

THE FRONTIER.

VOLUME XLIX.

O'NEILL, NEBRASKA, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 18, 1928.

NO. 21.

Honorable J.A. Burnquist Former Governor of Minnesota

Will address the voters of this vicinity on the political issues of the day from a republican viewpoint at

8:00 P. M. at K. C. Opera House
O'Neill, Nebraska
Wednesday, October 24

A son was born last Sunday to Mr. and Mrs. James Fleming, who reside about three miles north of O'Neill.

Joe Welch, of Emmet, was among the buyers at the Poland China sale of A. H. Dederman, Norfolk, on Monday.

A wash-out near Jackson, Nebraska, caused the Burlington to discontinue their trains Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mrs. E. D. Henry entertained ten girl friends of her daughter, Miss Elizabeth, Tuesday, at a six o'clock dinner, in honor of her birthday anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Campbell went to Omaha last Monday where they will visit friends. Mr. Campbell attended the Bankers convention Wednesday and Thursday.

County Attorney Julius D. Cronin returned home Monday morning from San Antonio, Texas, where he was in attendance at the national American Legion convention.

The Ladies Guild of the Presbyterian church will hold a rummage sale, Friday and Saturday, November 2nd and 3rd, in the lobby of the Western hotel. Anyone having anything to donate please bring or call Mrs. C. J. Malone or Mrs. J. H. Wise.

Bess Gearhart Morrison, reader, entertained a fair sized audience at the K. C. opera house Tuesday evening under the auspices of the O'Neill Woman's club. Mrs. Morrison is no stranger to O'Neill people as she has appeared here several times as an entertainer.

Mrs. Jennie Devine and son, Bert, of Red Oak, Iowa; Mrs. Mary M. Pickford, of Ft. Madison, Iowa; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Klingler visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Klingler residing northwest of O'Neill, last Sunday.

Wm. Crippen returned home from Mason City, Iowa, Wednesday evening, for a visit with his wife and little daughter. He expects to return to Mason City the last of this week. Mr. Crippen is employed with Hi. Nightengale in road work.

Mrs. Alice Moyer-Wing spoke of the national issues as presented by the republican party, at the K. C. opera house, Tuesday evening, to a wellfilled house. Mrs. Wing is a forceful speaker and held the attention of her audience throughout her address.

The Interstate Power Company, of Dubuque, Iowa, have purchased three Ford roadsters from J. B. Mellor of this city, that will be used by their district patrolmen in this division, R. A. Cameron, Bonesteel, South Dakota; W. F. Keen, Hartington; and Chas. Hampal, Gregory, South Dakota.

The Burlington Railroad sure scored a hit by putting in the low week-end rates, tickets on sale every Saturday and Sunday with return limit of following Monday night. L. E. Downey, Burlington Agent states they are proving very attractive.

The Frontier gave two one-year subscriptions as special premiums at the South Fork fair last month. Harry Ressel, of Chambers, received one of the premiums on best Angus bull over one year old. Thos. E. Alderson, also of Chambers, received the other premium for the best Shorthorn bull. Mr. Ressel has been a reader of The Frontier for a number of years; Mr. Alderson will receive the first issue of The Frontier this week.

Francis Bazelman and Frank Clements have opened a garage in the building north of the Bazelman lumber yard that will be known as the Ideal Garage. Mr. Clements is an excellent mechanic; he has been employed as shop foreman in the Meridian Garage at Yankton, South Dakota, for the past year; Previous to that time he was employed in the Stein garage in this city for two years where he gave satisfaction. The boys have an announcement in this issue.

The following officers were elected for the coming year at the regular meeting of the O'Neill Gun Club Tuesday evening: Forest Smith, president; L. K. Hough, vice-president; Roy Warner, secretary-treasurer; A. N. Gunn, field captain. The club is arranging for several shoots that will be held beginning next month. The O'Neill Gun Club has been attracting considerable attention over the eastern part of the state as a result of the records made at the meet held in Norfolk last spring when the O'Neill boys carried away a large per cent of the prizes.

John Miskimins returned home Sunday evening from the western part of the state where he was called by the death of his father, Robert M. Miskimins, who passed away following a two days illness, on October 9th, at his home forty-five miles southwest of Scotts Bluffs, Nebraska, where he has resided for many years. Funeral services were held in Pleasant Valley and burial was made in the Pleasant Valley cemetery. The deceased was ninety-five years, eleven months and thirteen days old at the time of his death. He leaves five sons and three daughters, six of whom were present at the funeral.

Ross E. Harris Food Market

Phone 47 O'Neill, Nebr.

"Hot Shots"

For the Week Ending
October 20, 1928

"SUNSHINE GRAHAMS"— The New Process Graham Cracker, 2 pounds Caddy	37c	"JUST RECEIVED— Our first shipment of Sutter's Cottage Cheese. That new fancy cheese with pure, sweet separated cream added. Try a pound with your next order	25c	COUNTRY GENTLEMAN Corn, 2 cans	25c
GENUINE HOSPITAL Toilet Tissue 3-1000 sheet Rolls	33c	Have you tried Kipperd Snacks. Fillet of Kipperd Herring, just out and surely fine. try a can. This week for a dime	10c	FANCY PEACHES in Syrup. Per can	23c
GOLD DUST— 6 small packages	25c	CALUMET BAKING Powder, pound can	29c	PRESERVES, Assorted Flavors in 5-Pound Pail, at	69c
STAR NAPTHA— Large Size	23c	TEENE WEENE Peanut Butter, The Very Finest	23c	LIFE BUOY—That Medicated Soap, 2 Bars	25c
COOKIES—FANCY, 2 pounds assorted	43c

We don't keep the Best Meat in Town--We Sell It!

