HIGH SCHOOL NEWS.

RESULTS OF THE ELIMINATION DECLAMATORY CONTEST

A large crowd was present at the Declamatory Contest last Friday evening. The Oratorical and Extemporaneous divisions were held in the afternoon, Dramatic and Humorous in the evening. There were entries from town around O'Neill within a radius of fifty miles. Music was furnished by the O'Neill High School Orchestra and special selections were given by the Glee Club and by Elizabeth Henry. We are not able to state who received first or second in the following divisions because the judge was not allowed to inform us. The winners are as follows:

In Extemporaneous, Robert Davies, of Butte, and George Criss, of Stuart; their topics were respectively, "Undeveloped Water Power" and "Disarmament Conference of Harding's Administration." Both boys gave exceedingly good talks. In the Oratorical division, Ivy Nelson, of Spencer, placed; her topic was "The World a Whispering Gallery." Thelma Riley, of St. Mary's Academy also placed, her topic being "War or Peace or Both."

A peculiar happening occurred in the Dramatic division, Phoebe Abdouch of O. H. S. and Agnes Kirwin of St. Mary's both placed and both spoke "Angle's Wickedness." In Humorous, Doris Ball of Butte, and Donley Pederson of Naper placed; their pieces were respectively, "Lulu Sees a Football Game" and "Togo Papers the Bedroom."

Mr. Dewey of Wesleyan College, Lincoln, Nebraska, judged the contest. Principal R. V. Jones of O. H. S. was official time-keeper.
