Lips One Inch from Mouthpiece
Enables Others to Hear You Best

Talking directly into the mouth-piece with your lips about one inch away enables the person at the other end of the line to hear your voice clearly.

Every additional inch the lips are away from the mouthpiece makes it increasingly difficult for the person with whom you are talking to hear you.

The value of telephone service depends to a considerable extent on how it is used.

WILBER GEORGE BUYS BUSINESS AND HOME

The following article is clipped from a Escondido, California, newspaper, and tells of the purchase of a home and business by Wilbur George. Mrs. George will be remembered here as Sarah Simmons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sheridan Simmons of this city.

Purchase has been made by Wilbur George of the Escondido circulation business of the San Diego Union and Tribune and in the same deal secured the cosy home property of M. W. Dalby, who has held the Union-Tribune circulation here for some time past and from whom Mr. George made the purchase. Possession of the business will be taken over March 1. Mr. and Mrs. George will move into the former Dalby home on East Third avenue on April 1.

Wilbur George is at present a popular barber of this city, located at the Metropolitan shop. He has resided here several years and has many close friends.

"IT" GIRL HITS WITH GLYN TALE

"Three Week Ends" Hailed As Popular Star's Greatest Moving Picture.

UParamount has added another winner to the list of pictures which are making 1928 "Paramount's Greatest Year."

"Three Week Ends," Clara Bow's new Elinor Glyn picture which will open at the Royal theatre for two days is the latest thing from this studio and it is a new sensation.

People are talking about "Three Week Ends" as they talked about "It," the first one of Clara Bow-Elinor Glyn combinations, and about the second, "Red Hair." It is a cyclone of love, laughs and legs with the Bow personality whirling all through it.

Why spend "Three Weeks" learning about love when "Three Week Ends" can teach "It" in one evening? Clara Bow snops things up in this story of a little East Side girl who gets a job dancing in a cabaret and dances right into the heart of a rich playboy and a poverty-stricken salesman. She gets away with a lot on the playboy but she just gives and gives to the salesman.

There are pathos, fun, romance and melodrama in this story. Neil Hamilton is the leading man and Harrison Ford has an important part. The supporting cast has a group of established favorites and, at least, one surprise.

CELIA ITEMS.

The weather is simply wonderful in Holt county and we are enjoying tropical fruit too, bananas, raisins, and Sunkist Oranges.

Man McKathnie had a birthday anniversary Saturday and several of the younger set drove in for a surprise party on him in the evening. It did not surprise his mother though, since she had made preparations fit for a gang of corn huskers.

The northwest schoolma'am has a new boss now, Roy Parshall is the new director appointed to fill the vacancy made by Peter Judge moving away. One of the first official acts was to put a new padlock on the coalhouse. Some one will likely have to chop wood now or freeze.

Elmer E. Johnson, senior member of Johnson Bros., started for Oakland in the community truck, Monday morning, with a mixed load, the major part was a horse and a nurse cow which will supply the boys with milk. The minor part was some household necessities including a couple of beds upon which they likely will retire. Fay Carns went along to see the sights.

Through the kindness of neighbor Scott this humble scribe had the privilege to attend the spelling contest in O'Neill Friday night. Mr. Scott had a full load including Mrs. McKathnie, the east school ma'am and two of his daughters, Dorothy and Josephine. Josephine took part in the spelling. The contest was very interesting and the spellers evidently knew all the letters in the alphabet.