LOCAL NEWS.

The Frontier expects to start tomorrow to print the ballots for the coming election.

Mrs. Catherine Smith has moved to her old home one block south of the Presbyterian church.

We learn that George Agnes is recovering nicely from a siege of the flu and blood poisoning.

The Ladies Guild of the Presbyterian church will meet with Mrs. Elmer Surber, on Thursday, October 25th.

An 8 1/2 pound son arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Sanders Tuesday evening, at their home eighteen miles northeast of O'Neill.

Miss Amelia Gains entertained the girls of her neighborhood at a theatre party last Saturday afternoon. The occasion was the celebration of her birthday anniversary.

Cars Washed and Greased

OR REPAIRED
AT A LOW PRICE

WE HAVE OPENED A REPAIR SHOP IN THE GARAGE BUILDING JUST NORTH OF THE BAZELMAN LUMBER COMPANY IN O'NEILL AND DESIRE A SHARE OF YOUR PATRONAGE.

ALL WORK FULLY GUARANTEED. PRICES ARE VERY REASONABLE.

Ideal Garage

BAZELMAN & CLEMENTS

As was announced last week the famous trio

Hilger Sisters

will appear in O'Neill and give an artistic program in the Auditorium St. Mary's

Academy

Thursday, Oct. 25

Admission 50c. Time—8:15 p. m.

THE FRONTIER WILL HOLD OPEN HOUSE NIGHT OF ELECTION

As has been the custom of The Frontier in years past the office will remain open all night for the purpose of receiving election returns and will be pleased to have all of our friends meet with us and enjoy the evening listening to the returns from over the country.

We have arranged with A. E. Bowen to install an electric radio. The National Broadcasting Company will broadcast the returns from all parts of the country including the state and local returns.

We wish to ask the judges and clerks of the various election boards in the town and rural districts to phone in the returns; we will arrange to have the connecting switches on duty so that the message may come to us. The election boards are authorized to reverse the call when sending in the returns.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Plank, of Spearfish, South Dakota, who were visiting Mrs. Plank's mother, Mrs. Della Shaw, and sister, Mrs. D. H. Clauson, returned to their home Monday afternoon.

We understand that a gentleman by the name of Mulligan suffered a badly burned foot when a car he was driving turned over west of Stuart Wednesday, and burned. Mr. Mulligan is a traveling salesman.

B. T. Winchell, accompanied by Elmer Bowen, Harry Bowen and Ben Wayman drove to Lincoln Monday where they represented the I. O. O. F. lodge at the grand lodge of the order. Their car left the road west of Columbus on the homeward trip but did not turn over; Elmer Bowen received a severe cut on an elbow and other members of the party were more or less bruised.

The American Legion have contracted with the famous Hugo Players, a stock company, to play at the K. C. Hall, the latest in stock shows, commencing Friday, October 26th and each Friday evening throughout the fall and winter. Change of show each week. Admission 50 and 25c. With each paid admission a lady free at opening performance. Vaudevills between acts.

As Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Mills, newly weds were in town Wednesday evening with the Stanford orchestra, of which Ralph is a member, about thirty young people met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Mills that evening and gave them a miscellaneous shower of many useful articles. They left the next morning for Gregory, South Dakota, where they will make headquarters for the winter.

New steel fixtures have been installed in the postoffice at Page.

Monsignor Cassidy and niece, Miss Mary Cullen, left Monday morning for New York to visit relatives.

The W. C. T. U. will meet with the L. T. L. at the M. E. church on Wednesday, October 24th, at 3 o'clock p. m. All members and friends interested are cordially invited.

Every Monday we open the door of opportunity. When shall we have the privilege of helping you to enter that door through a course at Nettleton Commercial College?

Several fine rains have visited this section of the state during the past week. Thursday night the precipitation was .15; Friday morning .55; Saturday 1.08; Sunday night .90.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hunter, of Star, returned last Thursday from a visit with the former's mother, Mrs. Margaret Hunter, at Tipton, Iowa.

E. E. Cole, the postmaster at Star, Nebraska, left Wednesday morning for a visit with relatives in Kansas City, Missouri; he expects to also visit at his old home in Gretiot, Wisconsin.

Mrs. D. C. Winship, of University Place, who was visiting at the R. E. Harris home this week, went to Ewing Thursday afternoon, where she will visit before returning to her home.

Mrs. C. M. Cole, of Emmet, stopped in O'Neill for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. R. E. Harris and family, the forepart of the week, enroute home from Ewing, where she had been visiting.

WHY Shop Around?

We can give you famous Goodyear quality at a bargain price—a bigger bargain than you will ever get by shopping around. Before you buy any tire, investigate our prices on the new Goodyear All-Weather Tread balloon tire—"The World's Greatest Tire."

Mellor Motor Co.

Ford Dealers Phone 16 O'Neill, Nebraska
"Buy from a Home Concern"