfield has a binder in it making winter feed of what is left from heat and hail.
 The third and tenth of this month were days of triumph for a good many young ladies who have worked hard for several years with the one goal in view and finally reached, that of becoming a public school teacher. Two of these earnest young ladies have each a school in this neighborhood; Miss Dorothy Vahle, who takes the place and title of the east school-ma'am, teaching the McKathnie school, and Miss Alpha E. Johnson, who teaches the Hendrick's school.
 About three inches of rain fell in this part of the world Tuesday evening, accompanied by a wind that had all the ear marks of a tornado.
 This community has been very fortunate lately. It has had three showers recently. One rain shower and two of far greater importance, which for lack of a better name we must call Stork showers, and it looks very appropriate too, although it did not rain storks, but the welcome old bird
