WOOD-AURINGER.

(Neligh Leader.)
 A notable event of the holiday season in Neligh was the wedding of Miss Marion Auringer and Claude DuVal Wood of O'Neill. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. B. Burkhart of the Congregational church and was the simple ring ceremony. There were present only Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Spirk in addition to the immediate family of the bride. The bridal couple descended the stairs just as the hands of the clock showed the hour of 12 Saturday night. Immediately after the ceremony the young people left by auto for Norfolk from where they went to Sioux City, Des Moines, Cedar Rapids and Dubuque, Iowa. Following their return they will make their home in O'Neill, where Mr. Wood has a responsible position with the Interstate Power company.
 The bride was born in Neligh, spent all her life here, graduated from the local high school and then attending the state university at Lincoln where she graduated with a B. A. degree. She has more recently been employed in the law office of L. E. Jackson. She has been one of the most popular of the young people in Neligh, cultured and accomplished and O'Neill people will find her a distinct addition to the social life of the city.
 The groom has a responsible position in the division headquarters office of the Interstate Power company and his duties bring him into intimate contact with Neligh people among whom he has made many friends.

MARY ALICE ASHER.

Mrs. Mary Alice Asher passed away at the home of her son, H. G. Asher, southeast of Page, about nine o'clock Tuesday evening following a lingering illness caused by cancer of the stomach.
 Mary Alice Swarts was born in Ohio, August 1, 1854. She came to Holt county in March, 1884, from Macedonia, Iowa.
 She was married to Benjamin Asher at Kouts, Indiana, July 25, 1869. Twelve children were born to this union, eight sons and four daughters; Mrs. Eva L. Miller, Klamath Falls, Oregon; Heber G. Asher, Page, Nebraska; Mrs. Alta Madsen, Noah Ray Asher, Norfolk, Nebraska; Clinton F. Eddie A., and Niel A., of Page, Nebraska; Ross, Roy and Freddie, deceased.
 For a number of years Mrs. Asher has kept house for her son, Eddie, on the home place. She was always an active, energetic woman. When she became ill some time ago she was taken to the H. G. Asher home where she could receive better care.
 Funeral services will be held from the Methodist church in Page Friday afternoon at two o'clock; services will be conducted by Rev. Samuel McKeown. Burial will be in the Page cemetery.
