LOCAL NEWS.

Mrs. H. H. Johnson, of Lincoln, Nebraska, is here visiting her sister, Mrs. C. P. Hancock and family.

C. E. Zimmerman, one of the proprietors of the Zimmerman & Son cream station, spent Sunday in Omaha.

Mr. and Mrs. Gifford Bachman and children returned home last Sunday from a few days visit with relatives in Omaha.

Mr. and Mrs. Anton Toy are in Omaha buying goods for their general store, and attending "Market Week" festivities.

C. W. Porter, E. F. Porter and Harry Bowen went to Pelican Lake, in Cherry county, today in hopes of landing a few bass.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Mitchell, of Wayne, were week-end guests of his sister, Mrs. Frank Langmark and family. Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell were on their way home from a trip of 9,000 miles. They left Wayne the first part of June and on the entire trip had not encountered one drop of rain.

Mrs. L. C. Chapman returned home the first of the week from Omaha where she has been purchasing goods for her style shop.

Mrs. C. P. Hancock entertained the M. M. Club last Friday afternoon in honor of her sister, Mrs. H. H. Johnson, of Lincoln, Nebraska.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Page, daughters Miss Alice and Miss Arlene, accompanied Master Warren and Master Walter Page to their home in Sioux City, Iowa, today. Master Warren and Walter are nephews of Mr. Page and have been spending the summer vacation at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Page, north of O'Neill.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Protivinsky and children returned home Wednesday afternoon from a seventeen day auto trip that took them to Stanford, Montana, and points of interest in that locality, where they visited relatives. Mr. Protivinsky tells us that the crop conditions look as well around O'Neill as they do any place along the route; he says that they covered the 2300 miles without an accident but he says that he saw the remains of many accidents, some of which cost the lives of those who were in them. They spent one night with Mr. and Mrs. Parnell Golden, in Casper, Wyoming.

Miss Mary Ryan is expected to arrive this evening from Sioux City for a visit with her brother, J. B. Ryan and with other relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Miller and four children, and Mr. and Mrs. Chester Ross and baby departed last Monday for an auto trip to Portland, Oregon, Bellingham, Washington and other points in the west. They expect to be absent about two months. They will attend a golden wedding anniversary of Mrs. Miller's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Childs, at Bellingham, Washington, on September 2nd; they will return to Montana and will visit former Holt county residents who reside in that state.

EDUCATIONAL NOTES

A Pre-Opening Meeting for the teachers of the rural schools of Holt county will be held on Thursday, August 29th, at 9:00 o'clock, at the O'Neill Public School. Every teacher who has contracted to teach in Holt county for the coming year is expected to be present.

Mr. Ralph H. Cole, from the State Agricultural College, will be present and give instructions in Farm Accounting, and Mr. C. A. 13-1 Road Overseer, District No. 4

NOTICE

We shall plan again this year to register pupils prior to the actual opening of the school year. This will make possible giving more attention to the needs and wishes of each individual pupil than would be possible on the opening day. Each pupil is therefore urged to register before Monday, September second; if you positively cannot come at the time indicated in the following schedule, come at one of the other times, or phone Supt. Miller for a special appointment.

REGISTRATION

Ninth Grade—Thursday afternoon, August 29, or Saturday afternoon, August 24.
Tenth Grade—Friday forenoon, August 30.
Eleventh Grade—Friday afternoon, August 30.
Twelfth Grade—Saturday forenoon, August 31.
