CELIA ITEMS.

Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Johnson made a trip to Wausa Saturday, returning Sunday, in the community truck bringing back a load of barley. The highway No. 20 was in fine shape for traffic. They had an enjoyable visit with their sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Monson and their daughter, the ex-east schoolma'am, Judith. A fine rain shower fell there Saturday evening which extended a few miles west of Plainview on coming home, the Johnson's turned in and took supper with the hospitable J. K. Ernst family Sunday evening.

Quite a prairie fire got started, Friday, about eight miles north of Atkinson. The wind was blowing a gale raising the dust skyhigh, making the whole country look like it was on fire. A telephone call started the fire whistle in town and quite a number came out to help put it out which was done before the fire did any particular damage. A strip about two miles long was burnt over. The wind went down and the weather behaved itself without fault for about fifteen minutes after which a terrible wind and rain storm came from the west with considerable hail. The hail was reported very heavy towards the river and in Boyd county.

A WORD OF APPRECIATION.

I wish to express my appreciation to the people of O'Neill for the liberal patronage given me during the past four and one-half years that I have been in business in the city.

JAMES DAVIDSON CONDEMS PINCHBECK PLUMBING

Pinchbeck is an alloy of copper, tin and zinc which resembles gold. Possibly some half-wit would be fooled by it. In color there is marked similarity, but the solidity, the "feel" of the master metal is absent, as is its characteristic weight.

But without touching it, without lifting it, there is one thing which spoils its specious appearance and introduces suspicion.

It is a certain greasy look, an oleaginous, slippery tactile quality—a wax-like cast or film which true gold never has possessed.

The cheapness and vulgarity of the base metal is most evident to one who has never seen the clean, luminous glow of gold.

There is PINCHBECK PLUMBING—easily obtained and cheaply bought, yet it fools no one who has once glimpsed the good.

Personally, you would not care to deck yourself with pinchbeck jewelry. The effect of PINCHBECK PLUMBING is quite the same.

The imitation may be sincere flattery to the good, but only fools are duped by it.

We create nothing but fourteen carat, solid gold plumbing, because we believe a small amount of this variety is infinitely preferable which it produces, to volume of the PINCHBECK stuff which leaves its tawdry mark upon all who use it.

In this, you must agree with us.

The program committee of the Business Girls' Club entertained at a "Kid" party at the L. O. O. F. hall Monday evening. Kiddie cars, roller coasters, doll buggies, all-day suckers and ice cream cones were prominent features of the party. We understand the girls did everything that was customary for children to do. Mrs. Ira Moss won the prize as a little fat girl.
