

High School News

Editor Ambrose Rhode
LEST WE FORGET.

Ambrose Rhode, Editor.
O'Neill High is our school and everyone of us should feel a personal responsibility for its well being. Some don't realize that it is our institution, that it exists for us and that all should contribute their best to the common good. The students are the ones that set the school's standards in everything; in spirit, in co-operation, in conduct and manners; in scholarship and athletics. Whether or not that standard will be one that we will be proud to uphold is determined by each one's attitude toward his school. The progress our school makes is determined by each individual's contribution to it. Each pupil is a part of the school and should see to it that he contributes his best influence to its well-being. A school is of the pupils, by the pupils and for the pupils.

BE FRIENDLY.

By Ambrose Rhode.
When we are tired and lonely,
And all the world seems drear;
A cheerful word of some dear friend,
Will make us glad we're here.

How could life be worth living
Out in a desert place,
Without the blessed presence
Of a dear friend's smiling face?

Some one has said—"A smiling face,
A million Bibles is worth."
If this is so, we should possess
The wealth of all the Earth.

CLASS SPIRIT.

By Shobert Edwards.
Class spirit is a part of every student. It is there, the same as his hands and feet are there. If he doesn't have it, it is like someone with his hands or feet cut off, caused by something that shouldn't have been allowed to happen.

Class spirit doesn't always make itself known when you first enter high school or the grades. It waits a long time in some folks and then makes itself known all at once. Others are conscious of it from the very first and it grows in them as they go on through school and these are generally the best type of students.

A student should always think of his class when he is performing any act which might be injurious to the class and not do anything to injure it or his classmates.

Any person who thinks more of himself than of his class and school should be gone over by a specialist who would declare what species of brain disease was possessed by the student in question.

Class spirit comes of front when you are a senior and are ready to leave school and bid your classmates, teachers (whom you thought you hated) and school goodbye. You say that you don't care for school but when it comes time to go you think differently and wish you had four more years to give to your school.

SCHOOL BOYS HAVE ACCIDENT

B. George Abdouch.
Two brothers, Harold and Donald Shoemaker, students of the O'Neill High school, narrowly escaped serious injury last Tuesday morning when their car was hurled into a ditch. The accident occurred one mile and a half south of this city, while the boys were coming to school. They ran into an oil truck and their car was knocked into the ditch. Both boys crawled through the top, uninjured. The Ford, which the boys were driving, was completely demolished while the oil truck was damaged somewhat.

SPORTS.

By Bruce Rummel.
O'Neill High Beats Inman.
On the Inman last Friday, O'Neill High beat Inman 18-14. The teams were well balanced and every minute had to be played. At the end of the first half, Inman was in the lead 9-8. At the start of the second half both teams came back hard. During the third quarter Inman managed to run up 5 more points while O'Neill made 6 leaving the score at the end of the third quarter 14-14. The last quarter brought no scores for Inman and O'Neill made 4 leaving the score 14-18 as the final whistle blew.

The game was well attended by the students of our High. The cheering body kept up a continuous roar through the whole game.

Austin Schriener won the accuracy award, a Sheaffer's pencil, in the Beginning Typewriting Class. Writing at 44 words per minute with but five errors Nellie Toy won the Sheaffer's pencil for speed.

The Advanced Typewriting award of a Gregg Dictionary, was won by Loretta Saunto at 61 words per minute. Helen Pinkerman won the Gregg Phrase Book in the Advanced Shorthand Theory Test. The Gregg Dictionary was awarded to Loretta Saunto for the best transcript at 80 words per minute.

Nellie Toy received the Gregg Dictionary in the Beginning Shorthand Theory test.

GET READY FOR THE NEW SIZE PAPER CURRENCY

Violet Robinson reports the following interesting item from "The Path-finder":
The new paper currency, to make its initial appearance next July, is 6 1/2 in. x 2 1/2 in. The old paper currency is 7 1/2 x 3 in. The reduced size is expected to effect a saving for Uncle Sam in the cost of making paper currency and to assure a longer life for the bill itself. With the advent of filling stations for the auto, the life of paper currency has been considerably shortened because of the greasy hands which handle it. The new bills will be in the following denominations and will carry portrait engraving as follows:

- $1.00—Washington.
- $2.00—Jefferson.
- $5.00—Lincoln.
- $10.00—Hamilton.
- $20.00—Jackson.
- $50.00—Grant.
- $100.00—McKinley.
- $100.00—Franklin.
- $100.00—Franklin.
- $1,000.00—Cleveland.
- $5,000.00—Madison.

GOOD POSTURE FOR HEALTH.

Too much emphasis cannot be placed on good posture. Correct posture is essential to health, while the effects of wrong posture are lasting. Many evils, as many be brought on by the various incorrect and unhealthy postures so much in evidence now days. Workers in all fields of activity, especially school children, are liable to become tired and slump into incorrect postures. Thus parents and teachers should instill in their boys and girls the desire to maintain correct postures at all times. Make them stand tall and keep shoulders high and square.

MUSIC.

Biography of Walter Damrosch by Violet Robinson.

Walter Johannes Damrosch is a very noted American musician. He is a son of Leopold Damrosch and has been a resident in the United States since 1871. He inherited the musical talent from his father and succeeded him in his enterprises. In 1894 he founded the Damrosch Opera Company for the production of Wagner. Since 1903 he has been director of the New York Symphony Orchestra which he also reorganized. He is the special exponent of the Wagnerian School of Music, and has conducted operatic performances in all the large cities, proving himself a most acceptable leader.
