HIGH SCHOOL NEWS.

The Eighth Grade have written letters (English Composition) to children of the same age in various European cities. Several interesting letters have been received in answer. The following was received by Catherine Hagensick:

9, Compton Walk, Southampton.
Nov. 1, 1928.
Dearest Catherine: I now take the greatest of pleasure in writing a letter to you. My head mistress gave me your letter this morning, and I said I should be delighted to write to a friend abroad. When English girls write to friends abroad we call the friends our pen-friends.

You say you are a camp-fire girl, please tell me what you do. I should love to hear a little more about your school, because I am very fond of my school. I attend Central District Girls' School, and I do not wish to leave just yet because I am fond of my teachers and head mistress. They are so very fond of the girls here, too. I go to school from January to December (including holidays). We have monitors and Perfects at our school and I am a Perfect, and I wear a very nice badge.

Do you like Drawing and Painting? My sister and I have both won Scholarships for Art. I can play the Piano, and the Guitar. I have been learning the Piano for seven years.

I am in Grade eight at school, and my lessons include Reading, History, Geography, Hygiene, Elocution, Arithmetic, Drill, Sewing, Painting and Drawing. If you had the chance to read the books in our class library, you would envy me, because we have the most beautiful stories that school-girls could read.

We do have Carnivals in Southampton and last year my sister and I took part in a Charity Carnival. As soon as I go to the photographers I will send you a photo of us in Fancy Costume.

Southampton as you may know, is one of the great Gateways of the World, and we have hundreds of visitors to Southampton to see Bargate and the Old Roman walls. They are very interesting and not very far from our home.

The girls of Central School (the school I go to) are giving concerts at Soton's Coliseum next week. The item is entitled "Little Dutch Tiles" and we are dressed in Dutch costumes. I have the principal part, as soon as it is over I am having my photograph taken and I will send you one.

I am sixteen years of age, I have blue green eyes. I have a fair complexion and am five feet two inches in height, my hair is chestnut brown, I have it semi-shingled because short hair is the fashion and is considered hygienic.

I will tell you more interesting facts about England when I write next week, I should like to hear more about Nebraska. We sing many songs and most of them are American, we have a lovely one called "Nebraska." (I am going back again to old Nebraska). I am always singing it. You must please excuse my bad writing but I have to change and go right to school. I will tell you more about that next time.

Have you any sisters or brothers? I have a twin sister and two step brothers. My own father is dead, and also my step father. My mother is now a widow for the second time.

I should like some photographs of you and your brothers and sisters if you have any. I am inclosing one-half dozen oil paint transfers. You must soak them in water for 20 seconds and then they are ready to slide off. You can put them on furniture or whatever you wish, because they stick themselves.

I will send you some next time. I hope to continue to hear from you and I shall love answering your letters. I must close now with heaps of love to you, hoping to hear from you very soon.

My address is: Mable Carter, 9 Compton Walk, St. Mary's Road, Southampton, England.
P. S.—My sister would also like to have one of your friends write to her. Your friend must use the same address but my sister's name is Louise Carter. My best wishes to you, I remain ever your loving friend,
MABLE.

MY TRIP TO CHICAGO.

To the Seventh National 4H Club Boys' and Girls' Congress.

I left O'Neill Saturday forenoon, December 1st, on the Northwestern, arriving in Omaha to assemble with other 4H club boys and girls that had won honors to the 7th National Congress, held in Chicago, December 17. We arrived in Chicago Sunday morning at 7:45 and was photographed as soon as we left the train, going immediately after to the La Salle Hotel to register.

We attended morning worship at the Central church and listened to a well delivered sermon by Frederick Shannon, this was broadcasted over W. E. N. R.

After luncheon we were taken for a fifty mile bus ride to see various points of interest in the city some of which were the Stevens hotel, the largest hotel in the city; Lake Michigan; a building cleaned with chewing gum and since known as the chewing gum building; Lincoln park which consists of 625 acres; Garfield park; and 3000 varieties of Chrysanthemums 5300 different plants in all; a traveler tree, being so named on account of the water continually passing through the tree; red peppers; sensitive tree and a castor oil tree; the richest lady in the world, Mrs. J. W. Rockefeller; the 541 boulevards; there are 205 parks in the city.

We ate dinner at the Planters Cafe, attending church in the evening at the First Methodist, the sermon being delivered by Dr. John Thompson.

Monday forenoon after breakfast we all went to the International Live Stock Show held at the 4H Boys and Girls Club house. We were photographed as we assembled before the club house in Special and State groups. This is a building that all club boys and girls may be proud of.

We were served a 12 o'clock luncheon, courtesy of Sears and Roebuck, at the club building.

In the afternoon we attended the judging at the International Live Stock Show. At 4 o'clock we assembled and were taken to Wilson & Co., where we were entertained in the Auditorium by a program which consisted of clowns, jugglers, magicians, comedians, troubadors, Scotch Melodies and dances, Pathe Pictures and music.

At 6 o'clock we were dinner guests of Thomas E. Wilson, chairman of the National Committee of Boys' and Girls' club work.

At 7:00 o'clock we were entertained in the Auditorium by Thomas E. Wilson. At 9:00 o'clock the entire delegation formed in line, four abreast, in the arena of the International Amphitheatre, according to States, under the direction of George E. Farrell, United States Department of Agriculture. Introduction of Champions were made and the song, America the Beautiful, was sang, directed by Earl J. Cooper.

Tuesday forenoon Armour & Company entertained us to breakfast after which we were taken through the Armour packing plant.

