Home Economics For Boys.
Instruction for boys in home economics, says the Department of the Interior, is now being given in two states. There are now more than 7,000 boys in high school taking such courses. In Tulsa, Oklahoma, a year of Home Economics is required of boys before they may graduate.

GRADE ITEMS.

First Grade.
One language lesson that was given in the First grade was "The Cat Mamily."

The children brought pictures and told interesting stories about pets. When asking the question, "What would you call a mother and her kittens?" One little girl said, "Pest." The rest of the children didn't agree with her for they thought it was wonderful.

Second and Third Grade.
Mrs. Walter Warner, Mrs. Frank Langmack, Mrs. Bert Gunn and Mrs. Edd Gunn were visitors in the Second and Third grades this week. We enjoy having parent visitors.

Fifth Grade.
Mrs. Davy visited the Fifth grade Tuesday afternoon.

Sixth Grade.
The following are the names of the pupils that received the highest grade in semester examinations:

Arithmetic—
Jean Rummel	100 per cent
Warren Densberger	100 per cent
