ATTENTION MODERN WOODMEN

Esteemed Neighbors: Our official paper, The Modern Woodman tells us that the Head Camp changed the By-laws of our organization to provide for a change in the form of policy from the present form to the forms written by Old Line companies and of course a change in rates which means a raise in rates to a point that almost takes the breath of the older members that have faithfully stood by the order and made it what it now is.

This "adjustment" of rates as I understand it will be as follows at the ages shown. Can we stand it? Age 51, $2.85; 52, $3.00; 53, $3.15; 54, $3.30; 55, $3.45; 56, $3.60; 57, $3.80; 58, $4.00; 59, $4.25; 60, $4.50; 61, $4.75; 62, $5.00; 63, $5.25; 64, $5.50; 65, $5.80; and from 67 on, a flat rate of $6.50 per thousand each month.

The Camp at Beatrice has secured an injunction preventing these rates from being put in force July 1st, as intended by the head camp and the case has been taken to the Federal court at Lincoln, and the Beatrice camp is asking our co-operation in behalf of all the members that are being so unceremoniously kicked out of the order and deprived of their protection which they have faithfully paid for all these years. It seems to me we should get together and discuss this thoroughly and determine what action we should take for the good of all the members. See our local camp officers or write them at once your ideas in this matter so some action can be taken. John Melvin or W. G. Beha, O'Neill, will be glad to hear from you on this subject, which all of us are interested in.

Yours fraternally, John A. Robertson.

The minutes of the last meeting were read by the Secretary, after which came the news report, by the Secretary. The Princess-Slip and Kitchen Apron were not examined, as there were only a few who had finished theirs. Just one demonstration was given, as the others were unprepared for it, but will try to be prepared at the next meeting, which will be held at the home of Loela and Ethel Brokaw, on Wednesday, August 21st. After the lunch was served they returned home.

OLD TIME MINSTREL COMES TO SCREEN

A regular old-time minstrel show, as played by a traveling company on the road some years ago, has a prominent part in the Eddie Dowling starring production, "The Rainbow Man" which comes to the Royal Theatre Sunday and Monday.

"Doc Hardy's Minstrels" and later "Ryan and Hardy's Minstrels" in the story of "The Rainbow Man" presents the characters Rainbow Ryan, played by Eddie Dowling, and "Doc" Hardy, played by Sam Hardy. Dowling is the star and Hardy is the old-time manager and interlocutor of the troupe.

A picturesque setting is used for the presentation of the minstrel show as it plays a small southern town in the story. Opening with a parade, with the minstrel men in their gray top hats and linen dusters the minstrel show is put on just as it would have been played in the town opera house. In the minstrel show sequences of the picture Eddie Dowling, accompanied by the stage full of minstrels, the orchestra and the banging of tambourines, sings several of the catchy songs which are a part of the entertainment.

James Hanley, writer of many successful song hits, wrote the melodies used in the minstrel sequences and elsewhere in the picture. Fred Newmeyer directed the production for Sono-Art and Louis F. Gottschalk staged the musical ensembles and arrangements. It is a Paramount picture.

STRENGTHENING EFFECTS WONDERFUL, SHE STATES

"After all other medicines and treatments had failed to help me, I started taking Sargon and Sargon Soft Mass Pills and my improvement was immediate.

"My usual strength and energy had left me completely. I was tired and couldn't sleep well at night. I had very little appetite, couldn't relish my food and practically everything I ate disagreed with me. Even the slightest exertion tired me out completely. Headaches made me suffer so much at times that I simply had to give up and go to bed.

"Almost with the beginning of the Sargon treatment I felt better. My appetite picked up and my strength and energy with it. In two weeks I was so strong and energetic I didn't feel like the same person. Now I eat and enjoy my food, I never have headaches, and I sleep well at nights and feel rested and refreshed in the mornings. The pills stimulated my liver and regulated it without the slightest nausea or bad after effects. "The Sargon treatment is simply wonderful and I can never say too much for it."—Mrs. Etna D. Mohler, 5726 Walker Avenue, Lincoln, Neb. Chas. E. Stout, Agent.
