ADMIT ROBBING OMAHA LOVERS Taxicab Men Flee from

Scene of Operators_ Captured in Colorado

OMAHA, NEB.--(UP)-Ray Har-ger and Roy Allen, Omaha taxicab drivers, suspected of a series of sensational drugstore and filling station holdups here, have been captured at Douglas, Wyo., Inspector of Detectives Ben Danbaum was notified Friday.

According to the sheriff the youths confessed to three of the holdups here. They were traced by a green automobile owned by Allen. A young woman aided them in two of the robberies here, acting as driver of the car and speeding the men safely away after the robberies had been committed.

The men are suspected also of having committed several "lover's lane" holdups, in which several hundred dollars in cash and considerable jewelry was taken from couples parked in secluded spots.

CITY MANAGER PLAN BOOSTED

Omaha Taxpayers' Group Plans Vote on Proposition Next Spring

OMAHA, NEB .- (UP)-Establishment of a city manager plan of government will be the issue in next spring's city election, it was indicated here Saturday when C. H. Gerber, head of the Taxpayers' Research association of Nebraska announced that voters will be asked to vote on the city manager plan prior to the commissioner elections. It previously has been intended to vote on the proposal at the regular election.

Gerber's announcement was coupled with charges by members of the association that public funds are being extravagantly used by city, county and school board heads.

The issue is likely to cause a split in the Dahlman slate at city hall. City Commissioner Joe Koutsky announcing himself in favor of city managership and applying for the position, while Mayor Dahlman said he opposed it and would fight it openly

Koutsky said he believed he could save Omaha taxpayers $250,000 a year if he were selected city man-

HUNTERS MORE OF NUISANCE WOMEN DEMAND THAN THE PHEASANTS COLUMBUS - (UP) - Hunters would be more of a nuisance to the farmers than the pheasants are, the Platte county supervisors decided in reaching the decision not to ask Chief Game Warden Frank O'Connell to include Platte county in the list of counties in which an open season on the birds will be declared this fall.

O'Connell, in a letter to the supervisors, said that a short open season on pheasants in Platte county could be provided if the supervisors passed a resolution asking that the open season be granted. The board voted to table the proposition, however, because they felt hunters from other counties would throng in to the county and would create more disturbance than the birds.

NEBRASKA CORN SLIPPING BACK Lack of Moisture Causes Deterionation Since August 1

LINCOLN, NEB .- (UP) -Although the Nebraska corn crop has deteriorated 9 per cent since the first of August, the corn is still promising over most of the state, A. E. Anderson, federal and state agricultural statistician, said in his mid-month crop report The condition of corn is 77 per cent as compared with 86 per cent on August 1, Anderson said.

"Corn has deteriorated 9 per cent since the first of August," the report states. "The moisture supply is short throughout the state except in a few counties. Conditions of corn is very good in northeastern Nebraska and still promising over a part of east-central and southeastern Nebraska. A few counties in central and southwestern Nebraska are still in good condition. The corn in a few of the central and southern counties has been injured severely and has fired badly.

"Corn has withstood the dry weather remarkedly well. The corn in all counties having a good reserve moisture supply has developed and while some permanent injury has been sustained, it still has a chance to make a fair crop. The cool weather has relieved the situation considerably. In other counties the damage varies from considerable to almost complete injury. The per cent of corn acreage in lowlands injured by floods is very small and the same is true of injured upland corn. The per cent of the state corn

TO DISPOSE OF GUTRU ESTATE

Will Divided 10,000 Acres of Nebraska Land Into Smaller Farms

OMAHA, NEB .- (UP)-The 10,-000-acre estate of the Gutru fami-ly lying in Platte, Madison and Boone counties will be sold immediately, George H. Gutru who has managed the estate for 25 years announces.

The land, all of which is improved, will be divided into tracts ranging from full sections to 80 acres and disposed of to the highest bidders.

The estate is the largest improved and cultivated tract remaining in Nebraska, it is said. In it are more than 50 modern farms.

"After 25 years of hard work I believe I am entitled to a rest," Gutru said. "My three boys are growing up and I want to take them where they can get a university education."

Gutru is the only remaining male member of the family which settled on the estate 30 years ago.

TRIPLE FUNERAL FOR

AUTO ACCIDENT VICTIMS COLUMBUS-(UP)-Three girl friends, who met death together in an automobile accident near Columbus Sunday night, will be buried here tomorrow afternoon following triple funeral services at the Christ Lutheran church.

Ernest Marty, 18 years old, of Leigh, who was erroneously reported Tuesday to have died of his injuries sustained in the same accident, is in a Columbus hospital and has improved slightly from his injuries. Those killed in the collision were Adella Meyer, 17 years old, of near Columbus; Martha Shaad, 19, of near Columbus, and Frieda Schaad. sister of Martha.

There will be short services at the homes of the girls at 1:30 p. m., followed by a triple service at Christ Lutheran church. The Rev. H. L. Boreman, pastor of the church, will officiate. Burial will be in the parish cemetery.

MISSING WAYNE YOUTH

FOUND IN SOUTH DAKOTA WAYNE-(Special)-Manley Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Wilson, who has been missing from his home here since the first of July, has been found. The young man left here in company with a magazine salesman for whom he agreed to drive. When no word came from him his parents became alarmed. Authorities in states nearby were notified and the lad was finally located at Fedora, S. D.

Young Wilson says that the salesman gave him dope to keep him in a weakened condition. Letters which he wrote were given to the man to mail but failed to reach their destination.