Then went to the Sherman Hotel and by courtesy of the National Live Stock Producers Association were served luncheon.

We were entertained at 6 o'clock 4H club members own Banquet and rally in the ballroom of the Sherman Hotel. Toastmasters were George E. Farrell, U. S. Department of Agriculture. "Chicago is yours" by a Representative of Chicago Association of Commerce.

Address of Welcome, Sam H. Thompson, President of American Farm Bureau Federation. The National Health Scoring by Elizabeth McCormick. Entertained by 4H Harmonica Band, Glee Club, by courtesy of H. Hohner Inc. This was broadcast over W. L. G.

Wednesday forenoon the boys and girls separated. The girls were taken to Montgomery Ward & Co., where they breakfasted. An address of welcome was given by President George B. Everett and Vice-President G. E. Crandall of the company. After which we were taken through the building and acquainted with how our orders were taken care of when they receive them. Birdie Erskine, of Havelock, was awarded the cook book, and recipe file, and we other girls ever-sharp pencils, compliments of Montgomery Ward & Co.

At 10 o'clock we went to the Model Farm at Mundelein, Illinois. As guest of Public Service Co., of Northern Illinois and were their luncheon guests on the train. At 2 o'clock we returned to the International Live Stock show, where the 4H club boys met us. We were entertained by band music and watched the special matinee horse show.

At 7 o'clock we attended the National 4H club party at La Salle Hotel in charge of Miss Josephine Arnquist. After which health talks were given by Dr. Carolyn Hedger. The health champions were presented. Stunts, games and songs were indulged in under Miss Arnquist and at 10 o'clock taps were sounded.

Thursday forenoon the International Harvester Co., took us for an educational tour through their plants as guests of Cyrus McCormick Vice-President in charge of manufacture. We saw the manufacturing of tractors, binders, mowers, twine, etc.

A photograph was taken of all the 4H club boys and girls of the United States that attended the congress which was over 12,000. We were luncheon guests of the International Harvester Co. After which we were entertained by a program. We spent the afternoon at the New Field Museum, then attended the banquet in the ball room of the Palmer House as guests of the different railroad companies; Toastmaster P. C. Taff, Assistant Director of Extension Service in Iowa State college. Music by 4H brass band and glee club and Harmonica band.

Address by George K. Cherry famous explorer; after which we took the train for home. I arrived in O'Neill Friday evening at 10:20.

This trip was awarded to me for my record as a 4H club member by courtesy of Northwestern Railroad Co., and I am sure has given me an edu-national experience hard to express in words.

The cooperation of the firms and companies in Chicago and the entire United States can't help but better the movement that is under way to better in the future, the 4H boys and girls clubs as well.

Making our motto ring true "Make the Best Better and the Better Best."

MRS JOHN LIENHART.

Mrs. Azora Lienhart was born at Crown Point, Indiana, June 11, 1862, and died at her home in O'Neill, Nebraska, December 22, 1928, at the age of 66 years, 6 months and 11 days.

She was married to John Lienhart January 1, 1880, at Minden, Nebraska, where they made their home until 1900; when they came to Holt county where they continued to reside until her death.

She leaves to mourn her loss, her husband, four sons, Ralph, of Winner, South Dakota; Raymond, of Chambers, Nebraska; Frank, of Bristow, Nebraska; John Jr., of Woodburn, Oregon; one daughter, Mrs. Glenn Smith, of Long Beach, California; two brothers Oril Kronkright, Priest River, Idaho; Bird Kronkright, Rosebud, Montana; one sister, Mable Straw, Woodburn, Oregon; also fifteen grand children.

A short service was held at the home Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock, conducted by Rev. O. A. Fortune. Final services were held at Minden, Nebraska, at 11:00 a. m., Monday, at the United Presbyterian church, of which she was once a member, later uniting with the Baptist Church at Harold, Holt County, Nebraska.

All the children were at her bedside when the end came. They all drove to Minden, Nebraska, to attend the funeral services.

Services at Minden were conducted by Rev. George Longstaff, of Hansen, Nebraska, formerly of O'Neill; interment was made in the Minden cemetery, beside George, a son, who died at the age of four years.

CAD OF THANKS.

We take this method of expressing our gratitude to those friends who so kindly gave us sympathy and help during the sickness and death of our beloved wife and mother, Mrs. Azora Lienhart.

LIGHTS AND WIRING

To insure perfect electrical operation in a motor car, a regular electric inspection should never be neglected. Safe driving at night requires good lights which will neither menace to the oncoming car nor inadequate for the driver. Attention to bulbs and wiring will also help to prevent losing one light. Many night time accidents have been directly traceable to the fact that a one-eyed auto, with the good light on the outside, has been mistaken for a motorcycle. In almost every case recorded the blind side met the smash.

In some localities from time to time regular drives have been made on one-eyed cars but a far better plan is the constant reprimanding of the operator of any car so disabled. The cause of the damage is usually very slight and can be adjusted at almost any wayside station.

If the bulb itself is not broken, one of the connections may be loose, the matter of just a few seconds work by even the most amateur of electricians.

Lights for illumining the dash board should be replaced immediately if the tiny filaments in the bulbs become broken. The dash board is of paramount importance and the careful driver checks constantly when driving to see that all dials are registering correctly. Oil gauge dials are particularly important for it takes little running on low oil, or no oil, to ruin a motor.

A check on all terminals should be made along with regular car inspection, as the use of the car war-rants, but at regular intervals.

No wires should be allowed to hang loose at any time and all minor accidents should receive prompt attention.
