MRS. DENNIS HANLEY.

Mrs. Dennis Hanley, a resident of Holt county for over fifty years, passed away at her home in the north-eastern part of this city Friday, March 1st, following an illness of about ten weeks of influenza and complications.

Mary Devaney was born in Easley County, Sligo, Ireland, January 1, 1855. She was united in marriage to Dennis Hanley in Scranton, Pennsylvania, January 6, 1876. She came to O'Neill with her husband in May, 1878. Mr. and Mrs. Hanley located upon a homestead three miles north and one mile west of O'Neill where they made their home until about fourteen years ago when they came to O'Neill and built themselves a home. Mr. Hanley passed away in July, 1927.

Mrs. Hanley was one of the pioneer women of this county; she endured the hardships and privation suffered by the sturdy settlers who were instrumental in the upbuilding of this country. She was a lady who enjoyed a wide circle of friends.

Those who are left to mourn the loss of their mother are Miss Martha who has remained at home and cared for her mother; P. J. Hanley, Portland, Oregon; James H. Hanley, Miss Mary Hanley, John Hanley, Omaha; D. C. Hanley, Spokane, Washington. All of the children were present excepting John, of Omaha, who was confined in a hospital.

PHILLIP SIMMONS WRITES FROM HONOLULU, HAWAII

The following letter was received by Sheridan Simmons from his son, Phillip, who is a First Class Private in the 13th, F. A., and is now located in Schofield Barracks, Honolulu; he enlisted in Omaha in June, 1927, and sailed for Honolulu in July of the same year. He enlisted for three years. Schofield Barracks, Honolulu, Hawaii, February 24, 1929:

Dear Dad: The job I have now surely keeps me busy, but I like it; I have charge of all athletics in the regiment. We have some swell sports over here, right now we have boxing, track, basket ball, soccer and baseball going, so it keeps a person busy, but it makes the time go faster and that is what I want so I can soon be back in the states. I think I will be located in North Dakota or Oklahoma on my next hitch, and that will be in fifteen months from now; then I will be able to come home once a year on furlough. Young Clark Hough is here in the 11th F. A., and Dick Stearns in the 8th F. A.; it sure seems good to see some one from home after being gone this long. I just ran across them by accident.

FROZEN BODY OF MAN IDENTIFIED AS PIERSON, IOWA, YOUTH

(South Sioux City Eagle.) W. M. Davis and M. V. Lewis of Pierson, Iowa, last evening identified the body of a man supposedly found frozen to death on Monday afternoon in the wooded tract of land near Crystal lake, about a quarter of a mile southwest from the junction road leading into Gateway beach. Mr. Davis is a brother and Mr. Lewis a brother-in-law of the dead man, and they came here on reading a description of him.

Mr. Davis, the dead man, was 24 years old and was on his way to Wisner to work on a farm commencing March 1, for Gus Kruger, whom he had worked for two years past. Davis, who has been spending the winter at Pierson, Iowa, in the home of his sister, Mrs. M. P. Lewis, left there two weeks ago last Tuesday to visit another sister at Persia, Iowa, Mrs. S. P. Larrison. From there he intended to go to Wisner. Nothing had been heard of him since leaving his sister's home at Pierson, other than a week ago last Thursday he ate his supper in the home of Irvin Clark at Sioux City, an old acquaintance.

John Early and Thomas Mace, farmers, discovered the body Monday afternoon when they were hunting rabbits in a wood tract at the north end of Crystal lake. The body was partly covered with snow and was in a small gully in a piece of brush about half a mile from federal state highway No. 20.

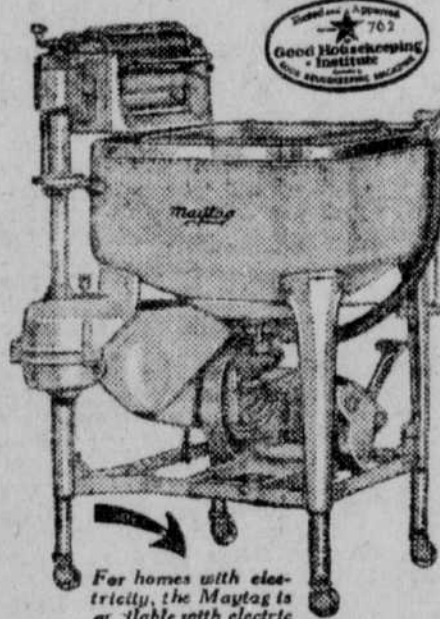

It was in a reclining position against a log, as if it had been lain there. When the dead man left Pierson, according to his relatives, he had over $125 in his possession, and all that was found in his pockets were a work mitten, a can of Prince Albert smoking tobacco, a nickel and an advertising pencil from the Farmers Co-Operative company at Haskins.

The identification card in his car case has been removed, which his relatives said he always carried.

An autopsy was held but his stomach showed no sign of poison or alcohol.

WASHDAYS are now WASH-HOURS on the FARM

THE many advantages that a Maytag has over other washers are advantages that are available to any farm home because the Maytag gives you your choice of power—gasoline or electricity.

The Maytag does the average farm washing in an hour or two and what farm wife would not appreciate the economy of the life-lasting cast-aluminum tub; the saving in clothes by the gentle water washing action of the gyrator; the saving in time and labor effected by the new Roller Water Remover that wrings everything evenly dry and spares the buttons?

Only the Maytag has the Gasoline Multi-Motor

This modern, high-grade engine is made for the Maytag by The Maytag Company—the world's largest producers of single-cylinder gasoline engines. It is a simple, sturdy, smooth-running, reliable power plant. A thrust of the pedal starts it. It is so compact that it is interchangeable with the electric motor by removing only four bolts.

His relatives report he was a young man of good habits, did not drink or carouse, and they are at loss for his appearance where the body was found.

The body will be shipped to Inman today for burial from the Otto E. Kuk funeral parlors, where it was viewed by hundreds before identification was made. The dead man's father resides at Inman.

It certainly is a mysterious case and needs some investigation. It is highly probable the young man was lured across the river by some Sioux City toughs, although no marks of violence were on the body.

Tires for the new Ford are specially made to give long wear

WHEN the new Ford was designed, it was immediately apparent that a new tire would have to be made to match the car's performance. It was distinctly a new problem, for here was a car with quicker acceleration, greater speed and more braking efficiency than any car of similar size or weight.

So that every Ford owner might be assured of maximum tire mileage at the lowest cost, the Ford Motor Company devoted many months to research and experiment in conjunction with the leading tire manufacturers.

As a result, certain definite specifications were developed for tires for the new Ford. These specify cords of certain strength and texture, a large volume of tread and side-wall rubber, sturdy non-skid design, and reinforced plies for protection against bruise breaks—all the strong features of construction formerly considered for only the largest tires.

Great care also was taken to secure the best riding qualities in connection with the transverse springs and the Houdaille shock absorbers.

Though the Ford tires are designated as 30 x 4.50, they have the resiliency and air space of much larger tires because of the drop center rim of the steel-spoke wheels.

For best results, the tires on the new Ford should be kept inflated to an air pressure of 35 pounds and checked regularly to insure this pressure all the time. This is important. Low inflation breaks down the side-walls of a tire. By causing overheating, it also destroys the rubber that acts as an insulation, with consequent separation of the cord.

At the end of each 5000 miles, when you have the front wheels packed with grease, it is a good plan to have the wheel alignment checked. This will prevent premature wear.

When punctures come, as they will with any tire, you will find the Ford dealer particularly well-equipped to make repairs quickly and at small cost. See him, too, for replacements. Then you will be sure of getting tires built specially for the Ford car according to definite Ford specifications.
