WILLIAM J. FROELICH PROMINENTLY MENTIONED AS U.S. DISTRICT ATTORNEY FOR NEBRASKA

Omaha newspapers are giving prominent mention to William J. Froelich, formerly of O'Neill, as the next United States Attorney for Nebraska in succession to James C. Kinsler, the present incumbent.

For some years Mr Froelich served as assistant district attorney under Mr. Kinsler, where he was regarded as the "ace" of the staff on prohibition matters. As a result of his success there, he was called to Washington when this administration assumed office, where he was made a special assistant to the Attorney General of the United States, with headquarters in Washington. Since assuming his new post, Mr. Froelich spent some months in the trial of important liquor cases in Florida and is now temporarily in Nebraska in the same work. As a result of his success in Florida and Nebraska he is said to be very highly regarded by those in authority at Washington.

Mr. Froelich's personality and fairness have made him a great many friends among the profession who are undoubtedly urging his appointment.

His many O'Neill friends rejoice in his success.

ANOTHER BASEBALL PLAYER JOINS TROSHYNSKI FAMILY

Atkinson Graphic: One of Holt county's families long famous for its contribution of ball players to teams in this vicinity is well on its way to producing a full team in the second generation. Tuesday at the Atkinson general hospital a son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Troshynski, making the fifth boy in the second generation, one other belonging to Henry and three in the family of his brother, August.

For the past fifteen years or more, members of the Troshynski family have played on Atkinson, Emmet and O'Neill baseball teams. There are seven boys in the family, every one of them good players. They are: August, Tom, Dan, Jack, Bill, Hank and Mike. August and Henry are the only ones married. It would seem quite impossible that the boys in their families could grow up without becoming baseball players.

ESCAPES MAD DOG

Atkinson Graphic: While out in a field where her brother was cultivating, last Saturday Helen Greeley, daughter of Mrs. Albert Purnell, was attacked by their dog which was thought to have gone mad. The girl who is about thirteen years old, displayed great courage and presence of mind when she seized the animal by the collar and managed to keep from being bitten until she came to a place where she could get out of reach. She then threw the dog aside and dashed to safety on a cultivator. Mr. Purnell arrived with a gun and put an end to the situation by killing the dog. Mr. and Mrs. Purnell live on a farm near Emmet.

WHIPPET AND BUICK COLLIDE ON HIGHWAY

A Whippet car driven by James and George Bolen, of Verdigre, and a Buick sedan driven by Osiai Krmolan, of Louisville, Nebraska, collided on Highway No. 20 about three miles northwest of O'Neill shortly after dark Monday evening. The Bolen boys were skinned up considerably but no bones were broken; an elderly lady riding in the Buick suffered a couple of broken ribs and an elderly gentleman in the same car received a light cut on the neck; both cars were badly damaged. John Stauffer pulled the wrecked cars to O'Neill Monday night, where they are being rejuvenated.

We understand that the Bolen brothers, through their attorney, M. F. Harrington, have commenced an action for $1,000 damage against the Buick owner.
