

Living the Golden Rule on Party Telephone Lines

Party line telephone service is a cooperative affair. Its value to each subscriber depends to a considerable extent on how the others on the line use the service.

For instance, conversations which are unnecessarily long prevent others on the line from using their telephones.

"Listening in" makes it difficult for those using their telephones to hear, because the flow of electricity is weakened when more than one receiver is off the hook at once.

Cooperation between subscribers on party telephone lines makes the service most valuable to all.

CELIA NEWS.

This correspondent has somewhat lost out lately on account of bad weather, work and rheumatism. A combination hard to overcome, but we are glad to know the winter is two or three weeks shorter now anyway.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Greenwood mourn the loss of their first born baby; the little form was laid away in the Atkinson cemetery, Rev. Ross-nussen conducting the short funeral services at the grave.

J. V. Johnson is doing some much needed repairing to his dwelling house to the extent of a new roof, new lap siding and a porch. Ole Larson, a cousin of Johnson, living in Butte, is doing the work.

W. O. James went to Omaha Sunday to visit his son, Ernest, and also to attend to some other business.

Two Fricke boys and Milton McKathie are picking corn for Mr. Scott.

After staying home a week and patrons' day. A short program and luncheon was enjoyed by all present. Mr. and Mrs. Herman Klingler, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Strong of O'Neill, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. A. Klingler.

PLEASANT VALLEY NEWS.

"KINK OF KINGS"
with H. B. Warner (The Christ); Dorothy Cummings (Mary, The Mother of Christ) and sixteen other stars. You are going to be amazed at the complete sincerity of De Mille's direction. Nothing is studied. There is no aiming at theatrical apparel. De Mille has followed the New Testament literally and fidelity. He has taken no liberties. Frequently, in his groupings, he has followed famous Biblical paintings. It is difficult to analyze the performance of H. B. Warner as Jesus. We can conceive of no more difficult role in the whole world field of history and literature.

helping with some work on the ranch. Albert Johnson drove the community truck to Oakland; Elmer Johnson drove it back home with a load of oats; staying at home a week; the following Sunday a carload of feeders were shipped to Oakland from the Johnson ranch from which the boys will make baby beef, and other beef too, this winter. A saddle horse was put in the car with the cattle, for the boys to ride.

Considerable interest was shown in the election in this precinct; 91 votes were cast. The Democrats were greatly in the majority electing a democratic township board. A disagreeable incident happened in that two voters had to be challenged, one on account of being a nonresident having moved his family away before election; the other a young lady not yet 21. The former claimed he was a resident regardless of moving and swore in his vote; the latter admitted she was not of age and did not vote.

A bunch of people, some old, some young and some younger, were invited to the McCathie home for a hallow-ween party and a jolly good time had they, with plenty of refreshments and finishings. Witches, black cats, and old maids were conspicuous by their absence, but a poor little stripling of a ghost made itself visible and was timidly entertained and treated to what the excited bunch could afford. The merry-makers went home early and did not get much sleep that night.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF HOLT COUNTY, NEBRASKA.
William Bartels, Plaintiff, vs. Ferdinand G. Berg, Charles Boon, Naomi Boon, Ben Fidler, Jessie Fidler, and John Mitchell, Defendants.
Notice To Nonresident Defendants.
TO Ferdinand G. Berg, Charles Boon, Naomi Boon, Ben Fidler and Jessie Fidler, Impleaded with John Mitchell, Defendants:

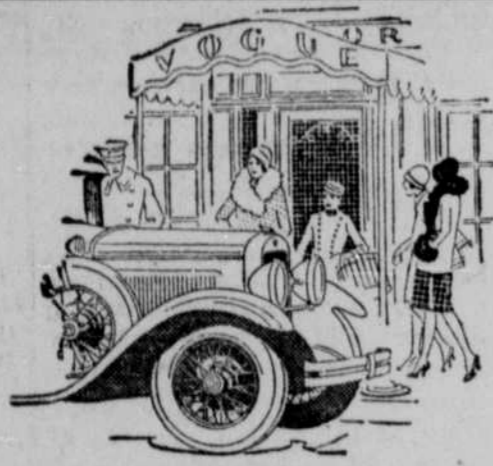

You and each of you are hereby notified that on the 5th day of November, 1928, Plaintiff William Bartels, filed his petition against you in the office of the Clerk of the District Court of Holt County, Nebraska, asking the foreclosure of a real estate mortgage upon the Northwest Quarter (NW 1/4) of Section Twenty-one (21), Township Thirty-three (33) North, Range Thirteen (13), West of the 6th P. M. in Holt County, Nebraska, which mortgage was recorded in Book 139, Page 114 of records of said County.

That default has been made in the payment of principal and interest thereon and there is now due and owing on said mortgage the sum of $354.50. Plaintiff claims that the lien of said mortgage is superior to the rights, interest, lien or title of each and all defendants and that it is a first lien on said premises. Plaintiff asks that the property be sold and the proceeds be applied to the payment of the amount owing on said mortgage.

For a more specific statement of plaintiff's cause of action you are referred to said petition.

You are required to appear and answer said petition on or before the 17th day of December, 1928, or default will be entered against you as prayed. Dated this 5th day of November, 1928.