OPEN SEASONS ON PHEASANTS

Five Nebraska Counties to Be Given Shooting by State Commission

LINCOLN, NEB .- (UP) - Five Nebraska counties already have applied for an open seasons on pheasants this fall and action on the question in several other counties is pending, Frank O'Connell, chief game warden, announced Thursday.

The counties in which there will be open season are Nance, Knox, Morrill, Valley and Boone. The season will come the latter part of October for a week or 10 days, but the dates will be set definitely at the next meeting of the state game and parks commission. Counties that already have rejected the proposition of open season are Hamilton, Platte, York, Merrick and Howard.

There will be no open season on prairie chickens this year nor next, O'Connell said. The next open season on that bird will be October 15, 1931.

WAYNE GARAGE MEN PLAN FOR AN AIRPORT

WAYNE-(Special)-Wayne will have an airport, the enterprise to be sponsored by Guy Strickland and Walter Miller, Wayne garage owners. The men have purchased a Curtiss-Robins plane, sister ship to the one which stood an endurance test of a 420-hour flight over St. Louis recently. A 50-acre field has been leased for a flying fiield and a hangar is being built there to house the plane. The building will be large enough to house other planes as well. An air school will be established under a licensed pilot. Passenger service also will be perfected.

DAUGHTER'S MARRIAGE

SEPARATES HER PARENTS OMAHA-Disagreement over the marriage of their daughter has taken Mr. and Mrs. Reginald R. Young, of Omaha, into divorce court. Young, a restaurant man, has filed suit for divorce from Ida O. Young whom he married 35 years ago. He cited the disagreement over the marriage of his daughter, Dorothy, as a cause for his action.

At the same time, Young filed suit for annullment of the girl's marriage to Charles H. Sandberg, of Omaha, charging she misrepresented her age at Glenwood, Ia., on July 10 of this year.

The young couple said they would fight the annullment action.

Young, in his petition claims his daughter will not be 17 years old until November. She told Glenwood authorities that she was 18 years old, and her mother, who accompanied her daughter to the license bureau, made the same statement. Young avers.

Mrs. Young admitted this but declares her husband consented to the marriage six months ago, but when the couple was ready to get married he refused to sanction it.

GIRL BACK HOME AFTER

ESCAPADE WITH MEXICAN LINCOLN - (UP) - Betty Clause. 13 years old, had been foiled today in both her attempt to run away with a Mexican, Pete Roddees, 20 years old, and in her attempt to take her life by poisoning. She was back at home in Lincoln and explained her running away by saying it was due to "silliness." Roddees is under arrest.

The two were picked up in Grand Island Friday by officers who became suspicious when they saw the young red haired girl and the Mexican get off a train separately and later unite.

While in the women's ward of the Grand Island jail, Betty took a dose of poison early in the afternoon and another about dinner time. She was revived after the second dose by a nurse who was serving time in the jail. Her lips were burned slightly by the poison.

OMAHA GIRL HAS FUR COAT "HOME GROWN"

OMAHA-Leila Sweet, 17 years old. is no Baby Bunting, it is true, but her mother, Mrs. E. C. Sweet, 4146 Grant street, rounded up a bunch of rabbit skins to wrap her daughter in, nevertheless,

Mrs. Sweet's hunting for the rabbits extended only as far as her back yard, for she raised the rabbits herself.

Lella was graduated from Tech high in June. Mrs. Sweet decided to give her a fur coat for a graduation present.

A bunch of Mrs. Sweet's fine chinchilla rabbits provided the fur. An Omaha furrier put the skins together.

The present didn't arrive at graduation time, but only recently, because of a delay in getting the coat made. Leila is hoping for an early fall so she can show off the gray chinchilla.

STATE OF NEBRASKA TO

BUY SNOW FENC. LINCOLN - (UP) - To prevent a recurrence of snow blocked roads as occurred last winter, the state will purchase 446,000 lineal feet of snow fence and 27,000 steel posts, State Purchasing Agent Yoder announces.

The bids on the material will be opened in Yoder's office September 3 at 10 a.m., and delivery is to be made by October 1. #### NEBRASKA HAS THREE

NEW GAME PRESERVES YORK- (UP) -Two new game preserves have been established by Izaak Waltons in Nebraska within the last few weeks, officers here say. One is located near Ainsworth and the other near Hayes Center.

The Ainsworth preserve includes approximately 5,000 acres of wooded land along Plumb creek. It is already well stocked with wild game and plans of the Waltonians are to increase the variety. Wilk turkeys are to be brought here from other sections of the country, as well as other game birds and animals.

Walton league members at Hayes Center have secured a tract of 40,-000 acres of land north of town, heavily wooded with pines and some hard woods. Three major springs are located within the limits of this refuge and with their smaller tributaries, from streams which are suitable for trout propagation. Two trout nurseries are being established within the preserve.

Quail and pheasants are said to abound in great numbers on the Hayes Center preserve and more of these varieties as well as a number of wild turkeys will be liberated there some time this fall.

NEBRASKA APPLE GROWERS FORTUNATE THIS YEAR

LINCOLN - (UP) - Apple producers of Nebraska should have a profitable year with the nation's apple crop less than last year but the state's crop expected to be above the average. A. E. Anderson, federal and state agricultural statistician. Savs.

"High prices are in prospect for apple producers this year," he said. "The total United States farm crop as well as the commercial crop is considerably below last year. Fortunately, the Nebraska crop is much larger than last year and somewhat above the average."

The Nebraska crop is estimated at 818,000 bushels as compared to 470,000 bushels last year and the 1923-27 average is 776,000 bushels. The commercial crop is placed at 88,000 barrels against 30,000 barrels last year and the 1923-27 average of 95,000 barrels.
